IN MEMORIAM

AMBROSE MICHAEL CORCORAN

A highly respected resident of Piusville in the person of Ambrose Michael Corcoran passed peacefully to his reward on Dec. 26, 1951, after a short illness of four days. During that time, his pastor, Rev. M. J. Rooney, visited him and administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church, of which he was always a devoted member. The deceased was born in Portland, Maine, in 1876, and moved with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Corcoran, to Norboro, P.E.I., when he was one year old, and to Piusville, two years later. Mr. Corcoran was well known throughout a great part of the Province, and his genial personality and his just and upright dealings with his fellow-men, won for him a host of friends. His long life, spent in faithful service to God, loving devotion to his family, and charity to all, was a true example of Christian virtue. He will be sadly missed in his community, but above all in his own family circle. His natural fondness for children and his rare ability to educate them while entertaining them with his inimitable stories, has left undying memories with his sons and daughters and his grandchildren. His friends and neighbors will ever remember his freinds hospitality and their pleasant associations with him in all community affairs.

His funeral, to St. Anthony's Church, was largely attended and the Solemn Requiem Mass was chanted by his pastor, Rev. M. J. Rooney, assisted by Rev. L. J. McKenna as deacon, and Rev. Leonard MacDonald as sub-deacon. The Rev. W.E. Monaghan and Rev. J.N. Trainor assisted in the sanctuary. Rev. M. J. Rooney conducted the services at the grave as his mortal remains were tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

Pall bearers were Lance Dalton, Melvin McGregor, Keith Kelly, Herman Corcoran, Warburton Murray and Nelson L. Gallant.

There are left to mourn, besides his sorrowing widow, the former Mary Kinch of Alma, the following sons and daughters: Sister Mary Agatha and Sister Mary Ambrose, of the Congregation of St. Martha; (Pearle) Mrs. Lance Dalton, Burton, P.E.I.; (Geraldine) Mrs. Melvin McGregor, Burton, P. E. I.; (Avon) Mrs. Harold McGregor, Halifax, N.S.; (Jane) Mrs. Henry LeClaire, Norton, Mass.; (Eugene) Mrs. Hugh Nicholson, Fall River, Mass.; (Winnie) Mrs. William Doyle, Malden, Mass.; (Marguerite) Mrs. Ray Lawrence, Roxbury, Mass.; (Louise) Mrs. Chas. Staffira, Elmhurst, Illinois; John, of Piusville; Justin, East Royalty, P.E.I.; Wilfred, R.C.A.F., Calgary, Alberta; Frank, Halifax, N.S., and Norbert, at home; also fifty grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Also surviving are one brother and four sisters, namely: Thomas, of Piusville; (Ursula) Mrs. Holson Goff, Roxbury, P.E.I.; (Clare) Mrs. Walsh, Roxbury, Mass.; (Janie) Mrs. O'Malley, Melvin, Michigan; (Nellie) Mrs. Lester Moody, Tamworth, New Hampshire. Two sisters and one son predeceased him. The family are deeply grateful for the Masses, Spiritual Bouquets and expressions of sympathy received, as listed below.
