Opening lead—king of hearts. Back in 1934, Louis H. Watson, outstanding bridge star, wrote a book on the play of the cards. It was widely acclaimed as one of the finest bridge books ever written. A marvel of simplicity, the passage of time has not disturbed its stature in the field of bridge literature.

Watson died the following year at the age of 29. The book went out of print many years ago and became a collector's item in great demand.

It has just been reissued under the title of Watson's Classic Book on the Play of the Hand at Bridge. Edited by Sam Fry, Jr., one of Watson's closest friends. © 1958, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

U.K. Threat Of Rail Strike Has Vanished

LONDON (Reuters) — The threat of a rail strike that would have stopped every train in the country vanished Thursday night.

Leaders of the biggest rail union, the 370,000-strong National Union of Railwaymen, finally accepted a three-per-cent pay increase offered them by the British Transport Commission, which runs the nationalized railways.

Two smaller unions, representing 80,000 workers, already had agreed to the increase, to take effect June 30. The NUR said no to the offer, then changed its stand Thursday when the transport commission maintained this token raise was all the financially-hit system could afford at present. The unions originally had sought a 10-per-cent increase.

To strike-hit London, the rail settlement was especially good news. A rail strike would have shut down London's intricate subway system, only form of public transport left for Londoners since 50,000 bus workers went on strike 11 days ago.

NO SIGN OF END

The bus strike showed no signs of ending as Londoners continued to walk, hitch-hike and pack the subway trains. A decision Thursday by the striking Transport and General Workers' Union to increase strike pay by 50 per cent helped to ensure that the strike will continue.

Railway To Abandon Line

PARRSBORO, N. S. (CP)—Officials here and in Springhill, N. S., expressed disappointment Thursday in the board of transport commissioners' decision to allow the Cumberland Railway and Coal Company to abandon its 27-mile railway line between the two towns.

Parrsboro board of trade president Donald Matthews said it is disappointing because the district was showing signs of an economic upswing.

"I see this as a definite backward step," he said.

The board's decision orders abandonment of the line before June 13 this year. The towners, Dominion Steel and Coal corporation, told the board in March the railway company lost $504,000 operating the line between 1950 and 1957.

A five-man train crew and about 10 other employees are directly affected by the decision. No announcement concerning their future has been made.

Mayor Ralph Gilroy of Springhill and Parrsboro Mayor George Graham were unavailable for comment.

Presbyterian W.M.S. Meets

The president, Mrs. E. L. Walker conducted the May meeting of the W.M.S. of the Summerside Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon in the church parlour. The call to worship was followed by the singing of a hymn and a prayer was offered by Mrs. Cleve Whalen. Miss Ione Ellis read the Scripture lesson and Mrs. Hilbert Johnstone gave the meditation entitled "A mother's gratitude."

The offering was dedicated by Mrs. Alfred Simpson. Mrs. Donald Baker and Mrs. Wyman Birch were appointed for visiting committee for this month.

The nominating committee, Miss Jean MacFadyen, Mrs. R. W. Wood, and Mrs. Eric MacKay was appointed to bring in a new slate of officers for the coming year.

During the study period the president, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Gorriell, reviewed part of the study "Back in Japan" after which an interesting article entitled "The s.m.a. 111 Protestant Church at the Brussels World Fair" was read by Mrs. Walker. Closing hymn Jesus Shall Reign followed by Mizpah benediction, closed the meeting.
