Notice—Removal.

THE EXAMINER is now issued from its new office in the LONDON HOUSE, where we shall be pleased to see its patrons.

Local and Other Items.

ZERA SEMON.—The original Zera at the Lyceum to-night.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The four electric lamps on Queen Square were lighted last evening. The effect was very good indeed.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The annual picnic of St. Peter's Church Sunday School will be held at Rocky Point on Wednesday, September 5th.

POLICE COURT.—At the police court this forenoon Ronald Steele was fined $2 for assaulting a country boy; and five Scott Act cases were further adjourned, most of them for judgment.

THE RIFLE.—The members of the Ottawa Team are requested to meet in Major Dogherty's office on Thursday evening next at 7.30. All who have entered their names are particularly requested to attend.

NEW TROTTING PARK.—We are informed that Mr. George Jenkins, of Pownal, has built a new trotting park on his premises which he intends opening to the public in a few weeks. The track is said to be well built, and the situation excellent.

TO-MORROW.—The Baptist Sunday School Excursion and Tea at Suffolk Station will be the attraction for to-morrow. The special train will leave the city for the grounds at 10.45. The committee guarantee a pleasant time to all who attend.

SETTLED.—Griffin & Carey, alleged proprietors of Howe's colossal wild west show from Ottawa, (to visit Charlottetown shortly) settled the claim af the lad Otty Sears on Saturday by paying $100 and costs, and thereby regained their liberty.—Ex.

DALHOUSIE REMEMBERED.—A Halifax despatch says that a Mrs. Morrison, who died recently at Stornoway, Scotland, has left £1,000 to Dalhousie College to found a bursary. Mrs. Morrison's father was Rev. K. J. McKenzie, who was pastor of St. Andrew's kirk at Pictou, half a century ago.

Y. M. C. A.—The concert to be given in Y. M. C. A. Hall this evening by Messrs. Chisholm, McLean and Reid, graduates of the Halifax School for the Blind, should be well attended. The programme is an excellent one, and will be rendered in a manner that cannot fail to please those present. Let there be a bumper house.

THE JUBILEE SURPLUS.—At the meeting of the Jubilee Committee last evening the surplus was disposed of as follows: $50 to the Boating Club; $25 to Hillsborough Park; and the balance ($8.25) towards a fountain for Queen Square. Of the sixteen members of the committee, nine were present, and the money was appropriated as above stated on a vote of 5 to 4.

ALMOST BURIED ALIVE.—At Philadelphia on Saturday morning last, Emma Traxel, the 18 year old daughter of Jacob Traxel, was prepared for burial and placed in a coffin and the funeral was set for Monday. On Sunday evening, Miss Traxel, to the astonishment of all, suddenly came to and arose. She had been in a trance for 36 hours and was conscious of all her surroundings.

THE BONAVISTA.—The steamer Bonavista arrived from Montreal en route to St. John's, Nfld. and Sydney this morning, and after taking in some cattle and produce, proceeded on her way. Her passenger list was as follows: For Charlottetown—Mr. Darling. For Sydney—Miss England, Rev Mr Saunderson, Rev Mr McKillican, Mr W McKillican. For St John's—Mrs Squarry and child, Miss Renouf, Mr Jarvis.

ACCIDENTS.—Mr. Roderick Nicholson, of Springton, fell through the floor of his barn the other day and broke his shoulder joint. He is now doing well.—Mr. Montague Campbell, of Cape Traverse, met with a severe accident last week. An axe fell from a scaffolding and inflicted a severe wound in the knee, cutting across the cap. He is progressing favorably.—Capt. Joseph Read met with a serious accident the other day. While engaged in his lumber yard, a 25-foot stick of timber fell upon his foot inflicting injuries which will confine him to his house for some time.—Pioneer.

TO VISIT THE ISLAND.—Miss Blackadder, lady missionary in connection with the Presbyterian Church, intends visiting the Island, and will speak as follows: Charlottetown, Aug. 27th; Cavendish and New Glasgow, 28th; Clifton, 29th; Kensington, 30th; Malpeque, 31st; Alberton and vicinity, 1st and 2nd Sept.; Summerside, 3rd; St. Peter's Road, 4th; Dundas and Cardigan, 5th; Georgetown and Montague, 6th; Head St. Peter's Bay, 7th. She wishes to raise $1000 for new mission buildings, at St. Joseph's, Trinidad, which they have lately occupied. She deserves our help and sympathies. Collections taken at meetings.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow' Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88

THURSDAY NEXT.—At the building of King Solomon's Temple, it is said that there were three Grand Masters, 3,300 Masters or overseers of the work; 80,000 Fellow Crafts, or hewers on the mountains and in the quarries; and 70,000 Entered Apprentices, or bearers of burdens. By the wonderful wisdom of Solomon all these were classified and arranged in such a manner that neither envy, discord nor confusion was suffered to interrupt that universal peace and tranquility which pervaded the world at that important period. Of course the Masons of to-day do not claim to have succeeded to the wisdom of Solomon, but those who attend the Masonic Picnic on Thursday next, the 23rd inst., cannot fail to appreciate the wisdom of the committee who selected such grounds and arranged such a trip to Pownal Bay. Waterside, the grounds of Alex. McRae, Esq., is one of the most magnificent spots in our Island Province. A beautiful birch grove skirts the shore, from which the spectator can view the coast line of Nova Scotia in the distance, and feast his eyes upon the most charming scenery. Those who wish a cheap, pleasant trip to Pownal will show their wisdom by accompanying our Masonic brethren on Thursday, when no pains will be spared to make them happy.—Com.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

THE FIRE FIEND.

