NEXT in importance to the Close-running and the precision of the Watch itself, is that it should be protected by A Tight and Well-Fitting Case.

Among the best for this purpose we consider those made at the Keystone Watch-Case Factory, Phila- delphia, U. S.

Started by JAMES BOSS, over 30 years ago this Factory has stood the test of time, and now employs a working force of 650 men.
Their Silver, Gold-filled and Nickel Cases are A. 1. Their Gold-filled are Guaranteed to Wear 20 Years, in fact, they often wear longer than that. Many of our Rockford Watches are protected by these cases, specially made for us, and which possess advantages over any other case in the market.

Grit vs. Tory Rule.

GRIT RULE. Public Debt.
TOBY RULE. Public Debt.

In five years the Grits added $40,343,007 to the net debt and left nothing to show for it—but Fort Francis Lock and a few other monuments!

Public Works.
During the Grit term
the capital expenditure upon public works was chargeable to capital was $32,588,232, or $8, 773,157 less than the increase of the debt. That is to say the Government of the Grits added to the permanent obligations of the country nearly seven millions more than they expended upon public works having for their object the development of trade and cheapening of the cost of transportation.

Interest Charges.
When the Liberal party came into office the average rate of interest on the debt had been cut down to 3.83 per cent., and five years later they had reduced it to 1.65 per cent., or by
.44 per cent.

Assets.
In 1873 the assets of the Dominion amounted to $22,970,570, and yielded an average rate of interest of 1.36 per cent.
In 1878 the assets had increased to only $31, 385,193, and the average rate of interest was 1.53 per cent., a gain in five years of $1,700,229 in assets and an increase of .67 per cent. in the rate of interest.

Under Tory management of public affairs the assets mounted up to $38,000,714, or within a fraction of 100 per cent., while the average rate of interest yielded augmented to 3.91 per cent., an increase of 2.38 per cent.

Letters to the Editor.

Information Wanted.

Sir,—Could you inform us what new found friend has come to the relief of Mr.
James T. Pound, and written his last letter for him in the Daily Patriot of the 26th inst., to which his name is attached.

I understand that it took a pair of them with the assistance of the district schoolmaster a whole week, during which time very little else was done to bring forth the wonderful production which appeared in the Weekly Patriot of the 13th January, under the heading "Sound Facts for Mr.
Haslam." And the difficulty was so great they came to the conclusion that a college course was necessary in order to meet his opponent. But the difficulty seems not to have been so great this time. Probably some college chum or the "printer's devil" in the Patriot office has taken up the cudgel for him.

Well, he needed help, for Mr. Haslam handed them rather roughly, and can do it again. It would show wisdom in the Pound man to leave politics, and attend more closely to his collegiate course. No doubt he needs it, and the readers of the Patriot will probably be able to endure the disappointment of not seeing any more of his letters for the present.

Yours, &c.,
SCHOOLBOY.

Blueshank, Jan. 27, 1887.

Meeting at Tignish.

A meeting of the electors of Tignish and vicinity, called by Messrs. Hackett and Le-furgey, to which the Opposition candidates were invited, was held on the 25th inst.

Hon. John Lefurgey being first called upon by the chairman, spoke at some length on the benefits conferred upon Canada by the Macdonald administration by the opening up of the country, by the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway, by the building of canals, and by the construction of breakwaters and light-houses on every part of the coast, and by the establishment of post offices in every part of the Dominion.
He claimed that the National Policy developed the manufacturing and agricultural industries, thus adding to the wealth of the country and giving employment to our people at home. The subway, he said, was a project possible, both in an engineering and in a money point of view, and, therefore, its construction should be undertaken by the Dominion Government. On the whole, he contrasted the McK. administration with that of Sir John's as being non-progressive and unenlightened as to the wants of the country.

Hon. James Yeo being present was called on by the chairman, but refused to address the meeting; and Hon. Edward Hackett being called upon, justified the action of the Government in sanctioning the execution of Riel. He showed that when Hon.
Edward Blake was in the Ontario Legislature, he had a resolution passed asking for the execution of Riel in connection with his first rebellion. He spoke of the National Policy, reciprocity, the debt of Canada, and defended his vote on the Home Rule resolutions.

At the close of his speech Hon. Jas. Yeo took exception to some of his statements, but being called on for proof failed to produce it.

