Smaller Type Dragers The Department has also attempted to encourage construction of the smaller type of dragger. Under a scheme begun during war-time and continued in the post-war period the Federal Government pays to fishermen, through Provincial Fishermen's Loan Boards up to $165 per gross ton towards the construction of fishing vessels coming within the dragger or long-liner class. The subsidy is available for vessels of between 55 to 60 feet overall length generally and for longer vessels owned by groups of at least four fishermen.

In the 1946-47 fiscal year, seven dragers were built in New Brunswick and $44,000 was paid out by us in subsidies. To provide further encouragement in construction, the fish Experimental Station. We are increasing our research work in Newfoundland.

In Newfoundland

The director of our Halifax Station, Dr. S. A. Beatty, is visiting Newfoundland to assess the immediate needs of the industry insofar as the application of our research to processing methods is concerned. This summer three senior technologists from Dr. Beatty's station will be stationed there to provide information and technical advice to the industry. These men will be attached to the Newfoundland Research Station for a considerable period.

It is planned also to send a senior member of the Gaspé Experimental Station to Newfoundland to assess the possibility of applying the results of the Board's experiments in light salted fish production. These experiments have reached the commercial pilot plant stage in the Gaspé area where the fundamental research on this problem was undertaken. Our biological studies in Newfoundland are being expanded as fast as facilities and staff permit.

The Bonavista Bay long-lining experiment already has passed through highly successful stages and we intend to continue that project during 1951. Other technological and biological work in that Province is now being mapped out, and we look forward to achieving good results for the Newfoundland industry. Newfoundland is entitled to, and will receive, all of the services of the Department and the Board are rendering elsewhere in Canada.

"Of particular satisfaction is the progress being made in recent months in applying the work of our new Inspection and Consumer Service. This phase of our programme is highly important, for in the final analysis the continuing success of the industry will depend on its ability to market top quality products to consumers who have been taught how to use them. Maintaining quality, in these days of rigid consumer standards, is more essential than ever before. . . . But getting fish in good shape to consumers is one thing. Encouraging increased use of fish foods in homes, hotels, restaurants, institutions and other establishments is quite another. Our consumer education work, therefore, has a high degree of priority in our operations.

"Through our test kitchen at Ottawia we have trained a small staff of graduate home economists in fish cookery, and we have a programme, soon to be put into operation, which provides for demonstration and lecture work in various parts of Canada." . . .

Trawler Policy Mr. MacNaught went on to say that if the North American market is to be developed, greater quantities of fish than are today being produced will be required. This is why, about a year ago, the Department revised its trawler policy so as to promote an orderly expansion of catching facilities.

"It is evident now that the industry is taking advantage of the new policy and is expanding its trawler fleet," he said. "A recent survey showed that seven trawlers are being built in Canada and three are being built in the United Kingdom for the Canadian fishing industry. All these vessels are of the large trawler type - 100 feet or more in length. The seven keels which have been laid in Canada permits, under the new policy, the licensing of the same number of second-hand trawlers if bought either in the United Kingdom or in the United States and registered in Canada after payment of duty.

"In addition, the industry is contemplating the construction of two more trawlers in Canada and seven in the United Kingdom. This additional construction, if proceeded with, would add another nine trawlers to the fleet, or eleven if advantage is taken of the opportunity to license second-hand vessels from the United States or the United Kingdom.

Mr. MacNaught was introduced by Hon. J. Wilfred Arsenault, Provincial Secretary, who prophesied that on June 11, 1951 the member from Prince County would become a Minister in the Federal Cabinet.

Mr. Arsenault selected June 11 because he noted that Mr. MacNaught appeared to have a special affinity for the number eleven. On June 11, 1932, he had entered the consular table; on June 11, 1945 he was elected to the Federal Government and on June 11, 1948 he was named Parliamentary Assistant to the Federal Minister of Fisheries.

Mr. MacNaught and Mr. Arsenault both spoke in English and French for the benefit of the French-speaking delegates.

Dr. D. L. Cooper, Minister of Fisheries for Nova Scotia, replied to Mr. MacNaught's address.

The Government-sponsored, dinner was presided over by Hon. Eugene Cullen, Minister of Industry and Natural Resources. Among those present were His Honor Lieut. Governor T. W. L. Prowse, Premier J. Walter Jones and His Worship Mayor B. Earle MacDonald.

Premier Jones presented Mrs. Prowse with a bouquet on the occasion of her first public appearance since her husband was appointed Lieutenant-Governor.

The Lieutenant Governor presented a bouquet to Mrs. M. A. Hachey, the only woman delegate from the fishing industry attending the Conference.

During the dinner Don Messer and his orchestra provided music with Charlie Chamberlain and Margaret Osborne doing the singing. The Baptist Girls Choir rendered three songs during the meals and were loudly applauded for their singing.

