FILMS SHOWN—Two beautiful and inspiring film strips were shown at the regular weekly prayer service at the Baptist Church, Montague, Wednesday evening. The first was a hymn film "Yield Not To Temptation" and the second film was the first in a series entitled "The Ten Commandments". The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Rowland G. Hill, and Miss Clemmie MacLean presided at the organ.

LODGE MEETING—Miss Sue Hemphill presided at the regular meeting of Acme Rebekah Lodge, Montague, Thursday night. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Lilian MacDonald, and were approved as read. Mr. Doris Llewellyn and Mrs. Violet MacDonald were appointed on a committee to assist in soliciting donors for the blood donor clinic to be held later in the month. It was also decided to assist the Women's Institute financially in serving lunch to the donors. Final arrangements were discussed for the white elephant sale to be held at the close of the next meeting.

GIRL GUIDES CEREMONY—Mrs. Leona Sinclair, commissioner, officiated at the enrolling ceremony at the regular weekly meeting of the Montague Girl Guides held this week. Enrolled were Carol Ann Sullivan, Kay MacDougall, Sylvia Myers and Elaine Poole. Prior to the enrolling ceremony, the Guides studied and passed tests, together with work on the second class. The meeting concluded with a camp fire and a sing-song, closing with Taps.

Arriving in port at Montague this week was the M.V. Saval from Burn. Newfoundland, under the command of Captain John Hane. The vessel will take on a cargo of mixed produce for Newfoundland ports.

Also arriving this week was the General Bursfall from Belleoram, Newfoundland, under the command of Captain Leif Kearley. This vessel will also load produce for Newfoundland.

Death Friday Of Valleyfield Man

The death occurred at his home in Valleyfield West yesterday of Mr. Malcolm D. Martin, in his 82nd year following a lengthy illness. The deceased was born at Donald W. and Mary Martin, and was a farmer throughout his lifetime.

Melody Maidens Of Montague

The worth of the loose housing barn on the Upton Farm was well demonstrated this past winter, state Experimental Farm officials. There were 55 cattle, heifers and young steers, and they came through the winter in first class condition and were very clean.
