CALL "BORN YESTERDAY" TOP COMEDY OF YEAR

Overlooked in the interest surrounding the winning by Judy Holliday of the Academy Award as "best actress of the year" for her performance in "Born Yesterday", is the fact that the Columbia picture, now at the Prince Edward Theatre, has itself been praised as the best comedy of the year. National magazines which have nominated "Born Yesterday" to their "best of the year" categories include Redbook, Cosmopolitan and Quick.

In addition to winning the coveted Hollywood accolade, Miss Holliday's performance in "Born Yesterday" netted her a Look magazine award as the "newcomer of the year." The Associated Press, which polled 100 leading Hollywood correspondents, voted curvaceous Judy "the best actress of 1950." Others who lauded the comedienne were the Hollywood Foreign Correspondents Association, which named her "best actress in a comedy," and a CBS radio poll which selected her as "the year's best performer."

of Lewiston, Me., which appealed against an order of the N. B. Motor Carrier Board to prevent the line from picking up or dropping passengers in that province.

The judgment said that the MacKenzie line, once owned and operated by Israel Winner, had obtained a licence from the board in 1949 to operate public motor buses between St. Stephen and Saint John, N. B., over highway route No. 1 and between Saint John and the Nova Scotia border over highway route No. 2.

The MacKenzie line, operates from Boston to Halifax and Glace Bay, N. S., using New Brunswick highways.

Earlier this year, Mr. Winner sold the line to the Maine Central Railway which named the Canadian National Railways as operators of the line on the Canadian side.

The New Brunswick licence granted to Mr. Winner in 1949, specified that he was not to employ or debus passengers in New Brunswick.

An injunction was issued at the request of S.M.T. (Eastern) Ltd., a New Brunswick line, but the MacKenzie operator ignored the injunction and said he would not comply with it until the Supreme Court of Canada had ruled on the case.

At the Supreme Court hearing here last February, the Federal Government, along with the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways, intervened on Mr. Winner's behalf.

P. E. I. Also Respondent

Siding with S.M.T. (Eastern), which was named as respondent, were the Provinces of New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Ontario, Quebec, Alberta, British Columbia, as well as the trucking industry. Nova Scotia also was named as a respondent, though that Province presented argument partially supporting both sides.

The main question at issue was the intentions expressed by the British North America Act on which Canada's constitution was founded.

The Provinces argued that had the Fathers of Confederation wanted bus lines, or stage coach lines which were in operation at the time of confederation, under federal jurisdiction, then they would have so stated in the Act. But there actually was no mention of such transportation, though there were references to steamship, railways, telegraph and canals.

The nine justices of the Supreme Court leaned towards the argument of the Federal Government that the bus operations constituted an underlying connected line of Province with another and therefore within the exclusive jurisdiction of parliament.

COUN. J. D. STEWART

Council and stated that if there were disagreements on occasion they were for the good of all. He promised his continued help in the future and expressed the hope that in the years to come they would be as faithful to the city as they had while he was in the Council.

In moving acceptance of the Mayor's resignation, Councillor Prowse said it was being done with deep regret but that Mayor MacDonald was moving into a larger field of work. He spoke of the way the public of this city had consistently supported him in many past elections and now a wider circle of voters had elected him to represent them in the Legislature.

After the presentation to Mr. MacDonald Councillor Prowse, seconded by Councillor O'Donnell, moved that Councillor J. David Stewart be appointed acting Mayor.

In accepting, Acting Mayor Stewart thanked the Council for the honor they bestowed on him and said he hoped to continue the term in the way former Mayor MacDonald would do. He added that he would need the help of the former Mayor on many occasions and asked the full co-operation of all Councillors for the next four months.

Speaks On Town Planning Just before the meeting closed Mr. J. F. Connolly, Director of Town Planning for this Province, spoke briefly on the recently held Maritime Town Planning Conference during which this city and the Town of Summerside jointly were hosts at a dinner to the delegates.

In speaking of the outlying districts near this city Mr. Connolly said that Parkdale had been incorporated and he expected that Spring Park would shortly take similar action.

He asked the Council to give serious consideration to the supplying of water services to these communities. Using the language of baseball in congratulating the retiring mayor Mr. Connolly said Mayor MacDonald "had been playing in a Triple A League but now he is coming into the Big League. In this League he cannot boot any grounders under shortstop."

Text of Resolution The resolution naming an acting Mayor reads as follows: "Whereas, B. Earle MacDonald has resigned his office as Mayor of the City of Charlottetown.

"And whereas section 9 of the act to consolidate and amend the several acts incorporating the City of Charlottetown provides that in the case of such resignation the Council shall appoint from among its number a Councillor to act temporarily in the place of the Mayor and whereas section 10 of the said act provides that a by-election to fill such vacancy need not be called in such vacancy shall occur within six months before the date set by statute for the next general civic election.

"Therefore be it resolved that Councillor J. David Stewart be appointed acting Mayor for the City of Charlottetown for the remainder of the term of the present Council."

Address To Retiring Mayor "Council Chambers "City Hall, Charlottetown "October 22nd, 1951. "B. Earle MacDonald, "Mayor, City of Charlottetown

"Your Worship: "Before accepting your resignation I wish to state that tonight marks another milestone in your life and also one in the records of this municipality in which you have served six years as one of its Councillors and six years as its Mayor.

"For you this milestone marks the Alpha of Provincial Politics and Omega of Civic Politics in your very busy life.

"You have done much for the betterment of our City through your untiring efforts during the twelve years you have served on its municipal board. You are therefore deserving of the thanks of every citizen for your contribution of time, energy and ability to make Charlottetown a better place in which to live."

"I believe, Mr. Mayor, that was your slogan and endeavour during the years you served as a City Father. As you journey along the road of life to the next milestone may the same success which crowned your efforts in the past be attained by you in the future.

"To enumerate all the Civic improvements to our City during the MacDonald regime would take too long but I feel it should be mentioned here that the biggest undertaking of Civic administration during the last twenty-five years has been the setting up of the Board of Assessors to re-value the properties. The functions of this board are now terminated and our assessment is now on a sound, fair and equitable basis mathematically perfect in its entirety. To have accomplished this alone during your tenure of office is indicative of one of the bigger milestones in the history of this City.

"The masterful way in which you conducted the Council meetings made it a pleasure to serve under you. Your grasp of Civic affairs enabled you to cope with many difficult situations and bring about solutions to problems which seemed at the outset practically impossible to deal with.

"And so Mr. Mayor, we your Councillors bid you farewell. May God continue to bless you and prosper you in the years that lie ahead.

"As a token of our esteem for you and in appreciation of your service to our City we ask you to accept this gift as a remembrance of the years you served at the Council Board.

"On behalf of the City Council of the City of Charlottetown, "Councillor J. D. Stewart."

KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss, and "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acid from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well get and use DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.
