Blueshirts Trip Maple Leafs 5-3

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Rangers, though badly outplayed in the second period and portions of the first, got two goals from their No. 4 line Sunday night and pulled out a 5-3 National Hockey League victory over Toronto Maple Leafs.

It was the first victory in three starts for Rangers this season and the first loss for the Stanley Cup champion Leafs.

The New York line of Ken Schinkel, Tem Hampson and Vic Hadfield — which produced only 14 goals all of last season —fanned in two in the last half of the opening period as Rangers came from behind a 1-0 deficit and built a 3-1 advantage that held the rest of the way.

Hampson started it at 10:04 of the first. Camile Henry added another a couple of minutes later and Schinkel ran it to 3-1 at 16:20.

Leafs, who outshot the Rangers 16-3 in the middle period, closed it up to 3-2 in that session on Bob Nevin's goal, but a pair by New York's Jean Ratelle and Al Langlois put it out of danger in the last period.

Toronto defenceman Bob Baun scored Leafs first and final goals, his second and third of the season.

Over - all, Toronto goalie Johnny Bower was credited with only 21 saves, while New York's Gump Worsley kicked out 34.

WINS LEGION TOURNEY

Freeman Miles captured top honors in the annual Royal Canadian Legion tournament at the Charlottetown Golf Club over the weekend emerging with a 36-hole net score of 141. George Vessey finishing runner-up with 142. Dave Clarkson of Montague was third with Bill O'Rourke fourth and Gerald Burgoyne fifth. Low gross went to Bill Beer with 149 and the 18-hole winner was Ivan Vessey. Green Bay Retains Unblemished Record

NEW YORK (CP) — Even without the services of Paul Hornung, Green Bay Packers maintained the National Football League's only unblemished record Sunday by trouncing Minnesota Vikings 48-21 on the accurate passing of quarterback Bart Starr.

Starr, completing 21 of 29 passes while league scoring leader Hornung was on the bench with a twisted right ankle, threw for three touchdowns and gained 296 yards in the air as the defending NFL kingpins remained out front in the Western Conference with a 5-0 record.

At the same time, Washington Redskins boosted their eastern conference lead by gaining a 17-17 tie with St. Louis Cardinals on Bob Khayat's 29-yard field goal with 13 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh Steelers pulled into a tie for second place with New York Giants, turning two pass interceptions and a fumble recovery into 17 points and a 20-17 triumph over the Giants. The Steelers and Giants are tied with 3-2 records.

LIONS EDGE RAMS

Detroit Lions remained a game back of Green Bay in the Western sector as Milt Plum moved the Lions toward their only touchdown with his passing and kicked two field goals for a 13-10 triumph over Los Angeles Rams.

Elsewhere in the NFL, Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards as Dallas Cowboys walloped Philadelphia Eagles 41-19; Baltimore Colts posted 23 points before Cleveland Browns got a first down and beat the Browns 36-14; and an 80-yard John Brodie to Jim Johnson touchdown pass gave San Francisco 49ers a 34-27 victory over Chicago Bears.

In the American League, Gene Mingo scored 17 points as Denver Broncos took over first place in the West from Dallas Texans with a 23-21 comeback over winless Oakland Raiders. George Blanda passed for six touchdowns and paced Eastern leader Houston to a league scoring record in 56-17 rout over New York Titans.

The Broncos now are 5-1 to 4-1 for the Texans, who beat Boston 27-7 Friday night. Buffalo belted San Diego Chargers 35-10 Saturday.

SCORE FIRST WIN

The triumph was Buffalo's first in six games. The Bills scored in each period, with quarterback Warren Rabb and fullback Cookie Gilchrist providing the fireworks on coach Lou Saban's 41st birthday.

Rabb threw three touchdown passes, including one to Glenn Bass that went for 76 yards in the second quarter.

Gilchrist, who roared for 121 yards in 25 carries, plunged one yard for a touchdown and grabbed a nine-yard pass from Rabb for another.

Hornung scored the first Packer touchdown on a three-yard run and kicked the conversion running his point-total for 62 before he twisted his ankle in the first quarter. He sat out the rest of the game. Starr passed 15 and 55 yards to Max McGee and 18 to Boyd Dowler for touchdowns while overcoming a stubborn Vikings' offence that rolled up the most points scored against Green Bay this season.

