

MR. AND MRS. WENDELL MacQUARRIE

Margate United Church Scene Of Autumn Wedding

Margate United Church was the scene of a pretty September wedding when Mildred Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clark, became the bride of Wendell Bernard MacQuarrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur MacQuarrie, Parkdale. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A. Paterson. Baskets of multi-colored roses and gladioli decorated the church for the occasion and the pews were marked with white satin bows on green fernery.

During the procession, the organist, Mrs. Harold Woodside accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Edwin Johnson as she sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" followed by "The Wedding Prayer" and during the signing of the register, "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Alencon lace and sheer organza. Flowers of lace on the hem accentuated the A-line of the skirt. A Watteau train of scalloped lace fell gracefully from her shoulders. Her head-dress was designed in a halo of tulle and organza rosebuds and her only jewellery consisted of pearl earrings. She carried a cascade of red roses.

The maid of honor, Thelma Clark, and bridesmaids, Arlene Hayes and Elizabeth Hiltz wore floor length gowns of French blue on Empire lines. The flower girl, Karen Clark, cousin of the bride, was gowned in a white floor length dress with a touch of French blue. Each of the girls carried a nosegay of white carnations tinted to match her dress.

The ring bearer was Paul Baker, nephew of the groom. Stanley Baker, brother-in-law of the groom, acted as best man and Donald Clark, brother of the bride, and John Kennedy, ushered.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Clark chose a jade green sheath dress, with beige accessories. Her corsage of white carnations was tinted to match her dress.

The groom's mother was gowned in a brown linen dress trimmed with beige lace, over which she wore a white stole. Her accessories were beige and brown and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held at the Murray Christian Education Centre, Kensington. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. W. A. Paterson. The best man, Stanley Baker, proposed a toast to the bridesmaids. Toastmaster for the occasion was Robert Dickson of Charlottetown. Mrs. Joyce Kennedy was in charge of the guest book.

For a honeymoon trip through the Maritime provinces and the Gaspé Peninsula, the bride chose a two piece aqua suit, a pink velvet hat, and black accessories and pinned on a corsage of pink roses.

Out of the province guests were Mrs. Jessie Kinsman of Bangor, Maine, great aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. George MacQuarrie, Naskwauk, N. B. A telegram was received from Mr. and Mrs. Claude Campbell, Richmond, B. C.

MR. AND MRS. ANTHONY COLES

Islander Is Wed In N.S. To Mary Virginia Rogers

Standard of white gladioli and fern provided the setting for a wedding in the Percout United Baptist Church on Saturday evening, September 28th, at 7:30, when Virginia Mary, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Rogers, Blomidon, was united in marriage to Anthony Thane Coles, Halifax, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Coles, Summerside, P. E. I. Dr. Frank Eaton and Rev. Willard Smith officiated at the candlelight double ring ceremony.

Guest pews were marked with pink and white gladioli and pink satin ribbon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white bridal satin in a floral embossed pattern, which featured an A-line skirt, empire waistline, with portrait neckline and bishop sleeves. Her cathedral train, which fell from the shoulders, was attached by miniature bows. Her bouffant four tier shoulder length veil of nylon sheer illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms and seed pearls; and she carried a cascade of calla lilies and white snapdragons. She wore a single strand of cultured pearls, gift of the groom.

Muriel Clarke played the nuptial music and accompanied the soloist Emmerson Thorpe, cousin of the bride, who sang the Wedding Prayer, before the ceremony, and O Perfect Love during the signing of the register.

The maid of honor, Marie Rogers, sister of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of petal pink brocade satin, featuring an empire waistline, with matching wedding-ring headress, shoulder length veil, and carried a cascade of fern and white gladioli tinted in petal pink. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kai Binderup, Halifax, wearing a floor-length gown of mint green brocade satin, and matching headress, and Ethel Harlow RN, Kentville wearing a pale yellow gown of brocade satin, with matching headress. Both gowns and headresses were styled identically to that of the maid of honor, and each attendant carried a cascade of fern and white gladioli tinted to match their gowns.

Little Sherry Rogers, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a floor-length gown of baby pink brocade satin with matching headress, and carried a basket and pink and white pom pom mums and fern.

The best man was Kai Binderup, brother of the groom, Bradley Foote, cousin of the bride and Theodore Kendall and Allison Gould.

Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held in the Canning Fire Hall, where the parents of the bride and groom, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Graves, Kingston, received with the bridal party.

Mrs. Rogers chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath dress of regal blue boucle with feather hat, matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Coles wore a one-piece blue dress, black velvet hat, matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Kai Binderup. Paula Coles, Summerside, niece of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip around the Cabot Trail and points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue brocade two piece suit, with mink collar, chocolate brown accessories and a corsage of red sweetheart roses.

Out of town guests were from Charlottetown, Summerside, Truro, Florida, Massachusetts, Me. Co., Halifax, Laverston, Kentville, Berwick and Kingston. The bride is a graduate of the Pathological Institute of Laboratory Technology, Halifax, and has currently been on the Laboratory Technician Staff of the BFM hospital, Kentville. The groom received his Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from the University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, and is presently employed with the Canadian National Railway, Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. Coles will reside in Halifax.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH McCABE

A Cape Breton Honeymoon Follows August Ceremony

St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River was the scene of a late August wedding when Phyllis Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Taylor, Millview, exchanged marriage vows with Kenneth William McCabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCabe, Iona.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Clifford Murphy, and Rev. Urban Gillis was present in the sanctuary. Altar boys were Danny and Pius McInnis, nephews of the groom.

Baskets of mixed flowers decorated the altar, and entrance of the church, and guest pews were marked with white satin bows, centered with colored rosettes.

The Vernon River choir sang "Mother Dear Oh Pray For Me" and "Lord, I am Not Worthy" during the ceremony and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silky organza over taffeta and Chantilly lace. The long tapered sleeves, ending in lily points and the slender skirt, were of re-embroidered lace, and the bouffant overskirt, was side-pannelled in lace, and fell in a train. The three-tier, scalloped veil of tulle illusion fell from a crown of pearls, and sequins. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of deep pink American beauty roses.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Caroline Doyle, and bridesmaids Mrs. Shirley Clow and Beverly Young, wore identical floor length gowns of crystal charm in yellow, green and mauve, respectively with matching bow headpieces. Their shoes were of satin tinted to match their gowns, and they carried nosegays of white carnations each centered with a tinted carnation of mauve, yellow and green.

Glenn McCabe, brother of the groom, was best man, and Charles McCabe, another brother,
