

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS Letter Friends Is Theme At Stanhope WI Meeting

Letter Friends was the theme of the Stanhope WI at the home of the Rev. Roll White, answered by 16 members. Bills amounting to $8.17 were paid. Correspondence was read and it was moved by Jean Caruthers supported by Marie MacDonell that $1.00 be sent towards an adopted boy's care.

New committee members appointed were Mrs. Harry MacLauchlan reported attending the society council meeting Sept. 16.

It was moved by Mrs. Alvin MacLauchlan, and seconded by Mrs. George Hooper that $2.50 be given to League of Mercy.

The motion carried. The Senior Citizens supper is to be held November 7, it was announced.

The nominating committee for November meeting was appointed.

Lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

BURTON WI
The October meeting of Burton WI was held at the home of Mrs. Lancel Dalton presiding.

The sick committee reported visiting the sick and providing terms. The school committee reported purchasing articles for school. Members voted to pay all bills.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt will be hostess for the November meeting; dues will be paid.

The new committee appointed to visit the sick was Mrs. Peter Dalton and Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; school, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; program, Mrs. Clifford Collicutt; lunch, Mrs. Elmer Cooke, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt and Mrs. Clifford Collicutt.

Thank-you notes were read from those receiving treats and cards.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt entertained with reading of poetry composed by her sister, Mrs. Laurie Ferguson.

Members decided to donate articles for school November 11. Lunch was enjoyed followed by social chat.

AUGUSTINE COVE WI
A decision to hold a hot turkey supper at school November 11 was made at the October meeting of the Augustine Cove.

Ernest P. and Mrs. Weeks have returned to their home in Ottawa, after an extensive visit to St. John's.

Rev. Alvin Robertson of Nova Scotia spent a few days with his relatives in the Kingsboro area. He was guest speaker at a special service in the East Point United Baptist Church, Kingsboro.

She held at the home of Mrs. Helen Howatt with the president in the chair, Rev. Roll White, answered by 16 members. Bills amounting to $8.17 were paid. Correspondence was read and it was moved by Jean Caruthers supported by Marie MacDonell that $1.00 be sent towards an adopted boy's care.

New committee members appointed were Mrs. Harry MacLauchlan reported attending the society council meeting Sept. 16.

It was moved by Mrs. Alvin MacLauchlan, and seconded by Mrs. George Hooper that $2.50 be given to League of Mercy.

The motion carried. The Senior Citizens supper is to be held November 7, it was announced.

The nominating committee for November meeting was appointed.

Lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

BURTON WI
The October meeting of Burton WI was held at the home of Mrs. Lancel Dalton presiding.

The sick committee reported visiting the sick and providing terms. The school committee reported purchasing articles for school. Members voted to pay all bills.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt will be hostess for the November meeting; dues will be paid.

The new committee appointed to visit the sick was Mrs. Peter Dalton and Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; school, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; program, Mrs. Clifford Collicutt; lunch, Mrs. Elmer Cooke, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt and Mrs. Clifford Collicutt.

Thank-you notes were read from those receiving treats and cards.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt entertained with reading of poetry composed by her sister, Mrs. Laurie Ferguson.

Members decided to donate articles for school November 11. Lunch was enjoyed followed by social chat.

AUGUSTINE COVE WI
A decision to hold a hot turkey supper at school November 11 was made at the October meeting of the Augustine Cove.

Ernest P. and Mrs. Weeks have returned to their home in Ottawa, after an extensive visit to St. John's.

Rev. Alvin Robertson of Nova Scotia spent a few days with his relatives in the Kingsboro area. He was guest speaker at a special service in the East Point United Baptist Church, Kingsboro.

HAPPENINGS

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Sat. Oct. 24, 1964.

Audrey Jenkins, Women's Editor; Phone 4586

Yellow and mauve decorations formed an attractive setting at the home of Mrs. Hubert Fraser, Alberton, St. John's, where a post-nuptial shower was held for her sister, Mrs. Gabriel Jardin of Toronto.

