
STORMS WERE MANY

When Attorney-General Robert Bonner was sworn into Premier Bennett's Social Credit cabinet in 1952 he was 32, the youngest fan to hold the office in the history of British Columbia. Since then he's weathered a lot of political storms, including Opposition demands for his resignation over the handling of corruption charges against a fellow minister. The Premier once callied him the best attorney-general in Canada. A skilled debater, the Vancouver-born lawyer represents Vancouver-Point Grey constituency in the legislature.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market drifted higher in some of the lightest trading in 10 years Thursday.

One reason for the light turnover was the fact that the New York Wall Street Exchange and other U.S. markets were closed for the U.S. Thanksgiving Day holiday.

Western oils advanced almost one-quarter point on index and base metals were up several decimal points. The only loser was golds which dropped one-tenth point.

Mines were relatively inactive and changes among senior issues were only fractional with gains and losses about even. Senior uraniums were mixed. Algom gained ⅛ at 10⅛ and Gunnar won 10 cents at $9.60. Consolidated Denison was unchanged at 10.

Among the lower-priced issues changes moved in a narrow range with gains balancing losses.

Western oils, which for the past two days had been setting new four-year lows on index, rose out of the doldrums during late trading. Changes, however, were only fractional with gains slightly ahead of losses.

Index changes: golds off .10 at 85.75; base metals up .14 at 16.08; and western oils up .23 at 99.40.

COOL COMMENTS

LONDON (AP) — A Moscow Radio commentator Wednesday night attacked British press reports that suggest the Soviet government is cooling off toward summit talks. The commentator said these reports appeared only after the visit to London of West Germany's Chancellor Adenauer who, he said, "can in no way be included among supporters of top-level negotiations."

Register Bar Stops Doctor

LONDON (Reuters)—Dr. John Bodkin Adams, acquitted of murder in one of Britain's most sensational trials two years ago, stood with head bowed Wednesday as his profession passed a crushing verdict on him.

He was told the disciplinary committee of the General Medical Council has refused to restore his name to the Medical Register.

Adams' lawyer said it means the 60-year-old doctor will continue a life of "absolute hell."

Adams was acquitted at Old Bailey central criminal court April 9, 1957, on a charge of murdering a rich old widow with an overdose of drugs because he knew he would benefit from her will.

But his name was struck from the Medical Register when, a few months later, he was convicted on 14 counts ranging from forging prescriptions to obstructing police by trying to conceal dangerous drugs. The court fined him £2,400.
