

East Baltic

Mr. John Gillis (Junior) has recently taken up employment at East Point Light House.

Mr. Frank Greene, Montague, was a recent business visitor to Red Point and South Lake.

The weekly Mission Band meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGregor, East Baltic, January 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sorrey and three children, Montague, spent a few days with Mrs. Sorrey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Kingsboro.

Mr. Alvah Ching, Red Point, was on a business trip to Montague, January 20.

Mr. Clarence Rose is able to be out and about again having been confined to his home at North Lake, for the past three weeks through illness.

The Trail Rangers meeting was held at the Baltic Hall on the evening of January 27.

The Teddy's and Beavers hockey teams, Souris, played a good game at Red Point on January 28, and the score was 9-4 in favour of the Beaver team.

While playing with the Red Point and Fortune team January 20, at the Red Point Community Rink, Mr. Jackie Aitken, Bay Fortune, of the Fortune team got his leg seriously injured and was immediately taken to the Souris Hospital, and at time of writing the extent of his injuries was not known. Several X-rays were taken and his host of friends do hope that Jackie will not have too long a hospital stay. Mr. Aitken is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Aitken, Bay Fortune, and is widely known in these Eastern districts.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Murray who were recently married at Montague. Mrs. Murray is the former Joan Johnstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Johnstone, Montague, and is well-known in the Eastern districts.

Mr. Vincent Mossey, Charlottetown, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mossey, Bothwell.

Mr. Callum McLean, Kingsboro, spent a pleasant week-end with friends in Red Point.

Mr. Daniel McDonald, East Baltic was on business to Murray Harbour, January 24, where he purchased a large new fishing boat. Mr. McDonald is one of North Lake's most successful lobster fishermen.

The Red Point hockey team and Fortune team put on a good fast game at the Red Point Community Rink, January 29th and the score was 5-3 in favour of Red Point team.

Mr. Alvin Macdonald, South Lake, was in the vicinity of St. Peter's recently.

Mr. Robert A. Dixon, East Baltic, was a recent business visitor to Murray Harbour.

The East Baltic Women's Institute members supplied the many refreshments at the Red Point rink centre, January 29th and a large sum of money was made in aid of the rink fund and was greatly appreciated by all in charge of the rink.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McIntyre, East Point, are spending some time in Halifax.

Mrs. Wallace McInnis returned to her home at North Lake, having spent some time in the Souris Hospital.

Misses Theresa and Mary Finnan, Souris West, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson, Kingsboro.

Miss Audrey Robertson, teacher at Kingsboro School, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robertson, Red Point.

There was a large attendance at the Red Point Community Rink on January 27, when the Red Point and Little Harbour teams put on a very fast clean hockey game and the score was 7-1 in favour of Red Point team.

Mr. Wallace McInnis who recently spent some time with relatives in U. S. A. returned to his residence at North Lake.

Miss Annie M. MacLean, East Point, has recently taken up employment in Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Bortein, motored to Charlottetown, January 25, and accompanied back there baby boy from the P. E. I. Hospital where he recently underwent a successful operation and is now convalescing at his home in Kingsboro.

Mr. Alton Robertson, Munn's Road, spent some time visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Sam McLeod, Uig.

Mrs. George MacDonald, Kingsboro, left recently for Boston, Mass., where she will remain for some time. While there she will be the guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Llewellyn, Norwood, Mass.

The friends and neighbours and relatives will be happy to learn that Mr. (Tom) Robertson, Munn's Road, has recently undergone a most successful operation in the Souris Hospital, and a speedy recovery is extended to her.

Messrs. Gus Mallard, North Lake, Lee Coffin, Kingsboro, motored to Charlottetown, Jan. 28th, on business.

Mrs. Roddie J. Kidson, Red Point, visited with her daughter, Mrs. John McKie, who is a patient in the Souris Hospital and a speedy get-well is extended to her from her many friends.

The ice on the Red Point Community Rink was perfect during the past week and there were many who took the utmost advantage of it. It also started some of the older folks who had not had skates on for 38 years, but could still show the younger one that it is something you can always do.

The many friends and acquaintances do regret to hear that Mr. Kennie Fraser, North Lake, has again entered the P. E. I. Hospital, where he underwent an operation and a complete speedy recovery is extended to Mr. Fraser.

Mr. Walter Douglas, Souris, on January 27, accompanied a group of Souris school boys to Red Point, where they had a nice game of hockey with the Red Point School team boys. The score was 7-2 in favour of the Souris boys.

The weekly prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Robertson, January 27. Due to the stormy night the attendance was not as large as usual. Rev. D. I. McClare was present.

STANHOPE W. M. S.

The January meeting of the Stanhope W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Carr. It opened with the theme and call to worship followed by singing "The Church's One Foundation" and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Scripture readings were given by Mrs. Harry Lawson, Mrs. Bruce Ellis, Mrs. Keith Douglas and Mrs. Horace Marshall, followed by prayer. Mrs. J. E. Misener read a chapter in Hurlbut's Bible Stories and also prepared a reading from the Study Book.

Mrs. Lloyd Shaw invited the members to meet at her home in February. Roll call to be answered with a verse containing the word "Enemy". Mrs. Warren Marshall and Mrs. Alvin MacLellan will read the stories.

Hymn "O Love and Power" and prayer closed the meeting, after which Mrs. Carr and committee served lunch.

Trucks were whizzing by shortly afterwards and all were made happy again.

Miss Bernice McPhee, Red Point, spent the past week-end at her home in Bayfield.

The residents are digging themselves out from the recent severe cold snap and some of the older residents say they never had such a cold snap in their memory.

POOR START

GRIMSBY, P.E.I. — Seafaring Ben Johnson, 14, left school and stowed away aboard ship but was discovered suffering severe seasickness and sent home. Said Ben's blind father: "I shall not stop him going to sea if he still wants to do so when his schooling is over."

February Valentine for him

Cake of the month

so high! so rich! so fresh!

...pink lace valentine with a chocolate heart

Say "I love you" with the cake he loves most—a tall, dark and handsome Shirriff's Chocolate Cake Mix cake. The Shirriff's Kitchens have dreamed up a quick way to put Valentine frills on this quick chocolate cake. It's done with lacy shredded coconut—tinted to a sentimental rosebud pink. And for real heart-warming chocolate charm, use the chocolate cake mix that's blended with real imported Dutch Chocolate... a Shirriff's Chocolate Cake Mix. When you add the extra richness of dairy-fresh milk to this real chocolate mix... you can't help but get a moister, richer-tasting chocolate cake... a cake he'll know you've put your heart into!

fresh milk makes a fresher, richer, better keeping cake

VALENTINE GAME

Fill and frost a Shirriff's Chocolate Cake Mix layer cake with 7-minute frosting. Then sprinkle generously with pink-tinted shredded coconut.

To tint coconut: Soak coconut in water to which a few drops of Shirriff's Red Food Colouring has been added.

Drain and dry.