The Redskins built a 14-3 lead going into the final quarter on a 38-yard touchdown toss from Norm Snead to Bobby Mitchell anu a two-yard scoring dash by Bill Barnes. Quarterback Charley Johnson then engineered two last-quarter scores that put the Cardinals in front 17-14. But Sond and Mitchell connected for a 36-yard pass that brought Khayat in range for his field goal.

SAM JUST A KICKER

Sam Etcheverry sat out the St. Louis-Washington game except to punt and hold the ball for two extra points and two field goal attempts. One field goal was successful. Etcheverry punted five times for a 41.4-yard average.

The Steelers got moving behind Bobby Layne following an interception and scored again after a fumble recovery. The key play, however, was a pass interception by Clendon Thomas of a pitch by Giants' quarterback Y. A. Tittle in the fourth quarter that led to Lou Michaels' second field goal, accounting for the winning margin.

Johnny Unitas turned in an effective performance for the Colts, completing 18 of 31 pitches for 225 yards and three touchdowns.

Wings Defeat Habs 3-1; Parker MacDonald Knots 2

DETROIT (AP) — Parker MacDonald fired two goals Sunday night as Detroit Red Wings outskated and defeated Montreal Canadiens 3-1 and went into first place in the National Hockey League.

MacDonald, a veteran from Sydney, N.S., who won a reprieve from the minors by his showing in training camp, now has three goals in Detroit's three games this season.

He ended nearly 24 minutes of scoreless play with his first goal early in the second period and scored an insurance tally midway through the final period and a tie in its three games and leads the NHL by one point over surprising Boston Bruins.

Rookie Alex Faulkner of Bishop's Falls, Nfld., scored late in the second period, lifting Detroit to a 2-0 margin. Claude Provost scored for Montreal 48 seconds later.

Terry Sawchuk turned in an acrobatic job in the Detroit goal, turning aside three Montreal breakaways and saving on 26 shots. Sub goalie Cesare Maniago had 41 saves in the Canadien nets.

ICE SOFT

The temperature was more than 70 degrees in Olympia Stadium and the ice was slightly soft.

But the action was fast, especially in the scoreless first period when referee Eddie Powers handed out three minor penalties to each club.

MacDonald opened the scoring just 41 of the middle stanza. Gordie Howe dug the puck out from behind the net and fed it to MacDonald, standing alone in the right faceoff circle. He whizzed a rising, waisthigh 20-footer past Maniago's outstretched left glove.

Faulkner, New foundland's only NHL player, scored his first league goal on a fluke at 17:47, sending the Wings ahead to a short-lived 2-0 lead. Faulkner was behind the net and rolled the puck out on an attempted pass. The puck hit Maniago's right skate and trickled behind the masked goalie into the Montreal goal.

CUT LEAD IN HALF

The Canadiens cut Detroit's lead in half less than a minute after Faulkner's goal, Provost scored at 18:35 on a deflection of Jean Guy Talbot's shot from the blue line. Provost hit the puck in mid-air right in front of Sawchuk.

MacDonald upped Detroit's lead to 3-1 at 12:17 of the third period. Doug Barkley shot from the defence and Maniago stopped it but MacDonald pushed in the rebound.

Sawchuk was lucky in the first period when Gilles Tremblay broke away with Bernie Geoffrion. Tremblay took the shot and it hit the post, falling behind Sawchuk. But the goalie dove and smothered the puck as it was about to roll into the net.

Sawchuk's other saves on breakaways were on Red Berenson and Billy Hicke.

Bruins Draw With Hawks

BOSTON (AP) — A 25-foot billiard shot by defenceman Doug Mohns rallied the unbeaten Boston Bruins to a 2-2 National Hockey League tie with Chicago Black Hawks Sunday night.

Mohns' slap shot did a double carom off Black Hawks' defenceman Al MacNeil and the sudden change of direction caught goalie Glenn Hall off guard as the puck also glanced off him.

The Bruins came back from a 2-0 deficit against the Stanley Cup finalists, who have yet to win this season in three starts.

Don McKenneedy scored for the Bruins late in the second period on a shot from an acute left angle. Hall, apparently thinking the Bruins captain was going to pass, was caught off guard and watched the blazing lift shot glance off his back into the net.

After a scoreless first period Chicago broke loose for a 2-0 bulge on tallies by Chico Maki and Bill Hay.

Boston's little round man, goalie Bobby Perreault, had a busy last two periods and wound up with 26 saves to 15 for Hall.