Disastrous Blaze in St. John.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 21.

The most disastrous fire that has occurred in this city for years, broke out yesterday afternoon shortly after one o'clock, in the engine room of the A. Chrisie & Co. wood-working factory on Waterloo Street. A list of the losers by the fire is as follows:

The Dooley estate loses the buildings occupied by the Christie Wood-working Co. the three story wooden store and tenement on the corner of Waterloo and Union streets; the three story brick store and tenement on the corner of Peters and Waterloo streets, and the three story wooden building on Waterloo street known as Young's building. The Christie's Wood-working Co's. improvements on the buildings, machinery and stock worth $25,000 insured in Commercial Union for $15,000, loss $25,000; Cottle & Colwell, cor. Peters and Waterloo streets, loss about $300, no insurance; Scott Bros., grocers, heavy loss on stock—they are insured for $1,300.

The tenement on the corner of Union and Waterloo Streets was occupied by families named Leeman, Hoyt and O'Ran, all of whom have partial losses on furniture; no insurance. E. M. Hoyt, confectionery, lost most of his stock; no insurance. J. Jenkins, confectioner, B. McGowan, barber, A. Hunter, gunsmith, W. R. Rees, butcher, Dumery & Walsh, iron workers, John Hanley, blacksmith, Wm. Wallace, shoemaker, Robt. Gorham, shoemaker, M. F. Ritchie, furniture, R. P. Gilmour & Co., H. Warren, T. P. Staples, watchmaker, H. Jones, residence, Mrs. Nice, residence, Robt. McGee, painter, Mrs. James McConnell, boot and shoe store, Robt. Backall, E. Heney. F. & S. L. Gobell, E. Ketchum, E. H. Fairweather, Mrs. Gunter, a widow, and the Dockrill Hall, all suffered from the fire with insurance comparatively small. Wm. Farren, owner of the dwelling on Peters street, has a heavy loss on his building, the rear portion of his house being burned. He estimates his loss, outside of insurance, at between $2,000 and $3,000.

MURDERED BY POACHERS,

A DASTARDLY CRIME.

ANDOVER, Aug. 20.

Mrs. Howes, of Boston, was murdered on the Tobique yesterday by salmon poachers who ambuscaded a fishing party and riddled their canoe with bullets from repeating rifles. A more dastardly and fiendish outrage it was impossible to imagine. Revenge for interference with unlawful work prompted the attack, which resulted in the death of an estimable lady before the eyes of her husband, sons and daughter. About three weeks ago Major Howes went up the river with a family party on an extended fishing trip. The family party consisted of seven persons, Major Howes, his wife, his daughter and three sons, with Mr. Lincoln, of Boston, and were accompanied by four Indian guides. It is stated that while at camping ground Major Howes detected a party of salmon spearers at work and gave chase, and that his determined pursuit arose the deadly ire of the poachers, who, if rumor be correct, lived not far from camp. The party was coming down the river in a canoe, and when turning a bend in the river a few miles below Gulquac, a fusilade was opened on the little flotilla by some persons located in the bushes that lined the shore. The third shot struck Mrs. Howes on the left temple and passed out behind her right ear, killing her instantly. Some of the rifle bullets struck the canoe, and fire was kept up on each little boat as it rounded the point. It is impossible to convey any idea of the excitement that prevails here, but it would go hard with the dastardly assassins if the people could lay hands on them.

Halifax Happenings.

HALIFAX, Aug. 20.

Thomas A. Brown, of Brown & Webb, wholesale druggists, is dead. He was worth $200,000.

Ed. Thorne, a private in the York and Lancaster regiment, killed himself by drinking bad liquor. He died at the military hospital.

Incendiarism Suspected.

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 20.

The Dominion Oatmeal Mill was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Loss about $45,000; insurance, $15,000. Incendiarism is suspected.

Against the Republic.

PARIS, Aug. 20.

The Conservative journals state that the vote which elected Boulanger was directed against the Republic.

TORONTO, August 20—10 a. m.

Moderate winds, fair weather, not much change in temperature.

Mme. Strong's Fata Morgana, the finest work of art ever seen on any stage, at the Lyceum to-night.

And now a crisis is said to exist in Turkey between the Sultan and his Ministers. The trouble is, it is alleged, due to the refusal of the Sultan to sanction the Grand Vizier's proposal to borrow £1,500,000 from the Turkish banks. The amount is demanded by the Minister of War and Minister of Marine to purchase goods and to pay soldiers' and seamens' wages which are long overdue.

Gents Attention!—I have just opened a lot of Boots and Shoes, which were bought at a large reduction from the original cost, among which are three lines of men's laced boots. Now is the time to get a bargain.—R. K. Jost. aug18 3i