Re-elected Mayor

His Worship Mayor Willard Leard, of Borden, who was re-elected by acclamation on Tuesday. The complete slate of Councillors was also returned by acclamation.

dent of the Prince Edward Island Fisheries Federation yesterday morning.

Premier Jones told the delegates that this Province would require a million dollar plant to properly develop the fishing potential in Island waters. This factory would have to be served by dragers and equipped with all that proper machinery so that in addition to regular processing it could also use the by-products.

"Until a short time ago we were quite unaware that off the eastern coasts of the Province we possessed the greatest haddock fishing grounds in the world," he continued.

"If a hot war does not break out we will have a higher standard of living, shifts of population and a tremendous dearth of manpower. We need immigration to develop this young country, Canada.

He told the delegates that the fisheries people would have to organize and produce frozen fillets which form the biggest portion of the fisheries market.

He noted that sea food contained all the vitamins and that a perfect diet "if we were forced to" could live on the sea alone," he added.

Lieut. Governor Prowse stated that it was a great pleasure for him to welcome the delegates to the Island. He hoped that the visit would prove pleasant and fruitful and that the delegates would leave the province with the feeling of accomplishment.

His Worship Mayor MacDonald welcomed the delegates on behalf of the City of Charlottetown and Mr. Gallant extended a welcome on behalf of the Prince Edward Island Fisheries Federation.

Mr. Cullen in his luncheon remarks noted that the organizers of the Conference here were deeply disappointed that the various Ministers, especially the Federal Minister, Mr. Mayhew were unable to attend.

He congratulated the following men on their work in preparing for the Conference: Messrs. S. H. Burhoe, L. L. Noonan, J. J. Larabee, Eugene Gaudet, Eugene Gorman, of the Extension Department of S. D. U.; P. A. Murnaghan, Deputy Minister of Public Works, Paul Gallant and J. A. Rodd.

Invited to Newfoundland During the luncheon Mr. H. R. V. Earle of St. John's, Newfoundland extended an invitation to the delegates to hold the 1952 East Coast Fisheries Conference in St. John's. His invitation was greeted with loud applause.

Other luncheon speakers were: W. A. Moore, Deputy Minister of Industry and Development for N. B.; Dr. D. L. Cooper, Director of Fisheries for Nova Scotia; Louis Berube, Director, School of Fisheries, Ste. Anne De La Pocatiere, P.Q.; and Gustave Bedard, Publicist for the Fisheries Department of the Government of Quebec.

One of the industries that gives full meaning to the phrase "Canada Unlimited" is the fisheries, Mr. MacNaught continued. "In my judgment you are going to see this enterprise enter into a completely new era - an era that will see it grow steadily both as a provider of good livelihoods for its workers and as a source of food for our own and world needs.

"Both you in industry and we in Government must keep well abreast of this continuing upward trend. Now, as never before, we have opportunities to consolidate our position."

Other phases of the developments forecast in the Fisheries Minister's announcement of a general fisheries expansion programme in the House of Commons on March 27, 1949, were reviewed by the speaker.

Predicts Cabinet Post

Mr. MacNaught was introduced by Hon. J. Wilfred Arsenault, Provincial Secretary, who prophesied that on June 11, 1951 the member from Prince County would become a Minister in the Federal Cabinet.

Mr. Arsenault selected June 11 because he noted that Mr. MacNaught appeared to have a special affinity for the number eleven. Mr. MacNaught and Mr. Arsenault both spoke in English and French for the benefit of the French-speaking delegates.

Dr. D. L. Cooper, Minister of Fisheries for Nova Scotia, replied to Mr. MacNaught's address.

The Government-sponsored, dinner was presided over by Hon. Eugene Cullen, Minister of Industry and Natural Resources. Among those present were His Honor Lieut. Governor T. W. L. Prowse, Premier J. Walter Jones and His Worship Mayor B. Earle MacDonald.

W. M. S. Presbyterian Of United Church Concludes Annual Meeting At S'side

Mrs. A. J. Reynolds of Wolfville, N.S. was guest speaker at the evening session of the P. E. I. Presbyterian of the W. M. S. of the United Church of Canada which convened in Trinity Church Summerside Tuesday and Wednesday. The church was filled to capacity with delegates and visitors.

Mrs. Reynolds based her message on the words of St. Paul: "Forgetting those things which are behind . . . I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Looking back over the 25 years since church union, the speaker recalled "things we do not wish to forget—friendships, successes, blessings and even failures," but she directed the thoughts of her hearers to the last part of the text and asked if they, as W. M. S. members, thought of their life and Christian work as a high calling.

"We are Christ's followers first," she said, "then Church members and then it is our privilege to be members of the W. M. S.—to work, pray and give to bring the kingdom of God on earth." In a world of strife many are full of fear, but fear must not be permitted to replace faith.

