FEATURING FISH Tuna, Cabbage Provide Appealing Autumn Dish

Think the tuna season is over with the passing of the summer salad season? Not so. Tuna is adaptable well to many hot lunch or supper dishes. Here is a new recipe for a Scandinavian origin fish which has an appealing taste and a dish and one which has especially fine flavor.

TUNA (CABBAGE) ROLLS
2 cans 7 ounces each tuna
12 large cabbage leaves
1 cup cooked rice
1/2 cup finely chopped celery
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
1 egg, beaten
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
2 chicken bouillon cubes

1 tablespoon brown sugar
1/2 cups boiling water
1/2 cup light cream
2 tablespoons "sour cream"
1/4 teaspoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Drain and flake tuna. Cook cabbage leaves in boiling salted water for 2 minutes. Drain. Cut lengthwise through the heavy vein of each leaf. For about 2 inches combine rice, celery, onion, egg, mustard, horseradish and tuna. Roll up. For about 2 inches combine rice, celery, onion, egg, mustard, horseradish and tuna. Roll up. Irishtown Will Hold Sale
Fourteen members were present for the October Irishtown Women's Institute meeting held at the home of Mr. A. Leigh Paynter.

The usual opening exercises were used with Phyllis Johnson reading the thought for the month.

Ruby MacLeod had visited the school and provided supplies. New school and sick visit cards were given. The members are Mrs. John MacLeod, Mrs. Tom Campbell, Mrs. Clair Campbell and Mrs. H.B. MacLeod.

Correspondence was read and discussed. Requests for financial aid for several organizations were referred as the quota had already been given for this year.

It was agreed to bring layette gifts and clothing to the next meeting for the U.S.C. Mrs. Leigh Paynter read a letter on United Nations which contained in part a protest on parents buying fur toys as gifts for children at Christmas rather than something that would encourage them to think of Peace on Earth.

The November annual meeting will be held at Mrs. John H. MacLeod's home. A White Elephant sale was conducted and a color contest was written out.

The "Queen" was sung and lunch served in conclusion.
