

Tigers Blast Orioles 8-3; Redlegs Defeat Cardinals

DETROIT (AP)—Don Mossi's three-hit pitching and wildness on the part of Baltimore moundmen gave Detroit Tigers an 8-3 triumph over the Orioles Tuesday night.

Mossi gave up a two-run homer to Willie Tasby in the first inning.

He gained his ninth victory against four losses.

The Tigers knocked out loser Hoyt Wilhelm before the Oriole knuckler could complete three innings. Wilhelm gave up a two-run home run in the first inning to Neil Chrissy, substituting for injured right fielder Harvey Kuenn.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Shortstop Roy McMillan came back Tuesday night from six idle weeks due to a broken hand in a Cincinnati Reds' 6-4 victory St. Louis.

Two walks around a sacrifice eighth inning single. After that, pinch-hitter Jim Penderforn was purposely passed, eluding the bases and an insurance run came in on Johnny Temple's sacrifice fly.

Jim Brosnan, third of four Red-leg hurlers, collected the victory after one inning of relief. Marshall Bridges took the loss, also by a relief.

CHICAGO (AP)—Al Smith's two-run homer in the eighth inning carried Billy Pierce and Chicago to a 4-3 victory over New York Yankees Tuesday night and gave the White Sox sole possession of first place in the American League Tuesday night.

Baseball Tilt This Evening

Summerside Juniors and Junior Abbies will clash tonight at Memorial Field in an exhibition baseball game.

It will be the first meeting between the two teams with action commencing at 6 o'clock.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

THE FORMATION of a third major baseball league was the biggest sports news to break in quite some time. Toronto, New York, Denver, Houston, Minneapolis-St. Paul have already thrown their hat in the ring and the promise is that by 1961 at least three others will have joined the fold and the loop will be in full-scale operations.

All of which sounds most interesting and gives loads of food for thought.

THE MIDDLE of August the new major league committee will meet with the present major league committee and discuss the entire situation.

This should be quite the meeting and it certainly should last more than a few minutes. There will be so much to talk about that the persons in attendance will hardly know where to start.

But they will get started and after that it may take a long, long time to get them closed up.

WE LIKE our baseball just as much as the next fellow and we are anxious to see anything come about that will improve the game. However, right now we can't go along and maintain that a third major league will improve the standard of big league baseball.

We feel there are some clubs in the majors right now that need a good deal of strengthening. These clubs would strengthen, we believe, if they could get their hands on the kind of material they need. But apparently they can't get the players they want to make them serious contenders for the pennants.

IF THERE DOESN'T appear to be quite enough material for 16 major league teams we would like to know how the situation is going to be remedied by adding eight more teams.

Does it mean that those who are better off than some of the other clubs are going to be asked to give away some of their top performers? Probably Cleveland.

Indians will vote to give up Rocky Colavito, Herb Score and a couple of their young pitchers. Then you may find Washington Senators wanting to trade away Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison. Los Angeles Dodgers may help the whole cause by handing Don Drysdale over to one of the new clubs. And Milwaukee Braves could be just as generous by letting Henry " Hank " Aaron move to some other club.

If you can imagine any of these things happening then you have a much more vivid imagination than we have. But foolish as these things may sound to you, some happenings of this nature must take place if the 24 teams are to have anything like a proper balance.

If a third major league club can operate successfully, we are for it 100 percent. Right now we have very serious doubts and are inclined to go along with those who maintain such a move will hurt baseball rather than help it.

However we are not hoping that the new league meets with failure. There is no doubt that the promoters have put much thought into the matter and will go all out to make things a success. They may be able to accomplish what we think they can't do and if they can things will be rosy.

In the meantime, we must admit we have grave doubts on the merits of the third major league.

EACH TIME out Barry's Lions are roaring louder in City Softball League circles.

Back in 1957 the Parkdale outfit went on to win the championship. In 1958 they made the finals and found as their opponents the B15 Shamrocks—a team that just managed to squeeze into the playoffs. There weren't too many who thought the Irish would cause the Lions any trouble in the finals. But the Shamrocks went out, walloped the defending champions four games to two and won themselves the city crown. The Lions are still smarting from that upset and by the looks of things now they have every intention of making up for that upset.

The other night they tripped the Irish twice. The first contest was the completion of a game started at an earlier date and the second was a regular scheduled affair. Both went into the records as wins for Forbie Kennedy and company.

HOWEVER, the other clubs are not giving the Lions any edge come playoff time. They remember that the Junior Basticia Youth Club finished a bang-up first last season and then were shunted out of the playoff picture by the lowly Shamrocks. They insist it's what happens when the chips are really down and they'll be really on the line when the playoffs get underway.

We predict that the 1959 City Softball League playoffs will be the best in the league's history and that's saying a mouthful. There have been real thrillers in the past.

