CLASSICS ON PARADE

This weekly promotional series of the Classics Department continues, free of charge, on Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. in the Lecture Theatre of the Robertson Library.

This week's audio-visual program contains three items:

- 1) Greek Civilization I — the first of four expert presentations on the history and culture of Ancient Greece.
- 2 & 3 Modern and Ancient Greek combined:
Two films about regions of modern Greece which treat most interestingly of the history as well.
- 2 — Ancient Moderns — treats of the island group called the Cyclades and their remarkable primitive art.
- 3 — The Peloponnese — treats of this most historic large peninsula and its remarkable traditions.

It would be greatly appreciated if faculty would announce this to their classes.

Student Council Meeting

The UPEISU Council will meet on Sunday, November 3 in Kelley Building, Room 210. COME AND FIND OUT about what the Student Council is doing. Of particular interest to students is a committee to design personnel policy for the Student Union. Two non-councillors are needed to sit on this committee. This is a great opportunity for students to increase their knowledge of the Student Union and to gain valuable experience for future career prospects.

Interested students are encouraged to show up at the Council meeting or inform the Student Union office of their interest.