SUMMARY

Mar. Horses Race At Salem

SALEM, N.H. (CP) — Willie's Adios, owned by W. Eric and Harry Whebby of Dartmouth, N.S., and driven by Dave Pinkney, finished fourth in a class pace Saturday night at Rockingham Park. Chockoyotte Rebel was the winner in 2:05.2.

Bob Brook, owned by Donald R. MacKenzie of Glace Bay, N.S., finished third in a B1 pace. Driver Andy Foster, scoring from the second spot held that position until the half, then dropped back to third at the three-quarter pole. Election Day finished first in 2:04.2.

After leading for three quarters of a mile, Borderview Buddie, scoring from the five spot for driver Dave Pinkney, dropped back in the stretch to finish fifth in a race won by Mr. Arthur in 2:10.3. Borderview Buddie is owned by the Whebby Stable.

BLANK HALIFAX ORIOLES 3-0

Charlie Ryan's Abbies Cop Mar. Midget Title

Charlottetown Abbies, coached by Charlie Ryan, became the first Island team to win a Maritime Midget baseball crown when they defeated Halifax Orioles 3-0 in a sudden-death game for the three-province championship at Springhill, Nova Scotia yesterday.

Pitcher Billy Weatherbie was once again the hero, tossing a 2-hitter at the Orioles, last year's Maritime Midget champs. Weatherbie also ran up a string of 14 strikeouts in eliminating the N.S. club.

Coach Ryan said last night "I had been wanting to see how the team would react under pressure and they were just terrific." The game was still scoreless going into the seventh inning but then as the Abbie coach put it, "The Orioles started to wilt under the pressure."

The Abbies were unbeaten this year, having sidelined Summerside for the Island crown and then St. Stephen Firemen for the N.B.-P.E.I. championship. Weatherbie also pitched both games against St. Stephen which the Abbies won by identical 11-1 scores.

Coach Ryan said the Halifax pitcher who worked yesterday's game, had an 11-1 won-loss record going into the contest but the local Midgets got to him for eight hits, all singles.

The Abbies counted two runs in the seventh, Weatherbie's single with two men on and a catching error by the Halifax catcher enabling two runners to cross the plate. They counted their other run in the eighth.

Final Card Goes Tonight

The final race program of the season, rained out Saturday night, has been rescheduled to this evening and race classifier Frank 'Duck' Acorn has lined up a real good card to close out the season.

The heaters will also be out to keep the fans warm one Driving Park spokesman said last night.

Betting fans will have difficulty picking a winner in each and every dash as the entries appear evenly matched.

The main event will see Ray Grattan Up, Helen's Dream, Blue Sky Lark, Jolly Abb and Scottish Light vying for honors. Blue Sky Lark, owned by Col. Dan and driven by Emmett 'Cowboy' Fulton owned by Helen's Dream, will be out to capture the major slice of the $250 purse.

Close finishes and thrilling drives are anticipated in each of the night dashes.

Races get underway at 8 o'clock sharp.

Mounties Blank Axemen 53-0

SACKVILLE, N.B. (CP) — Mount Allison Mounties trampled Acadia Axemen 53-0 in Atlantic Football Conference action here Saturday.

The win was the second in four starts for the Mounties who dropped 2-0 and 27-7 decisions to Shearwater and St. Francis Xavier before topping the Dunstans 2-0 in their third try.

The Mounties got all their scoring from three men. Former halfback Dick Bird, is converted to fullback, hit for 23 points on three touchdowns and five converts to pace the attack.

Mike Norcott, shifted from defence to run out of Black's old halfback spot, got a trio of majors while rookie Dave McLeron caught two passes for touchdowns.

The Axemen were unable to get an offence going although all three quarterbacks, Gary Merrill, Keith Caldwell and Rae Clark took turns calling the shots. They managed only 77 yards along the ground.

Acadia's lone scoring thrust was stymied on the Mounties one yard line at the beginning of the second quarter and from then on they didn't present a real threat.

SLASHED PRICES ON USED DIGGERS, PICKERS AND COMBINES

Again, we have slashed our prices on used potato machinery. The slaughter sale of used equipment last week cleared away a great deal of diggers and harvesters, but we have been trading high and find that each sale brings in another piece of equipment so that we still have used potato equipment on hand.

This will be our last sale of used potato machinery this year, and will continue throughout the coming week. After that, it will be over until next year.

This is your opportunity to get good, used equipment at greatly reduced prices.

Write, phone or call on us for your requirements.
