

Better Weather Results In Improved Harvesting

The harvest season which has just been stretched over four months has come up with a great responsibility in its undertaking to provide compensation for harvest damage.

ACROSS THE ISLAND

New Products For Province

By NEIL A. MATHESON
FARMER'S PUBLIC Editor
I'VE ADDED Zuger Salome, Bedoune to the list of men who are producing new products.

Mr. Salome had hoped to manufacture a mixed cereal from which the rye and the wheat was dropped for this year.

The NETHERLANDS native has an ambition to grow 700 to 800 acres of wheat in the province.

Molasses Mixer Was Difficult

A COMPANY executive told Mr. Salome he couldn't build a mixer, but he didn't stop the ingenious effort. He built one that didn't work.

'Big Lobster' Catch Is Recalled

ALEXANDER BLUE, Little Sande told me a story about 'big lobsters' I found interesting.

Handicraft Skills Now And Then

I SAW some unusual and imaginative handicraft work which Mrs. Blue is doing, which reminds me once again of the present drive to develop handicraft skills.

Devil Appears In Ghost Year

THIS IS one of the dozens of ghost stories which I was told last month, after my October 12 ghost story column.

Rocking Chair From Franklin Home

I WENT to Norway, west of Tignes recently to see a beautiful old rocking chair that came from the home of Benjamin Franklin.

Data Promised On Cup TV Issue

OTTAWA (CP)—The government has accepted the motion of Lionel Chevrier (L.-Montreal Laurier) to make public the legal opinion of E. A. Driedger, deputy justice minister, on the ruling of the Board of Broadcast Governors concerning CBC television coverage of the Grey Cup football game.

CONFERENCE

In different places over the Farm Forum, with the Dairy Farmers of Canada, and with the Federation of Agricultural Producers.

COUNTY MEETINGS

The county annual meetings of the federation are designed to provide the individual members with a forum for the discussion of agricultural and farm matters.

TIME AND PLACE

When this letter appears to print the Prince County meeting will have been over on Thursday evening.

WINTER PREPARATIONS

'Getting ready for winter' is a different operation in many respects from the procedures of years ago.
