NEGLECT OF DUTY.

As in duty bound, the Patriot excuses the Attorney General's persistent neglect of duty; and, with characteristic generosity, insinuates that our motive in calling attention to it is merely envy. We do not envy Mr. Davies—denounced as he is by an enraged people whose interests he has betrayed that he might advance his own.
There is no earthly reason why we should envy Mr. Davies, or grudge him any honor or emolument he is justly entitled to as a lawyer. In point of fact we have never detected from Mr. Davies' merits as a barrister or as a Leader of the Opposition, and in the latter position we hope soon again to have the pleasure of seeing him.
But we must protest against his continued absence when duties which only the Premier-Attorney General can perform, require attention. The pleasure we feel in contemplating Mr. Davies feathering his nest as Counsel on behalf of Great Britain before the Fisheries Commission is more than counterbalanced by the pain of seeing work neglected which Mr. Davies has sworn, and is paid, and is morally bound to perform. The Province pays and suffers, while its Attorney General grows rich in the service of Great Britain.

TELEPHONING.

A musical telephonic exhibition was given in Baltimore on Monday evening last. The musicians were in New York and Philadelphia—the audience in Baltimore. As the sounds transmitted from New York had to pass under three rivers, they were less distinct than those from Philadelphia. The first piece transmitted was a cornet solo, by Professor Luster, of New York, and as the sounds broke on the ears of the large audience there was great applause. J. W. McAnery followed with a tenor solo from "Martha" and was succeeded by Mme. Belle Cole, of New York, who sang several soprano solos, which were quite distinctly heard.

DEMONSTRATION AND TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION AT SUMMERSIDE.

A SPECIAL train left Charlottetown for Summerside on Thursday, at 3.25, with about two hundred of the Charlottetown Reform Club, to take part in a grand demonstration and torchlight procession with their Summerside brothers. They were met at the train by about four hundred of the newly organized "Summerside Reform Club," with D. Banks McKenzie at their head, and the whole cortege, preceded by the band, marched through the town, which was all ablaze with the lights of the illumination and temperance torches. It was one of the most magnificent sights ever witnessed in the Island. After marching round for about an hour, they were led to the Ludlow Hall, where a splendid repast was spread out waiting for them.
After all were refreshed, they proceeded to the upstairs room, which was soon filled to overflowing. Never in the memory of the oldest inhabitant was witnessed such a tremendous crowd, and such quiet, orderly enthusiasm. Without doubt "Temperance Reform" has taken an effectual hold in Summerside. Speeches were delivered by Messrs. A. S. S. A. McDougall, D.
Banks McKenzie, Theo. Chappelle, S. D.
Fitzgerald, A. Mills, W. Brennan, C. Hunt, — McKenzie, J. R. Calhoun, M. P. P.
Mr. Simpson, and the Rev. Mr. McKay One or two excellent choruses were sung. The band at intervals played selections, and Messrs. Jackson and Regan also favored the audience. After spending a very pleasant evening with their Summerside brothers, the Charlottetown Reform Club bid good-bye, and took the train for Town at 11 p. m., and reached home at half-past one—safe, sound, and sober.

THE NAVAL SPIRIT IN SIAM.

Considerable energy is being shown by the Siamese Government to improve the naval force of that country, and application has been made to England for the temporary assistance of a few officers of the Royal Navy.

RAILWAY AMALGAMATION.

The London Times is officially informed that negotiations are pending for the acquisition, by the Midland and Great Norther Railway Companies jointly, of the undertaking of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Company.

THE REFORM MEETINGS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

SUMMERSIDE, Nov. 9th, 1877.—Since D.
Banks McKenzie arrived here he has met with grand success. When he appeared before a Summerside audience for the first time, last Monday night, he made a promise, and that promise has been carried out beyond the most sanguine expectations of the Temperance men of the town. Ludlow Hall has been filled every night to hear him, and numbers have joined his standard. Many touching incidents have taken place, when a father or a son went to the stand and signed the pledge. Mr.
McKenzie has done more good for the time he has been here than all the Temperance men put together have done in a lifetime.

There was a large business meeting held on Wednesday night, at which the following officers were chosen:—

President—A. P. Mills.
Vice-Presidents—Messrs. John McKenzie, John McKeirnan, Angus McSwain, Charles Hunt and Benj. Mutch.
Treasurer—R. T. Holman.
Financial Secretary—A. L. Anderson.
Secretary—W. A. Brennan.

On Thursday night the grand demonstration took place. Such a procession was never seen in Summerside before.
Strings of bunting floated across the streets, and a great many of our citizens had their houses illuminated. Angus Mc-Millan's grove was handsomely lighted up with lights of every color. At a quarter to seven the members of "Phoenix" Lodge, of I. O. G. T., and "Dominion" Lodge, of B. T., arrived at Ludlow Hall where they were provided with torches, and accompanied the members of the Reform Club to the Railway Station to await the arrival of the train from Charlot-tewtown, bringing Galbraith's Band and over one hundred of the members of the City Reform Club, accompanied by their lady friends. On the arrival of the train, the procession, numbering between 700 and 800, was formed, with the Templars at the head carrying the British ensign, and marched through the principal streets and back to Ludlow Hall. Here the ladies of Summerside had a collation prepared, on the second floor, for the members of the Reform Clubs and their friends. After partaking of a beautiful repast, the members passed out to the upper floor and took their seats. Ludlow Hall never held an audience before so full of enthusiasm.

