Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Kenneth Campbell of O'Leary and other members of the family in the passing of her mother, Mrs. Phillips on Friday morning June 2nd at her daughter's home in O'Leary. Mrs. Phillips was a very old lady and had been confined to her bed for about three years. She was kind and gentle and was beloved by all who knew her. The funeral service was held on Sunday June 4th and was conducted in Summerside by the Minister of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. MacKay.

A most interesting and instructive missionary address was given in the O'Leary Church of the Nazarene on June 5th, when a returned missionary from Swaziland in Africa, Mrs. Louise Chapman of Kansas City, Miss., told of her experiences. She is a gifted speaker and her remarks were very educational. She is on a Home Mission tour and was accompanied by Mrs. Arneson of the Nazarene College in Red Deer, Alberta and by the District Superintendent Rev. J. H. MacGregor and Mrs. MacGregor. The pastor of the Church, Rev. H.M. Burgess presided.

The West Ministerial Association comprising all the Protestant Ministers in Western Prince County met for their regular monthly meeting on Monday June 5th at Springfield West, seven miles from O'Leary and were guests of Rev. Blair B. and Mrs. Colborne. The president Rev. R. H. Baxter of Bideford presided and conducted the opening devotions. A fine paper on "The Holy Ghost" was given by Rev. P.A. Fitzpatrick of Alberton. The members took part in the general discussion which followed. It was decided to hold no meetings in the summer months of July and August. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Colborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vatcher and little son Leigh accompanied by Rev. W. G. and Mrs. Dickson and daughters Norma and Jeanne, know each other so thoroughly that you should be able to judge of your congeniality and suitability to each other.

Of course, in the past there has been a prejudice against a man marrying his deceased wife's sister, but we have happily outgrown that now. For common sense has shown us that in thousands of cases there was no other woman in the world who was so ideal a mate for a bereaved widower as his wife's sister. She was more likely to have the characteristics that he had loved in his wife than any other woman, she would know his habits and his ways and could fit into his life almost without a ripple. There would be no need of adjusting himself to her as to a strange woman.

As for the difference in age, seven years mean nothing after a man is past 30, and especially after he has gone through the sobering grief of widowhood.

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband and I have adopted a baby girl. She is so very bright and happy and precious to me, but she is an illegitimate baby and our problem is what to tell her when she grows up. Of course, we can satisfy her with most any explanation while she is small, but we realize we must tell her one story and stick to it. Would you destroy the papers concerning her parents, or would you tell her the whole truth?

MRS. C. P. W
ANSWER: Tell her she is an adopted child while she is too little to understand enough about it to have any curiosity on the subject, but don't tell her that she is illegitimate until it becomes necessary to do so. If she asks any questions about her parents, just tell her that they were situated so that they couldn't take care of her and that she was given to you, and that some day when she is a grown-up girl you will tell her all about it. Possibly she will never have to know the sad truth about her birth.

DOROTHY DIX cannot reply personally to readers, but will answer problems of general interest through her column.
