Chicago White Sox Lose To Washington 6,4

By The Canadian Press
Chicago White Sox hopes of finding a soft touch in Washington Senators fizzled Monday and the Senators' 6-4 victory dropped Chicago 2-1-2 games behind the American League-leading New York Yankees.

The Sox, winner of six of their seven games with Washington as they took the field, had banked on improving their record of 13 wins in their last 17 games. They started the contest in second place, a half game ahead of Boston Red Sox.

Robinson-Maxim Bout Postponed; Sugar Ray Now Betting Favorite

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson took the favorite's role today as light rain forced a two-day postponement of his light-heavyweight title fight with champion Joey Maxim until Wednesday at Yankee Stadium.

Strong support for the middle-weight king developed after the weigh-in and there were indications the washout would drive the price higher, past 13 to 10.

Two Softball Games Tonight

Two City League softball games are on tap for this evening. The Maritime Electric will play the Basilia Youth Club on the Knights of Columbus diamond at six o'clock and Bruce Stewart's will meet the North End Bombers on the Parkdale diamond at the same time.

Robinson would have given away 14 1/2 pounds to Maxim had they fought tonight. Now they have to do all over again Wednesday with a second official weigh-in.

The fight could not be held Tuesday night because New York Giants play a night doubleheader with Cincinnati. Giants and Yanks have a reciprocal no-conflict agreement.

Abbies Teams Tangle Tonight In Baseball

The Intermediate Abbies, seeking their first win of the season in the Island Baseball League, will meet the Junior Abbies this evening on Memorial Field at 5:30.

The Intermediates, who have been rained out of most of their scheduled games, have played only two contests this year and both have been close bar. games. They lost their first game to the Junior Abbies by an 8-7 score and lost last week to Curran and Briggs Juniors 5-4 in 13 innings.

Cliff Roach has found himself in a peculiar position this past week. Cliff, who took over from Bill Dinning as coach of the Sydney Millionaires in the middle of last season, was voted the best coach in the Big Six at the end of the year in the All Star poll. This selection did not carry much weight with the Sydney club, however, as they decided last Thursday night to get a big name coach for next season. Not many fans would agree that Roach was the best coach in the M.M.H.L. last year but it is a rather unusual thing to see an All Star coach lose his job before the season opens.

There will be no home television or radio of the Robinson-Maxim bout in the United States, but the CBC's Dominion network will carry it on radio and a network of 39 theatres in 25 cities will carry the show on a theatre-TV closed circuit.

George Gainford, Robinson's manager, hinted that might be expected from Robinson if he wins.

"Is there any chance Ray might give up the light-heavy title, if he wins it?" he was asked.

"He might retire and give them both up," said "Emperor" George. "Then they could run two tournaments."

Second Stage In Ladies Golf Competition

The second stage of the President's match was played yesterday at Belvedere Links by members of the Ladies Branch of the Charlottetown Golf Clubs. Mrs. Noel DeBlois and Mrs. A. G. MacMillan tied for top place, with 9 1-2 points each.

Other contestants and their points were as follows:

Miss Nora Longworth	8
Mrs. W. MacNeill	7
Mrs. G. W. Wood	6
Mrs. G. H. Buntain	5
Mrs. Stuart Weir	4
Mrs. M. A. Howatt	3

The third stage is scheduled for Thursday.

out of the cellar.

Vella-La-Vella, the black pacing mare so well known to Island racing fans, won two heats last Saturday night at the opening races of the Sydney Sports Centre. Vella, who is now owned by Art Lipton and driven by Joe MacDonald stepped the first mile in 2:12 2/5 and went the second mile in 2:13 4/5. In both heats The Wilkin finished second to Vella. Redwood Gratton, Cylonic and Ohio Hal also took part in the race.

Speaking of Frank Bathgate brings to mind a report out of Ontario about his younger brother Andy. The younger Bathgate was captain of the Memorial Cup winners last season and one of their best forwards. Since then he has gone to New York for an operation on his knee. The knee is now on the mend but Bathgate has been ordered to take it easy for the summer. He will report to the Rangers camp this fall and is regarded as a good prospect for the New York club.

This evening out at Memorial Field the Intermediate Abbies will be trying for their first two points of the season at the expense of their young brethren the Junior Abbies. The last time these two teams met the juniors won by an 8-7 score. A win tonight for the juniors would lift them into second place in the league while a win for the Intermediates could take them

Joe O'Brien Drives Winners

WESTBURY, N. Y., June 23 (CP)—Little Joe O'Brien of Alberton, P. E. I., drove two winners tonight at the Roosevelt Raceway. O'Brien retained due date to win in the first race, the $2,500 mile pace and repeated in the seventh race, the $2,500 trot event, with Dinner Date.

Charlie Barrett won the $3,500 Levittown pace with a length victory over Paige Direct. Symbol Chance placed third.

Local Boxer In Split Decision At Halifax

HALIFAX, June 23 (CP)—Richard (Kid) Howard's furious slugging in the early rounds earned him an unanimous decision over Filiberto Osairo of New York in the main event of a boxing show here tonight.

Howard, Maritime lightweight champion, grew arm-weary in the closing rounds and the ring-wise Puerto Rican found him an easy target.

Osairo, at 127 1/2, was two pounds lighter than his opponent, rusty after a year's lay-off because of laundice.

There were no knockdowns.

Hans Baehofer of New Glasgow, Maritime amateur lightweight champion making his professional debut, won a split decision over Benny Delorenzo of Sydney.

Baehofer, veteran of 150 fights in his native Germany, scored heavily in the first four rounds. Delorenzo, a heavy puncher, opened a cut over his eye in the first round.

Don Trainor of Charlottetown scored enough points through boxing skill in the first three rounds to win a split decision over Jerry Fraser of Bridgewater, N.S.

In a four-round preliminary, Ray Jefferson of Bridgewater won an unanimous decision over Ossie Grosse, Halifax.

Cards Wallop Royals 18-4 In C.B.L. Final

The Cardinals kept alive their chances of winning the City Bantam League title yesterday evening when they hammered out an 18-4 win over the Royals in the third game of the C.B.L. finals. The Royals now lead the series two games to one.

MacQuarrie of the Cards hurled a three hitter against the Royals and was in control of the situation all the way. Roger MacLeod started for the Royals but was knocked out in the third inning. He was replaced by Jackie Kane who also received rough treatment from the Redbirds.

Jim MacDougall and "Smelt" Gillis led the Cardinals onslaught. MacDougall collected five hits, including a home run while Gillis came through with four hits. Steele got a double for the Royals.

The fourth game in the best of five series will be played Wednesday evening on the Old Diamond at 5:30.

Dairy Nine Hold Top Position In Softball League

The strong Sunshine Island Dairy Softball team with four wins against no defeat—lead the City Softball League at the half way mark of the first section.

A close second to the dairymen are the Basilia Youth Club with three wins and one defeat for six points. The Liguorian Youth Club hold down third place with four points while the Guardian Angels and the Maritime Electric are tied for fourth place with three points.