A telegram was received by the chairman during the meeting from Mr. J. W.
Hughes, County Line, announcing himself an Independent candidate.

A division being called for, the meeting was unanimously for Hackett and Le-furgey, although some Grits were present, still they were ashamed to stand alone to show their scarcity in numbers. Hon. S.
F. Perry was not present, although he does not live far away. However, he generally avoids the Conservative candidates on such an occasion.

JAMES LANDRIGAN,
Secretary.

A Bishop on Labor.

HE CONDEMNS IMMORAL AND IRRELIGIOUS THEORIES, NO MATTER BY WHOM TAUGHT.

The Right Rev. Stephen Vincent Ryan, Catholic Bishop of Buffalo, N. Y., has written a very strong pastoral letter, which has been read in all the churches of the diocese.

"Labor and capital," says the Bishop,
"the working masses and moneyed aristocracy, may look for evenhanded and impartial treatment at the hands of God's church; yet no can fail to see where sympathy lies, or to whom her heart goes out in tenderest affection. False sons desert her; some among her children, misled or faithless, may now, as in days past, rise up against her and make shipwreck of the faith.
The loss is all theirs. Like a true and tender mother, she will mourn over the lost ones, but without minimizing the truth or abating an iota of her divine message."

"Honest and industrious work, the bone and sinew of the nation, the Church blesses you; owns your right to combine peaceably to secure the amelioration of your condition, an equitable share of the profits of your hard labor, a just remuneration of your daily toil, to maintain yourselves and families in decency and reasonable competency, in homes where cherished children may be the comfort of your leisure hours. If there shall be any condemnation it can only come through your own suicidal folly; because of the unjust principles you adopt, the unlawful ends you propose to yourselves, or the immoral means you use to attain your object. But should you, in spite of her warning voice, fly in the face of divine law, aim a blow at society, be carried away by anti-social, anarchical, immoral and irreligious theories, no matter by whom promoted or by whom defended, you certainly may expect the Church's condemnation, swift and sure, leaving a monument as striking as Babel's tower on the plains of Shinar, and of the supreme folly of building in opposition to the Almighty."

A. T. Stewart's Secret.

Rev. John Miller writes in the New York Independent the reminiscence of an interview with the late A. T. Stewart, the millionaire store keeper of New York. In reply to his visitor's question, "What is the secret of this enormous business?" Mr.
Stewart replied:—

"The only secret I know, and that is the only one I can bring forward, is that I started with the idea of becoming professionally and actually other people's merchant. I saw lawyers and doctors tower up by making themselves precious to those they worked for. It was my favorite idea that this was the secret for the merchant. Meaning to embark on what should last a lifetime, I dismissed the idea of gaining upon certain stocks; and turning over, for the moment, for speculative merchandise, I kept steadily in eye comfort and freedom from disappointment for substantial purchase.

"Hence certain rules. I swore by the "one price." Ladies who come in their cushioned carriages don't want to be fecvred by the idea of beating down. Again, perfect goods; I bought nothing of any damage. I cheapened nothing because it was not altogether right. I did not trust telling people a thing had any deficiency.
My telling them they would forget. I kept no such things. And so you understand how in a third of a century people got to buying of me with the luxury of an easy mind.

"I allowed no deceit. A youth who would misrepresent I would turn away. I forbade ladies to be allowed to deceive each other in talking of my goods, and salesmen were ordered to correct buyers who were standing by the goods, who said they would wash, for example, if they would not.

"You have no idea what comfort this would give in shopping through a long course of years, and the business would grow, under this complete freedom of complaint, in a way that neither the storekeeper nor the buyer at the time might quite remark or understand.

"This is my secret," said he, "as far as I can conceive. I have demanded full profits; and then I have bought with uniform care, and sold correctly and with absolute truth all the time."

"Poor humanity may have only one good side," adds Mr. Miller, "but, certainly, that is worthy of a record. Stewart's secret of success can do no harm if known in Wall Street, and set side by side with the secret of other fortunes that have grown in our time."

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in!
Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, indigestion, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cts. Try it.

The Board of Poor Guardians of Westport, County Mayo, have unanimously adopted a resolution condemning the Executive of the National League at Dublin as unlawfully constituted, because not elected by the people composing the League, and asking Mr. Parnell to arrange to have substituted a new executive which shall be elected by the suffrages of the whole League.