The hostesses were Mrs. Danell Gavin, Mrs. Upton Fraser, Mrs. Fred Hamill and Mrs. Harold Skerry.

Gifts were presented in a decorated basket by Peggy and Vicky Fraser. In opening them the bride was assisted by Mrs. Hamill, while the good wishes were read by Daisie Matthews.

The gifts were arranged by Mrs. Hubert Fraser. Entertainment, Games and music were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Mrs. John W. Robertson, Kingsboro, left on a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alho Robertson, Toronto, her son Sterling Robertson, Odessa, Ont., and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allen, also of Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mallett, who were married recently in Cardville, Ont., are visiting in the city with their daughter, Wilfred Mallett and family, St. Louis.

Lance Dalton and daughters Mary and Dolores of Burton Colville, St. John's, N.B., recently visited with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ross.

Omitted from the Betty Bell-Stanley Wheeler wedding account last week was the name of one of the bridesmaids, Mrs. Eva Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Leard, Boston, Mass., have been visiting Stewart's brother, Edward Leard and family, Searsville.

Augustine Cove Women's Institute observed their 55th anniversary at a banquet when husbands and chartered members were also in attendance.

The first president of the group and only Life Member, Mrs. Jessie Cameron, welcomed the special guests.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Smith, Kingsboro Manse, had as their guests Mrs. Murray MacLaren of Saint John and Robert Yeoman and family, Westfield, N.B.

Carol Bradshaw, RN, Searsville, has accepted a position on the staff of the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, N.S.

Myrtle MacGregor, student at the Bible Training School in Montreal spent the weekend with her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart MacGregor.

The Kingsboro choir, of which she was member held a party for Myrtle Saturday evening and presented her with a gift.

A post-nuptial shower was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leard, St. John's, N.B., on Thursday evening at the home in Searsville. Many love letters were read. The party extended to this popular young couple, who were recently married in Cape Traverse Church.

Charles Barry Brown, New York, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Redcliffe.

Ernest P. and Mrs. Weeks have returned to their home in Ottawa, after an extensive visit to St. John's.

Rev. Alvin Robertson of Nova Scotia spent a few days with his relatives in the Kingsboro area. He was guest speaker at a special service in the East Point United Baptist Church, Kingsboro.

Mrs. Helen Howatt with the president in the chair, Rev. Roll White, answered by 16 members. Bills amounting to $8.17 were paid. Correspondence was read and it was moved by Jean Caruthers supported by Marie MacDonell that $1.00 be sent towards an adopted boy's care.

New committee members appointed were Mrs. Harry MacLauchlan reported attending the society council meeting Sept. 16.

It was moved by Mrs. Alvin MacLauchlan, and seconded by Mrs. George Hooper that $2.50 be given to League of Mercy.

The motion carried. The Senior Citizens supper is to be held November 7, it was announced.

The nominating committee for November meeting was appointed.

Lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

BURTON WI
The October meeting of Burton WI was held at the home of Mrs. Lancel Dalton presiding.

The sick committee reported visiting the sick and providing terms. The school committee reported purchasing articles for school. Members voted to pay all bills.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt will be hostess for the November meeting; dues will be paid.

The new committee appointed to visit the sick was Mrs. Peter Dalton and Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; school, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; program, Mrs. Clifford Collicutt; lunch, Mrs. Elmer Cooke, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt and Mrs. Clifford Collicutt.

Thank-you notes were read from those receiving treats and cards.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt entertained with reading of poetry composed by her sister, Mrs. Laurie Ferguson.

Members decided to donate articles for school November 11. Lunch was enjoyed followed by social chat.

