The Earl of Kimberley's Reply to the Canadian "Irish Resolutions."

THE following is the exact reply of Earl Kimberley to the Irish Resolutions passed by the Canadian Parliament.

"The London Times has a dignified editorial on the subject, praising the loyalty and devotion of Canada, but expressing profound regret at the manner in which the Canadian press has expressed their loyalty.

"Had the aim been to disseminate love, we hardly know how they could more effectually have compassed it, than by sending such an address at such a time, just when Her Majesty's Government was engaged in a severe struggle with anarchy and sedition in Ireland.

"It is something new to the Times to be obliged to submit to a fair outspoken criticism. Here was one that it could not treat contemptuously, as, alas! it so often treats any kindred expression in England.

"We nurse them through their pining infancy, insure for their youth an opportunity for tranquil, undisturbed growth, and our reward usually is that as soon as they reach something approaching manhood they display independence by putting prohibitive, restrictive taxes upon our commerce.

"Yes, that is so like the Times, and the section of society it represents. It wonders at anyone displaying independence; it cannot understand why the strong young man will no longer submit to clinging to the mother's apron-strings; and, above all, it is so securely fixed in the conceits of its own idea regarding trade principles, that it can tolerate no divergence from them, but sits sorrowfully sobbing over the unbounded prosperity that accompanies Canada in her policy of protection, and in the next Times article recommends the English poor to seek a home in this 'Canada of Ours.'

Hon. Isaac Burpee and Mr. J. Lunt, of St. John, are the owners of the new steamer City of St. John, which is now at Point du Chêne in readiness to be removed to St. John and placed upon the Fredericton-Indian route.

Fredericton in Terror.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE THE POLICE MAGISTRATE AND ALSO THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

A dreadful attempt was made at Fredericton, on Monday, to assassinate Col. Marsh, the Police Magistrate. About four o'clock in the morning some persons knocked at the door of the Colonel's house, and upon the Colonel answering, the following scene took place. The Colonel says: "I inquired 'Who is there?' The reply came, 'You are wanted at the police office at once.' Dow Vandine (meaning the Chief of Police) has been shot and killed."

But this event has paled before another dreadful attack on the Chief of Police Vandine. The officer had warrants issued for the arrest of several desperadoes who had attempted to shoot him.

The London Times has a dignified editorial on the subject, praising the loyalty and devotion of Canada, but expressing profound regret at the manner in which the Canadian press has expressed their loyalty.

"Had the aim been to disseminate love, we hardly know how they could more effectually have compassed it, than by sending such an address at such a time, just when Her Majesty's Government was engaged in a severe struggle with anarchy and sedition in Ireland.
