TEARER'S DIRECTORY—No bell can ring so loud as a good advertisement. People will believe what they see rather than what they hear. No business man should be without a full page in this popular book, unless his commercial vitality is only a thing of the past.

THE Rev. Jacob Freshman is in this city. He will lecture in Y.M.C.A. Hall on Monday evening next, (Oct. 13), his subject being, "The Jews." Of the lecturer and his subject, the St. John "Telegraph" says:—

THE REV. JACOB FRESHMAN delivered a lecture last evening on a highly interesting subject, comparatively new to St. John audiences. The number assembled nearly filled the hall. The lecturer wore the garb of a Jewish Rabbi while delivering his lecture. He closed with a brilliant peroration and was frequently applauded during the course of the evening. He interspersed his discourse with interesting anecdotes. The Halifax "Herald" says:—"His lecture was, indeed an able effort, well delivered. His English plain and distinct; his voice and power of utterance are very great. In one long continued stream came the flow of language, made beautifully harmonious by his slight accent that told of all the Jew can do."