MR. AND MRS. V.L. MOASE

McLure-Moase Ceremony Solemnized At Summerside

Baskets of gladiol and dahlias in autumn colors of yellow, white and orange adorned the chancel of Trinity United Church, Summerside on Saturday, September 26, at 3:30 p.m. when Rev. Dr. C. R. Webber assisted by Rev. Donald Mackay, using the double ring ceremony, united in marriage Mary Edith Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. McLure, Summerside, and Vernon Leigh Moase, St. Eleanor's, Summerside. Mr. and Mrs. Major Moase, North River.

Guest pews were marked with lace doilies, white satin bows and streamers.

Mrs. Eric Sheeh, church organist, was in charge of the wedding music. The Junior Girls' Choir under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Hughes sang "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven" as the bridal party proceeded to the altar. Before the ceremony, the choir sang "The Lord's My Shepherd" by Sandra McLure, cousin of the bride, singing the solo parts.

They That Love God, during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional floor-length gown of white nylon over net and satin. Appliques of seed pearls enhanced the gently scooped neckline and spanned the front panel of the bouffant skirt which ended in a short chapel train. The fitted bodice featured lily point sleeves and soft ruffles of self material at the back waistline. A tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones held a four tier bouffant chapel veil of nylon tulle. Her cascade de bouquet was Orange Delight roses with bleeding ribbon. The bride's only ornament was a cultured pearl necklace.

A Pearle Cameron of Charlottetown, her cousin's bridesmaid was wearing a floor length gown of white peau de soie, with full skirt ending in a short train. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline, short sleeves and a ruffle at the centre back waistline. She wore a crownlet of pill box of orange de soie with well and matching mitts. She carried a basket of yellow shastas, Orange Delight roses and California dried wheat, apropos of the autumn season.

For two flower girls, Mary Jane and Faye McLure, cousins of the bride, wore identical floor-length gowns of white peau de soie with bouffant skirts. The fitted bodices had Peter Pan collars, short sleeves and ruffles, and sashes gathered to a rosette at centre back. They wore wedding bells, and carried baskets of yellow Sweetheart roses, yellow shastas and Orange Delight roses.

Edwin Moose of North River was his brother's groomsmen. He wore a dark brown suit with white shirt and tie. The groom wore a dress of forest green nubby crepe with black accessories and a pink shirt. Her corsage was yellow Sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony dinner was served to 80 guests at Birch Hill Tourist Home. The bride's table was flanked by three tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom under an arch of wedding bells, and flanked by lighted tapers. Grace was asked by Mr. Webber. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Webber and responded to by the groom. Mrs. Leigh Hogg, cousin of the bride, acted as guest book. Mr. Mackay pronounced the benediction.

For a honeymoon to Niagara Falls and Toronto the bride chose a three piece beige suit with white and brown accessories and a corsage of Orange Delight roses.

She speaks of marriage in this letter, but says we would have to wait three years until he can support a wife. He also says I wish, I may wish as stewardess on his ship (which has other women employees) to be near him and get to know him better.

Next summer he will have two months vacation which we plan to spend here with him. We will see what we can do. I've told him we don't know each other well enough.

Second, I believe further, even if they don't always agree (even if they don't always agree to admit it), that it is the girl's responsibility to set the pace and, if necessary, apply the brakes, in a man's courtship relationship today.

Because it is male nature, she picks up on the way. And this is a morning. Alex, our last adopted son, in the grip of ardor lends me a young man's fill, that is a new experience to him and in the hindsight, avowedly "not to be" had never anticipated. Peter, our company, spoke more than once of him in his absence.

"Will you go back to get that other one filled?" he inquired last night.

Alex looked up rather absently from the new book he had bought. He was a big man of a fine physique and strong, one of a hardy race of men. And yet, no matter to him as to all other things that last call.

We think it a pity that these words should be written in the Inland's pioneering record started in those days that required courage and purpose, — a stout heart indeed, to face the times, are now about all lost to memory. We, we least of all, are aware of the vicissitudes of farming, would make light of the farmers of now. But it would seem that those elder days needed a harder race, both as to brains and perspective, to gain success in their chosen field.