In Toronto last September Dr. Kagawa said that never in five generations had there been such opportunity to preach the gospel in the Orient as now. Japan is seeking—will she choose Christianity or Communism? In China many churches are being closed. This does not mean that Christianity is wiped out. Rev. Elda Daniels, missionary to Korea, has told how Korean Christians would go to work in the rice fields every day hoping to get near a Communist to tell him of Christ. On mission fields at home and abroad a great work is being done, but there remains much more to be done.

The W. M. S. is also doing a great service through supply work, community friendship and young people's work.

In closing Mrs. Reynolds challenged her hearers to "press on toward the mark of their high calling." "If we are faithful every opportunity, each must do his share. Christ uses human hands to carry on his work in the world."

Evening Service The evening worship service was led by four members of Trinity C.G.I.T.—Donna Silliphant, Lorna Leard, Katherine Clark and Mary Cairns. The theme was "Brotherhood." Members of the C.G.I.T. acted as ushers and received the offering.

Special music was provided by members of Trinity Choir under the direction of Miss Mary Goldhard, church organist. "Rock of Ages" was sung by Trinity male octette and the full choir rendered "Ring Out Wild Bells."

Rev. George Ayers brought greetings from Presbytery. He congratulated the Presbyterial on its accomplishments of the past year and urged the members to greater faith, more prayer and increased giving, that the coming year may be an even greater one of service to God and humanity.

On Wednesday morning worship was led by Mrs. Lewis Bernard, Mrs. G. D. Dixon of the O'Leary Auxiliaries. The meditation was given on "Your zeal hath provoked very many" and brought the thought that Christian love may be expressed in various ways of helpfulness to others.

Minutes of Tuesday's sessions were read by Mrs. L. C. Calbeck, Mrs. Wilfred Craig, secretary of temperance and Christian citizenship, commended the work of auxiliary secretaries and all who have helped to make the work of this department a success. Work has been done and prayers offered for temperance, friendliness to people of other races and nations, Sunday observance, and world peace.

The report of Mrs. Nathan Irving, Murray Harbour, community friendship, was read by Mrs. L. M. Calbeck. During the past year 12,790 visits were made to homes and hospitals and many other people were remembered with cards, letters, flowers and trees.

The question box, in charge of Mrs. Hazen Howard, assisted by Mrs. J. F. Easton, brought forth much interesting discussion and information.

The report of the resolutions committee was read by Mrs. R. L. Cairns. Resolutions dealing with temperance education work among young people, and recommending increased subscriptions to the Missionary Monthly and World Friends, were passed by the Presbyterial.

Mrs. Mabel Newsome, Miss Louise Calbeck and Mrs. J. S. MacLeod were appointed a committee to choose objects to which gifts for Building Advance will go next year.

Islanders To Play Game At Summerside

If you want to contribute to a worthy cause and at the same time have the time of your life, send your way to Crystal Rink in Summerside at 3:15 today. The mighty Islanders hockey team, at the present time top dogs in the Maritime hockey scramble, will show their ability when their two inter-club teams, the Garnet and Gold, play a special exhibition match for the entertainment of Prince County fans.

The Crystal Rink management has given the rink free of charge. The Islanders are going through their paces also without remuneration, the Summerside branch of the Legion has done the advertising in the papers, and the radio has given free advertising over the air, and the Island Motor Transport Co. are also putting a bus at the disposal of the team for the trip, free of charge. The rest is up to the people of Summerside and vicinity. Flock to the rink in large numbers and help the March of Dimes which is doing such a splendid work in the fight against poliomyelitis.

of Formosa and the U. N. forces withdraw from Korea.

See Chinese Ultimatum The U. S. delegate said the Red Chinese had given the U. N. what amounted to an ultimatum to admit them to the U. N. He replied, for the U. S., that admission of any country is a matter for judgment of all U. N. members and not for any seven-country conference. Austin said one factor to be considered was that soldiers of Red China are shedding the blood of many countries seated at the committee table.

"You can't shoot your way into the United Nations," Austin said. Of the other issues, Austin said: "The question of Formosa, the Chinese representation, and of other Far Eastern problems have been or can be put on the agenda of the United Nations and dealt with by orderly United Nations processes. . . these problems must be solved in the United Nations in accordance with the charter and the procedures provided for therein and not by blackmail."

Prime Minister Nehru in his broadcast called for a conference of the major powers, including Red China, to discuss world issues.

The Indian delegate, Sir Benegal Rau, called a conference of the 12 Arab and Asian countries, and they decided to introduce the resolution for the seven-country conference. The conference would be composed of Red China, Russia, United States, Britain, France, Egypt, and India, and would meet at once to discuss all issues.
