

Survey, con't from page 7

Econ: almost always available for discussion/assistance; yes, most are always available without appointment and appreciate it when you drop in for discussion.

Educ: not enough, they are hard to find.

Engin: yes; prof. try to be available for assistance.

Eng: yes.

Hist: yes

HEc: no; most are, but there a few exceptions.

Math: at all times.

Mod Langs: not as often as I'd like, I have to hunt around for them; yes.

Music: often; yes, if you make an appointment.

Phil: yes, there is excellent prof-student relationship.

Physics: usually.

PolSci: yes; some of them.

Psych: most are; on the whole, yes.

Soc/Anth: yes, if they aren't there you can make an appointment.

3) Have you been encouraged to take certain courses or discouraged from taking others?

The following departments have encouraged students to take certain courses or have discouraged them from taking others (to a certain degree): Biology, Economics, Education, Engineering, History, Home Economics, Math, Modern Languages, Physics, Philosophy, Psychology, and Sociology/Anthropology.

4) a - Are course evaluations conducted in your department?
yes 43% sometimes 30% no 27%

b - Should they be mandatory?
yes 93% no 7%

c - Should they be conducted by the Registrar or by the professor?
Registrar 73% Prof 20% student 7%

Con t next week

NEW

Regular and King Size

du MAURIER LIGHT

Light. Yet distinctly du Maurier.