Chalk Up Second Straight Victory Over Navy Team

Giving a brilliant display throughout two torrid periods of basketball Hi-Y Grads last night retained their City Basketball title and became possessors of the magnificent Kelly and McInnis Trophy when they sent their desperate challengers, the Navy team, down to a 23-18 defeat in the final game of the best of three series. It was the Grads second straight victory in the hard fought series and in retaining their title they lived up to the high reputation they have sustained in Island hoop circles during the past four years.

They were the better team last night and richly deserved their victory. Led by the sensational Walter Goss and brilliant Jack McLean Grads started their victory march early in the game to build up a commanding lead and then showing the stuff that champions are made of they gave a fighting display in the final minutes of the second half to hold off the determined, rugged bids of their opponents. Close to three hundred spectators that packed the Holy Name Hall gym to capacity were supplied with thrills at a time a dozen throughout the stirring match and at the end the champions were given a well-deserved ovation.

Goss and McLean were the heroes of the Grads successful defence of their title. Although every player on the team gave a brilliant, hard-fighting display it was this dynamic duo that supplied the punch late in the second half that hauled their team out of the shadows of defeat. Goss, prominent in the openings stages as Grads built up their lead with accurate, sensational shots from centre floor came through with another long shot from his own free throw line to give Grads a four point lead with only five minutes to go and then when the losers threatened again McLean came through with two brilliant field goals that put the verdict beyond a shadow of a doubt. Starting out with a vengeance Grads built up a five point lead in

Terry Leads Giants To 7-2 Victory Over Phillies; Browns Defeat Tigers 12-4

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, April 22.—Bill Terry, playing his second full game of the season, got three hits again here today to lead New York Giants to a 7-2 victory over the Phillies as Carl Hubbell turned in his second pitching triumph.

The New York manager slammed out a triple and a pair of singles and drove in three runs. Yesterday he connected with two singles and a double. Hank Leiber also drove in three runs today, poling out a homer off Euel Moore with two on in the first inning.

Brooklyn Dodgers, playing at home, scored their first shutout of the season, defeating Boston Bees 5-0 behind the five-hit pitching of George Earnshaw. The victory also was Earnshaw's first triumph of the season.

With Buddy Hassett, Linus Frey, Ben Geraghty and Jimmy Bucher getting two hits each, the Dodgers found Tiny Chaplin for four runs and seven hits in six innings and picked up another run and three blows in the last three frames with Bobby Rele on the mound. Two of Brooklyn's blows were tripled by Hassett and Bucher.

Calvin Chapman, utility outfielder came to bat as a pinch hitter in the eighth inning at Cincinnati and smacked out a home run that provided Cincinnati Reds with margin for a 7-6 victory over St. Louis Cardinals.

It was Chapman's fourth hit in five times as a pinch hitter this season.

Outfielder Louis Soffle of the Cards lost Chapman's hit in the sun and before he recovered the ball, Kiki Cuyler, who had singled, and Chapman had raced across the plate. Lew Riggs, Reds' third baseman, then hit another home run into the bleachers.

His Reverence Wins City And Suburban Stakes

(By Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, April 22.—His reverence, an Irish-born and Irish-trained five-year-old, made all the running today to win the 86th renewal of the City and Suburban stakes.

Owned jointly by G. F. Annesley and Mrs. J. Weesey His Reverence finished with a margin of three lengths over another five-year-old, Guinea Gap, owned by Lady Nuttall. Third in the field of 18 which ran the 1 1/4 miles of the famous Spring handicap was Mrs. Washington Singer's Rippen Tor, a length back of Guinea Gap.

Neither Lord Derby's Highlander, who proved a surprise last-minute favorite, nor Lady Rall's finalist, one of the top choices, showed up during the race.

His Reverence's victory was one of the easiest on record. The 100 to 7 shot, by Duncan Gray out of Reverentia, drew clear of the field almost at the start and died all the way to finish in 2:10 3-5. Pegasus finished fourth and Norman Herald fifth.

McLarnin Shows Form In Workout

By Sam Robertson, Canadian Press Staff Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, April 22.—James Archibald McLarnin is in for a pretty pasting at the hands of Antonio Canzonieri the night of May 8, in the opinion of most New York boxing scribes who have broken into print on the subject at this early date.

Jimmy, they reason, has been away from the wars so long his firing irons must be caked with rust. Antonio has been hopping in and out of the ring like a jack-rabbit through all of the seasons. He has appeared in defence of his lightweight crown, and otherwise, 12 times in the last year.

McLarnin last fought in May, 1935, when Barney Ross, of the Chicago Rosofskys, stripped him of the welterweight title on a decision that remains a subject for arduous argument hereabouts.

Reports which preceded Jimmy into New York from the west coast made his outlook seem even darker. They said he had developed a paunch at the ripe old age of 30 and was up to 160 pounds.

In view of these doleful advance notices, it was a great shock to see a slim-waisted, keen-eyed fellow who answered to the name of James Archibald McLarnin streak through a workout in the Pioneer Gym today.

He looked about 22 and cavorted like a yearling, with no signs of spavins.

"As a matter of fact," he said with a twinkle of amusement in his eyes, "I've never weighed 160 in my life. I'm 147 now and expect to be 144 for the fight."

"I walk around 10 miles every day, on the golf course and elsewhere, and have two or three gym workouts every week. I'm in as good shape as ever and ready to give a fine account of myself. Tony is a grand fighter. We should have a swell time."

Jimmy wouldn't say he expected to stop the little Italian before the bout had run its course of 10 rounds. He was certain, however, that he would win. He didn't think Tony could give him 10 pounds.

Boxing And Wrestling At Motor Show

Wrestling and boxing bouts will be one of the feature attractions at the Motor Show at the Forum tonight and in all four bouts, one of wrestling, action galore is promised. The boys are all evenly matched and will go "all out" in their efforts to win.

In the main event of the evening Bruce McCallum, promising young Island mitt-slinger meets Jimmy Allen of Moncton, N.B. It should be a terrific struggle. The New Brunswicker comes highly recommended as to his battling tendencies while McCallum takes second place to no one in this respect. The weights are: McCallum, 131; Allen, 130.

Mike "Tiger" Pasha and Danny McQuarrie, two 145-pound local lads meet in the semi-final that should produce a n o t h e r rip-roaring struggle all the way. Concluding the boxing end of the program will be the comedy bout between the one and only John Joseph Patrick O'Brien and an opponent known as the masked marvel. Joe is making a comeback in the squared circle after a short retirement and the Marvel will have to live up to his name to win—so Joe says. This bout is bound to chase any and all blues away from worried business men.

The wrestling bout should be a corker. Irving Vale, 165 pounds of brawn and muscle and hard as nails takes on an equally tough opponent in Frank McIntyre, another '66 pounder. McIntyre, quick as a flash has been installed a slight favorite but the management expect to see a very even struggle. They wrestle the best out of three falls with a time limit of 20 minutes to each fall.

Ten cents sees the whole show and those who attend are bound to get their money's worth in the first ten minutes.