It's been a great softball season all the way and it will continue to be great until a champion is crowned.

THE PENNANT RACES in both major leagues are really sizzling these days.

You have to keep your eyes on those standings each morning because the lead has a habit of changing hands very often. Giants, Braves and Dodgers are staging a terrific battle in the National and the White Sox and the Indians have a feud all their own raging in the American.

Just when you think one team has had it, that club bounces back in the thick of contention. Milwaukee Braves showed the greatest rebound of late and they are serving notices that they will be mighty tough to dispose of.

Cleveland and Chicago are sticking together for a long time now. Neither team seems able to get the jump on the other. Perhaps one of these days one of them will grab a bit of a lead and hold on to it.

Both races are the kind that seem destined to go right down to the wire. And that's the kind of a race that is good for this game of baseball.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Dr. Edward G. MacQuaid, Baltimore, Maryland, who takes a keen interest in our column and helps us from time to time, sends us a front page of the New York Mirror for July 22. It has a picture of a race horse harnessed to sulky, with the driver's arms clasped around the horse's neck and his legs astride the horse's back. Here is the explanation:

"Whoa! Driver Billy Fitz had to turn cowboy in spectacular style after broken reins made his trotter bolt at the harness track in Foxboro, Mass. Fitz got a big hand from the fans when he brought the trotter trotter to a halt in the homestretch."

On the cover of the latest issue of "The Harness Horse" is a photo of Clint Hodgins, Claudi- boye, Ontario, driving Bye Bye Byrd to a 1.58 2/5 track record at Sportsman's Park, Chicago in the $4,879 American National Stake last week. It is also the fastest ever over a five-eighths mile track, in the richest event for four-year-old pacers.

Clint was born at Claudi- boye on June 18, 1907. Last year he made 366 starts, was 43 times first, 33 times second and 69 times third with winnings of $171,121. He is one of the nicest drivers we have ever met, and he particularly likes to see Canadians visit his stable. While in Florida a couple of years ago attending a meeting of the U.S. T.A., E.C.—McCurdy, of Truro, and the writer visited Clint. He allowed me to drive one of his horses around the track, and he loaned us his auto for a tour around the city.

MOST UNUSUAL thing to have an owner capture as many as six events on any race card with his stable, but that was announced in the press Monday in regard to Stanley Mayhew's horses winning that many dashes at the Charlottetown Driving Park Saturday night.

The young man who performed the feat was Clark Smith, a very popular young driver who was born at Hunter River, P. E. I., on August 6, 1937, so he is almost 22 years of age. Last year Clarkie made 188 starts, was 24 times first, 26 times second and 35 times third with winnings of $5,523 — quite a respectable amount for a driver to win in the Maritimes. This year, we hope, he will beat that record.

We also congratulate Stanley Mayhew, who is no half-hearted type of owner, and if he learns about a good speed prospect, quickly buys it.

Another quite remarkable performance Saturday night was the winning of the "A" Trot by the twelve-year-old mare, Dainty Diane, that is, as we explained, a short time ago, a newcomer to the race track this year and would have remained in obscurity had she not been offered an opportunity by the Victoria Driving Club to race on the ice at the Hon. Dougald MacKinnon Speedway last winter. There she ended up a top trotter, showing so much wits that doubts were cast on the timers' watches.

Now, predictions are that she will make 210 or better before this season ends. Her owner is Mrs. L. Thompson, Cranaud, P. E. I., and her time Saturday night was 2:11 2/5 and 2:12. Great credit must be given to driver Leon Nath, who finished a close second in the fastest mile with Royal Train, and to Clarkie Smith, who finished second with Blake Hanover in the 2:12 mile.

TURN ON SPEED At Sackville Downs Raceway Saturday night they really turned on the speed, and the spotlight was on the Prince Edward Island-bred Rainbow Clegg, that took a record of 2:08 3/5 last year at Truro on July 12, and is now in his ninth year.

Rainbow Clegg was the dark horse, according to Frank Power, noted harness writer, in the $2,000 free-for-all, but he raced out of the eighth hole on the first trip before 4,000 spectators, with Dave Finley in the sulky, and outpaced such odds-on favorites as Walter Roscroft, winner of the recent Moncton, Mighty Glib and Dave Gratton. He lowered his record from 2:08 3/5 to 2:07 and won by half a length from Mighty Glib and by a length over Dave Gratton.

In the seventh dash, with the same field, Mighty Glib, driven by James MacGregor, was the winner, with Rainbow Clegg second, Convar third, with five other starters; the mile was in 2:07. Rainbow Clegg is owned by W. E. Piens, Pugwash, N.S., and Mighty Glib is owned by James Given, Halifax.

