

LA SCIENCE DE LA VIE

Quiconque veut vivre en paix doit être sourd, aveugle et muet.

L'œuf d'aujourd'hui vaut mieux que la poule de demain.

Le malheur de l'égalité, c'est que nous ne la voulons qu'avec nos supérieurs.

Les passions font de notre cœur un temple d'idoles.

Agir sous le coup de la colère, c'est mettre à la voile durant la tempête.

Les gens de bien sont enviés toujours

L'amour propre est le côté vulnérable de presque tous les hommes.

Quand la table est étroite, on se serre les coudes.

Quant on manque d'idées, on les remplace par des mots.

Savoir écouter est une preuve de bon sens, de politesse et d'expérience.

Pour n'être pas bête, il ne suffit pas d'avoir de l'esprit, il faut encore savoir s'en servir.

Le labourer et le champ se ruinent presque toujours ensemble.

Les femmes sont des pendules qui retardent toujours à partir de vingt-cinq ans.

Un grand nom sans mérite est une épithète sur un cercueil.

L'éducation ne change pas nos instincts, elle nous enseigne à les masquer.

Pour la plupart des hommes, se corriger consiste à changer de défaut.

Les passions sont les seuls orateurs qui persuadent toujours.

LA RECOLTE DE BLE EN FRANCE

Les derniers rapports reçus au ministère de l'agriculture indiquent que les blés en France ont souffert des intempéries et que la récolte sera sans aucun doute insuffisante.

de la moisson, ce serait désastreux pour celle-ci.

La consommation annuelle du blé en France est de 340 millions de minots, et, en supposant un excédent de 27 millions de minots, provenant de la récolte de l'année dernière, les personnes les plus autorisées reconnaissent que la France sera obligée d'acheter du blé à l'étranger.

FOR all Americans there is an unalloyed interest in the scenes and places of that historic little country that gave us our laws, our language, our conquering instincts and our faith. Divided many times by the bitterness of those contests that have made us what we are, she stands again to us and we to her, as the Mother Land whose splendid story is also so largely ours, and in common with whom we claim the genius of Shakespeare, the laws of Alfred, and the dominant instinct of that Saxon lineage which wins and conquers and subdues by processes known to us two alone: the American and the British side by side. And as the centuries have passed England has grown nearer to us, she is no longer a far-off land of which we have only heard. The first voyagers of those who made America, and made it English, occupied nine stormy and perilous weeks. It required two centuries to reduce that time one-half. Now our green shores and the white cliffs of Albion lie less than one week apart, and for thirty years we have talked with England under the sea in a common language, about common interests. To go and to return is an incident of daily life.

There are only a few copies of this magnificent art work left and you will be fortunate indeed if you secure one.

This cut illustrates but very faintly the magnificence of the original.

The above reproduction is less than one-fiftieth the actual size. The engraved surface being 4 1/2 x 10 1/2 inches, printed on heavy plate paper for framing. Actual size of picture 4 1/2 x 27 inches. The publisher's price is $25.00, unframed, and that is what a copy would cost you in the art stores. It is a work that would grace the walls of the most palatial mansion in the land.

"The subject is treated in a masterly manner, the grand curve of the Horseshoe in the foreground leading the eye up to the tumbling, raging rapids above, and the broad expanse of river beyond, with the islands in the middle distance and the face of the farther curve of the Horseshoe, as well as the great white wall of the American Fall, partially obscured by the cloud of rising spray which is handled lightly with fine effect. In the great amphitheatre stanch little steamers that make their tours under the constant showers of spray. Never before has this subject been handled by any artist with equal force and impressive dignity, combined with deep, thorough feeling and delicacy of touch."—The Railway Age.