"He was quite a man" James recalls with pride, their measure of losses and crosses, a sure joy and sorrows that attend human life. Tonight, — one passing by the cemetery round about the "Old Kirk" at the corner, chances to look in to that "Garden of the Dead" we would write him as candidly as your next suggests, because his pondence is (as he says) a way of being close and getting to know one another, through the inner strength and stability, to wish his return at his convenience, to claim you in your home record. Meanwhile see in the moonlight, a new gaur mounde there. Covered with flowers, it is, like of regard for the one gone, and expressions of sympathy for the loved ones who mourn.

This time it is a farmer of the community, one ripe in years, of whom Kirk and friends are bereft. He was a big man of a fine physique and strong, one of a hardy race of men. And yet, no matter to him as to all other things that last call.

We think it a pity that these words should be written in the Inland's pioneering record started in those days that required courage and purpose, — a stout heart indeed, to face the times, are now about all lost to memory. We, we least of all, are aware of the vicissitudes of farming, would make light of the farmers of now. But it would seem that those elder days needed a harder race, both as to brains and perspective, to gain success in their chosen field.

"He was quite a man" James recalls with pride, their measure of losses and crosses, a sure joy and sorrows that attend human life. Tonight, — one passing by the cemetery round about the "Old Kirk" at the corner, chances to look in to that "Garden of the Dead" we would write him as candidly as your next suggests, because his pondence is (as he says) a way of being close and getting to know one another, through the inner strength and stability, to wish his return at his convenience, to claim you in your home record. Meanwhile see in the moonlight, a new gaur mounde there. Covered with flowers, it is, like of regard for the one gone, and expressions of sympathy for the loved ones who mourn.

This time it is a farmer of the community, one ripe in years, of whom Kirk and friends are bereft. He was a big man of a fine physique and strong, one of a hardy race of men. And yet, no matter to him as to all other things that last call.

We think it a pity that these words should be written in the Inland's pioneering record started in those days that required courage and purpose, — a stout heart indeed, to face the times, are now about all lost to memory. We, we least of all, are aware of the vicissitudes of farming, would make light of the farmers of now. But it would seem that those elder days needed a harder race, both as to brains and perspective, to gain success in their chosen field.

"He was quite a man" James recalls with pride, their measure of losses and crosses, a sure joy and sorrows that attend human life. Tonight, — one passing by the cemetery round about the "Old Kirk" at the corner, chances to look in to that "Garden of the Dead" we would write him as candidly as your next suggests, because his pondence is (as he says) a way of being close and getting to know one another, through the inner strength and stability, to wish his return at his convenience, to claim you in your home record. Meanwhile see in the moonlight, a new gaur mounde there. Covered with flowers, it is, like of regard for the one gone, and expressions of sympathy for the loved ones who mourn.

MARY HAWORTH Should Girl Follow Sailor After Four-Day Courtship

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: It all began about 10 days ago when this ship from Norway came into our port. My mother (who is a widow) has a snack bar where the men from the ships stop in.

A boy, 18 of the Norwegian ship, started a conversation with me when I wasn't busy but I didn't really notice him. Next night I saw him at a dance and he asked me to dance. After the dance he asked to take me home and I just couldn't refuse. I am not a pick-up type but he was a real gentleman.

Next day he came up to the dinner table and introduced me to his family and home in Norway and we had a picnic together. He is in college before he becomes a first mate, then a sea captain.

He is a good looking fellow and he has a good job. I really like him and I think I should go with him. He is a good fellow and he has a good job. I really like him and I think I should go with him.

However, I'll spell it out anyway. I'll spell it out anyway. I'll spell it out anyway. I'll spell it out anyway. I'll spell it out anyway.

First, as background, let me say that I am prepared to believe that the romantic interest of a man in a girl marks the beginning of real love (or, at any rate, signifies the potential thereof) between a nice girl and an honest lad.