We are very glad, and we are sure that his many friends in Alberton and elsewhere in this province will be pleased to note that Ray O'Brien was the winner of races 1 and 4 on the same card with the pacer Jolilly Mac Pepper (Clegg) (Barrieau) 2:7, Bookmor (R. Cressner) 4:2, time 2:12 2/5 and 2:13; Jolilly Mac is owned by Lawrence Bigelow, Kentville, N.S.

Elmer Smith of Hunter River won races 2 and 6 with Red's King, owned by Mrs. Keith Thomas, Halifax. Betty French (Barrieau) 2:7, Pineland Duke (J. Turner) 3:2, Miss Wilma Duke (J. MacGregor) 4:3, four other starters, time 2:16 and 2:13 2/5.

Race 5 was won by Ambro Aileen (L. Auston), Jolilly's Jet (G. Turner) 3, time 2:15 1/5; winner owned by Albert Aaron and Robert Love, Halifax. Race 3 won by Beck Ann Call (Mountain), Jolilly George (Walsh) 2, L. C. Spencer (Campbell) 3, time 2:18; winner owned by T. R. Mountain, Halifax.

Edwin Grossman has a column named "The Trotter and Pacer" in the New York Herald-Tribune. This is an extract from it:

PERFORM HERE TODAY

Golfers are in for a real treat today with the appearance at Charlottetown Golf Course of Beverly Hanson (right) and Joyce Ziske. Miss Hanson and Miss Ziske will play a best ball match this afternoon at 3 o'clock with Jimmy Walker, recent N.E. P.E.I. pro winner and a leading Charlottetown amateur. This evening at 7 o'clock the two lady golfers will conduct a clinic with instruction lasting about one hour. Miss Hanson is out of Indio, California and in 1952 topped all Ladies Professional Golf Association players with $12,639.55 in winnings. She has a most impressive list of victories to her credit and four years ago became Queen of the Proctets by winning the Ladies FGA. Miss Ziske turned pro in 1955. Her winnings in her first year amounted $9,783. She is a native of Milwaukee, the home of Fred Haney's baseball Braves. Among her achievements are the winning of the Wisconsin State championship in 1952 and 1954 and the Syracuse Open in 1956.

Kansas City Athletics Are Half-Game Out Of 1st Div.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—They remain there, are now riding an 8-game winning streak, holding fifth place and only a half game out of first division.

The string of consecutive wins equals this year's record in the league—set by Chicago White Sox in May. Add to that 24-year-old Roger Maris' hitting that has him tied for league leadership and the only solid four-man pitching rotation currently operating in the circuit.

All this with manager Harry Craft hospitalized for nervous fatigue, last year's slugging hero Bob Cerv in the doldrums and the ace reliever of 1952, Dick Tomaneck, on the disabled list.

Sensensus of the men in charge is over-all confidence and team spirit, outstanding pitching, strength down the middle and a bench that has succeeded in plugging every gap.

"I've maintained since last winter that we have the best personnel Kansas City has ever had," Craft said Tuesday.

Scribes, Baseball Dopesters Say Stengel Is On Way Out

NEW YORK (AP)—Is Casey Stengel on the way out as manager of the New York Yankees? Some newspaper writers and many baseball dopesters say "yes."

The cold figures, and the Yankee management, say "no."

Aces Dump Dodgers 8-1

Duke McCallum, regular third sacker for the Aces, pitched terrific ball last evening, limiting his opponents, the Dodgers, to a solo hit, Coach Harold "Doc" Hennessey spoiled the up-batter with a triple in the sixth inning, to score the Dodgers' only run.

McCallum also walked five and fanned four.

Joe Curnisky once again toed the slab for the losers, being tagged for eight hits, walking five and fanning two.

The Aces got two runs in the third inning, two in the fourth and four in the fifth.

Duke McCallum, Irv MacKinnon, and Earl Hennessey, all hit two for four for the winners. McCallum, and MacKinnon, each piling a pair of doubles and Hennessey hitting a double and a single. Hennessey, was playing right field for the Aces, as the team was shorthanded.

Bill Coughlan called the balls and strikes last evening and Ivan "Pats" Connors handled the bases. Tonight it's Junior BYC at Barry's.

The Yankees, last year's world champions, are now firmly in the second division. With Bill Showron out for the rest of the season with injuries, and Andy Carey, Tony Kubek, Gil McDougald, and Bobby Richardson all suffering from a variety of ailments, only the most wild-eyed Yankee booster can see any hope for a pennant.

Leonard Koppelt writing in the New York Post says the signs "all point to the end of Casey's career as manager. That's not to say he'll be fired. But it is to say that any decision of his to retire would be welcomed by George Weiss." Weiss is the Yankee general manager.

The magazine Newsweek said an anonymous Yankee executive told its writer: "If Casey Stengel were to quit tomorrow, and coach Ralph Houk were named manager, our team would win the pennant. But he's not going to quit and we're not going to win."