There were fully 1000 present. After all had been seated the business of the meeting commenced with a song from J. Regan, of Charlottetown, entitled the "Badge of Heaven's Blue," followed by short addresses from Messrs. Sims, McDougall, Chappelle and Fitzgerald, of the City Reform Club. Then followed another song from Mr. Regan, and speeches from Messrs. A. P. Mills, Mutch McKenzie, Hunt and Brennan. "Pull for the Shore" was sung by the choir, assisted by the audience, after which John R. Calhoun, Esq., and Rev. Neil McKay were called on and made excellent speeches, promising their support to the cause. The meeting was brought to a close by the audience singing the National Anthem and the Benediction, pronounced by the Rev. Neil McKay. The best of order prevailed throughout, and the different speakers were applauded in a hearty manner. The Reform Club here now numbers over 400 members—some of the hard drinkers. The whole thing was a grand success, and the liquor-dealers look bluer than the ribbon of the Reformers.
Another meeting will be held to-night.

NORMAL SCHOOL DEBATING CLUB.—A Debating Club has been established at the Normal School. It is, we are pleased to learn, well patronized by the senior students of the sterner sex. The meetings are held every Friday afternoon at four o'clock. Strangers are not admitted to the discussions. The following resolution passed at a meeting held yesterday afternoon:—

"Whereas, This club was started as a private club for the members of this School,

"Resolved, That, in the opinion of this club, no other visitors, be allowed, as it might have the effect of deterring some of the members from expressing their views."

SOURIS REFORM CLUB.

THE FIRST PUBLIC MEETING—SUCCESSFUL AD-DRESSES—GOOD MUSIC.

The first public meeting of the Souris Reform Club was held in Souris Hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 5th. Upwards of three hundred persons were present—all manifesting the greatest enthusiasm in the cause of Temperance. On the platform we noticed the Rev. D. F. McDonald, J.
G. Cameron, and Rev. Mr. Gordon.
Music and singing were furnished by the Choir, Miss Carlton ably presiding at the organ. Rev. D. F. McDonald briefly addressed the audience, pointing out the many evil effects of drinking. He heartily approved of the movement, and strongly advised all present to take the pledge.
He was followed by Rev. Mr. Cameron, who refuted the charges that were made against the Souris' clergymen—that they were not in favor of the Reform movement. He exhorted all who had donned the blue ribbon, to hold by it; knew that the people of Souris had only been waiting for the opportunity to manifest their feelings on this question. Rev. Mr. Gordon remarked that he was an out-and-out Prohibitionist. He spoke eloquently and forcibly upon the great evils of intemperance, and gave his hearty co-operation to the cause.

Dr. E. P. Ford detailed some of the evil effects of alcoholic drinks upon the system, and stated that many diseases are attributable to the excessive use of strong drink. He spoke of its use as a medicine, and contended that it should be given only in extreme cases.

Speeches were also delivered by Mr.
White and the President.

The meeting on the whole was a grand success.

The executive committee are determined to do all in their power to ensure the success of the Temperance movement in Souris, and they have the hearty sympathy of all the clergymen and nearly all the leading men of the place.

The ladies are not behind hand in forwarding the good cause; and to encourage the weak and hesitating; many of them came forward and inscribed their names upon the Roll book.

After the meeting, forty-three new names were added to the Roll.—Com.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

DEAR SIR.—Although a good many street crossings have been laid the past year, yet they seem to be now utterly neglected—no attempt being made to clear the ever-accumulating mud from them; and the citizens find that in many instances the crossings are as "deep in the mud" as the streets are "in the mire." It is surely somebody's business to see that the crossings are kept clear of mud as far as possible.

TAX PAYER.

To the Editor of the Daily Examiner:

SIR.—In looking over the "Argus" of Tuesday last, I saw a letter from Elizabeth McCarron, stating that only for Hook and Ladder Company, the "Rollo" and "Silsby" engines and No. 2, she would have been burnt out. Well, now, Mr. Editor, I tell you that it was No. 1 that threw the first water, and only for her the house would have been leveled. Yours, truly,

A LOOKER ON.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERPRISE.—Messrs. Forrest & Co., the enterprising proprietors of the Lobster Factory at Saint Andrew's Point, have just terminated a remarkably successful enterprise for this season. On Saturday last they decided to shut down until next spring. It is their intention to conduct this business on a far more extensive scale at that time, and in view of this have leased the fishing stand formerly owned by Mr. I. C. Hall, at Annandale. In a short time preparations will be made for the manufacture of lobster cans, for next summer's use. They also intend enlarging their premises at St. Andrew's Point, and will recommence with largely increased facilities, as well as affording remunerative employment to a far larger number of men and women. These gentlemen deserve the best wishes of the working people of this community for their enterprise, as they opened up paying situations for a number of people who otherwise would have been idle the greater part of the time. We should hail the coming of such men in the community, or any community, for their usefulness is not confined to any particular class. The past season's transactions have given abundant proof, if proof were necessary, of the importance of active and intelligent business men locating themselves in our midst. Since they commenced operations last spring they have preserved and shipped 197,000 cans of Lobsters, and considering the fact that so large a quantity have been taken at the commencement, we look forward to a great increase in the future. Advertiser.