Second, I believe further, even if they don't always agree (even if they don't always agree to admit it), that it is the girl's responsibility to set the pace and, if necessary, apply the brakes, in a man's courtship relationship today.

Because it is male nature, she picks up on the way. And this is a morning. Alex, our last adopted son, in the grip of ardor lends me a young man's fill, that is a new experience to him and in the hindsight, avowedly "not to be" had never anticipated. Peter, our company, spoke more than once of him in his absence.

"Will you go back to get that other one filled?" he inquired last night.

Alex looked up rather absently from the new book he had bought. He was a big man of a fine physique and strong, one of a hardy race of men. And yet, no matter to him as to all other things that last call.

We think it a pity that these words should be written in the Inland's pioneering record started in those days that required courage and purpose, — a stout heart indeed, to face the times, are now about all lost to memory. We, we least of all, are aware of the vicissitudes of farming, would make light of the farmers of now. But it would seem that those elder days needed a harder race, both as to brains and perspective, to gain success in their chosen field.

"He was quite a man" James recalls with pride, their measure of losses and crosses, a sure joy and sorrows that attend human life. Tonight, — one passing by the cemetery round about the "Old Kirk" at the corner, chances to look in to that "Garden of the Dead" we would write him as candidly as your next suggests, because his pondence is (as he says) a way of being close and getting to know one another, through the inner strength and stability, to wish his return at his convenience, to claim you in your home record. Meanwhile see in the moonlight, a new gaur mounde there. Covered with flowers, it is, like of regard for the one gone, and expressions of sympathy for the loved ones who mourn.

This time it is a farmer of the community, one ripe in years, of whom Kirk and friends are bereft. He was a big man of a fine physique and strong, one of a hardy race of men. And yet, no matter to him as to all other things that last call.

We think it a pity that these words should be written in the Inland's pioneering record started in those days that required courage and purpose, — a stout heart indeed, to face the times, are now about all lost to memory. We, we least of all, are aware of the vicissitudes of farming, would make light of the farmers of now. But it would seem that those elder days needed a harder race, both as to brains and perspective, to gain success in their chosen field.

"He was quite a man" James recalls with pride, their measure of losses and crosses, a sure joy and sorrows that attend human life. Tonight, — one passing by the cemetery round about the "Old Kirk" at the corner, chances to look in to that "Garden of the Dead" we would write him as candidly as your next suggests, because his pondence is (as he says) a way of being close and getting to know one another, through the inner strength and stability, to wish his return at his convenience, to claim you in your home record. Meanwhile see in the moonlight, a new gaur mounde there. Covered with flowers, it is, like of regard for the one gone, and expressions of sympathy for the loved ones who mourn.

This time it is a farmer of the community, one ripe in years, of whom Kirk and friends are bereft. He was a big man of a fine physique and strong, one of a hardy race of men. And yet, no matter to him as to all other things that last call.

We think it a pity that these words should be written in the Inland's pioneering record started in those days that required courage and purpose, — a stout heart indeed, to face the times, are now about all lost to memory. We, we least of all, are aware of the vicissitudes of farming, would make light of the farmers of now. But it would seem that those elder days needed a harder race, both as to brains and perspective, to gain success in their chosen field.

Green Pepper Dressing
Oven 3-Meat Stew with Vegetables
Nutt'd Baked Bananas
Coffee Tea, Milk

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice A. O'Connell of 216 School Street, Summerside, Massachusetts, observed their Golden Wedding Anniversary on October 20, 1964. The ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. Bessie Cameron.

Each member was asked to donate an article for the bazaar. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by committee in charge.

BURTON WI
The October meeting of Burton WI was held at the home of Mrs. Lancel Dalton presiding.

The sick committee reported visiting the sick and providing terms. The school committee reported purchasing articles for school. Members voted to pay all bills.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt will be hostess for the November meeting; dues will be paid.

The new committee appointed to visit the sick was Mrs. Peter Dalton and Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; school, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; program, Mrs. Clifford Collicutt; lunch, Mrs. Elmer Cooke, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt and Mrs. Clifford Collicutt.

