

Anglican Young People Hold Meeting At Crapaud

Tuesday, May 31st, was a big evening for the Anglican Young People when representatives from five of the P. E. I. Deanery A.Y.P.A.'s met at the Church Centre in Crapaud for their annual meeting. The president, Miss Audrey Coles, conducted the meeting which opened with prayers led by the president. The secretary, Horace Coles, read the minutes of the last annual meeting and the treasurer's report was presented by Clair Haslam. Due to illness, Rev. A. E. Piercey, the Deanery organizer, was unable to attend.

The Bible reading fellowship report was presented by Elmer Dennis, in the absence of the convenor, Clarence Ramsay. This report showed that several more A.Y.P.A.s have adopted this daily Bible reading program.

In the absence of Marnie Mill, the Sunday School by Post and Air report was presented by Heather Coles. Each group was asked to contribute generously as possible to this worthy project.

The wider horizon report was presented by Edgar Dennis. It suggested that more interest should be shown by A.Y.P.A.s in their magazine.

Miss Audrey Coles presented the Deanery president's report. Miss Coles stated that the A.Y.P.A. members take more interest in daily Bible reading and also, that more efforts must be put into making the Drama Festival a success.

The following branch presidents gave their reports: Roy Newcombs, St. James, Port Hill (in the absence of the president Alison Dennis); Betty Lou Tredennick, St. Mary's, Summerside (in the absence of the president, Peggy Preston); Lloyd Profit, St. Elizabeth's, Springfield; and St. Mark's, Kensington; Audrey Coles, St. James, Milton; Robert Pitcarin, St. Paul's, Charlottetown.

Clayton Mill then presented the conference report. Mr. Mill stated that a record number of A.Y.P.A. members attended the Labor Day week end conference last year and expressed the hope that an even larger number would be able to attend this year. Arrangements are being made to have a special speaker at this conference.

Rev. Mr. Ingraham extended an invitation to all A.Y.P.A. members in P.E.I. to attend the one hundredth anniversary services in St. Stephen's Burlington, June 19th to 26th. On June 22nd the A.Y.P.A. will attend in a body and a social evening will follow the service.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The new slate of officers brought in was as follows: Patron, Bishop Waterman; honorary presidents, Canon Ibbott, and Dr. Jelks; chaplain, Rev. G. R. F. Ebsary. Crapaud: Deanery organizer, Rev. Mr. Piercey, Milton; president, Lloyd Profit, Kensington; vice president, Clarence Ramsay, Port Hill; secretary, Horace Coles, Milton; treasurer, Doreen Dennis, Summerside; publicity secretary, Heather Coles, Milton; Bible reading fellowship, Carrie Tomson, Charlottetown; Sunday School by Post and Air, Peggy Preston, Summerside; Drama Festival convenors, Rev. Mr. Ingraham, Kensington and Roger Garnham, Charlottetown; wider horizons, Edgar Dennis, Port Hill. (re-elected); conference convenor, Clayton Mill, Kensington (re-elected). The meeting adjourned for 20 minutes during which time refreshments were served.

Upon reconvening a list of five new resolutions was brought in, discussed and adopted.

Rev. G. R. F. Ebsary then spoke to the group and pointed out just how valuable the Bible is to each individual and that it should be read each day. Mr. Ebsary also urged the young people to make the best use of and the most use of their church centre that they possibly can. He then closed the meeting with prayer.

The members departed with a feeling that the past year had been a successful one but that the coming year would be even more successful.
