ON PARADE for the first time, the Sherwood Cadet Corps, yesterday acquitted itself creditably as it underwent inspection by Col. K.M. Johnston, commanding officer No. 2 Militia Group. Here the corps, commanded by Capt. John Norton, Jr., is seen in the march past on Maple Avenue. Due to the inclement weather much of the inspection took place in the Community Hall. The drill and appearance of the new corps drew many complimentary remarks and earned a "well done" by the inspecting officer.

Inspection Is Carried Out Of Sherwood Cadet Corps

The Sherwood School Cadet Corps, Capt. John Norton, Jr., commanding, held its first annual inspection yesterday. The inspecting officer was Col. K.M. Johnston, commanding officer No. 2 Militia Group.

The corps, formed in December of last year, numbered about 60 boys and girls. They were inspected in stand-to, foot drill and march past.

Col. Johnston expressed much pleasure in the formation of the new corps and complimented it highly on its turn-out and display. He had words of congratulations for those lending encouragement and assistance.

Accompanying Col. Johnston in the inspecting party were, Capt. H.J. DeCoste, cadet officer Eastern Command; Capt. Eric Temple, training officer; Major M.E. Campbell, Prince Edward Island Regiment; Inspector A.S. McNeil, officer commanding "L" division, RCMP, Donald Gordon, president of the Home and School Association and George Chevrie, chairman of the Sherwood Village commissioners.

Col. Johnston took the salute on the march past held on Maple Avenue. Due to the inclement weather further inspection took place in the Community Hall.

The Birchwood School Cadet Band added much to the color and pleasure of the inspection.

Officers and NCOs of the Corps in addition to Cadet Capt. Norton include, Lieut. Burton Taylor, Lieut. Patricia Taylor, S/Sgt Rosemma Beck and Sgt. James Cross.

Following the inspection members of the corps enjoyed refreshments in the school provided by Joseph Noonan, who has played an active role in the formation of the corps.

In the evening a dance was held in which members and friends participated.

Banking Comm. Sits Here Today

Provincial Treasurer Melvin McQuaid will present a government brief this morning to the Royal Commission on Banking and Finance when it sits at the Court House in Charlottetown at 9.15.

Chairman of the commission is Ontario Chief Justice Dana Porter.

Mr. McQuaid said that the 20-page brief, prepared under his direction by members of the provincial treasury, contains a number of recommendations in respect to provincial financing, particularly in regard to floating bond issues.

The commission, which will hold public hearings tomorrow and Friday in Charlottetown, sat in Fredericton, N.B., earlier this week and moves to Halifax for hearings which begin Monday.

Industry Dept. Gets New Truck

A four - wheel drive, 1,200 gallon capacity fire truck recently purchased by the forestry section of the department of industry and natural resources will be located in St. Peter's, provincial forester Frank Gaudet said yesterday.

Mr. Gaudet said that his division now has three such trucks - one in Alberton one at Beach Grove, and the new one.

The new truck is being fitted with a water tank and it is expected that it will be in St. Peter's in about a week where it will be under the care of local firemen.

The four-wheel drive enables the trucks to be used in the woods "anywhere that there is a lane," according to the forester.

The trucks, which carry several thousand feet of hose, can pump from a stream or brook, or where water is not easily accessible, can pump from their 1,200 gallon tank.

VALUED FUR