Thank-you notes were read from those receiving treats and cards.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt entertained with reading of poetry composed by her sister, Mrs. Laurie Ferguson.

Members decided to donate articles for school November 11. Lunch was enjoyed followed by social chat.

AUGUSTINE COVE WI
A decision to hold a hot turkey supper at school November 11 was made at the October meeting of the Augustine Cove.

Ernest P. and Mrs. Weeks have returned to their home in Ottawa, after an extensive visit to St. John's.

Rev. Alvin Robertson of Nova Scotia spent a few days with his relatives in the Kingsboro area. He was guest speaker at a special service in the East Point United Baptist Church, Kingsboro.

Mrs. Helen Howatt with the president in the chair, Rev. Roll White, answered by 16 members. Bills amounting to $8.17 were paid. Correspondence was read and it was moved by Jean Caruthers supported by Marie MacDonell that $1.00 be sent towards an adopted boy's care.

New committee members appointed were Mrs. Harry MacLauchlan reported attending the society council meeting Sept. 16.

It was moved by Mrs. Alvin MacLauchlan, and seconded by Mrs. George Hooper that $2.50 be given to League of Mercy.

The motion carried. The Senior Citizens supper is to be held November 7, it was announced.

The nominating committee for November meeting was appointed.

Lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

BURTON WI
The October meeting of Burton WI was held at the home of Mrs. Lancel Dalton presiding.

The sick committee reported visiting the sick and providing terms. The school committee reported purchasing articles for school. Members voted to pay all bills.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt will be hostess for the November meeting; dues will be paid.

The new committee appointed to visit the sick was Mrs. Peter Dalton and Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; school, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; program, Mrs. Clifford Collicutt; lunch, Mrs. Elmer Cooke, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt and Mrs. Clifford Collicutt.

Thank-you notes were read from those receiving treats and cards.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt entertained with reading of poetry composed by her sister, Mrs. Laurie Ferguson.

Members decided to donate articles for school November 11. Lunch was enjoyed followed by social chat.

AUGUSTINE COVE WI
A decision to hold a hot turkey supper at school November 11 was made at the October meeting of the Augustine Cove.

Ernest P. and Mrs. Weeks have returned to their home in Ottawa, after an extensive visit to St. John's.

Rev. Alvin Robertson of Nova Scotia spent a few days with his relatives in the Kingsboro area. He was guest speaker at a special service in the East Point United Baptist Church, Kingsboro.

Mrs. Helen Howatt with the president in the chair, Rev. Roll White, answered by 16 members. Bills amounting to $8.17 were paid. Correspondence was read and it was moved by Jean Caruthers supported by Marie MacDonell that $1.00 be sent towards an adopted boy's care.

New committee members appointed were Mrs. Harry MacLauchlan reported attending the society council meeting Sept. 16.

It was moved by Mrs. Alvin MacLauchlan, and seconded by Mrs. George Hooper that $2.50 be given to League of Mercy.

The motion carried. The Senior Citizens supper is to be held November 7, it was announced.

The nominating committee for November meeting was appointed.

Lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge.

BURTON WI
The October meeting of Burton WI was held at the home of Mrs. Lancel Dalton presiding.

The sick committee reported visiting the sick and providing terms. The school committee reported purchasing articles for school. Members voted to pay all bills.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt will be hostess for the November meeting; dues will be paid.

The new committee appointed to visit the sick was Mrs. Peter Dalton and Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; school, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt; program, Mrs. Clifford Collicutt; lunch, Mrs. Elmer Cooke, Mrs. Ivan Collicutt and Mrs. Clifford Collicutt.

Thank-you notes were read from those receiving treats and cards.

Mrs. Clifford Collicutt entertained with reading of poetry composed by her sister, Mrs. Laurie Ferguson.

Members decided to donate articles for school November 11. Lunch was enjoyed followed by social chat.

A