Pallbearers were Joseph D. Arsenault, Fidele Arsenault, Louis Arsenault, Edgar Arsenault, Melvin Gallant and Gerard Arsenault. Interment was in Egmont Bay cemetery.

NEAR FATALITY—A near drowning fatality occurred at Alberton Sunday afternoon, July 27th, when Clifford Gavin, nine-year-old son of Mr. Daniel Gavin, went out beyond his depth to the edge of the channel, while swimming with a group of children, and disappeared from view. His young cousin, Betsy Shepherd of Saint John, N. B. heard his cries for help and called to the adults who were on the shore. Mr. John Gavin swam out to where he had disappeared and managed to bring the unconscious boy ashore and applied artificial respiration. He was taken to his home near by and Dr. J. P. Kelly summoned. Although suffering from shock, he is reported as resting comfortably at his home.

Let's Talk It Over by "d" Tourists sometimes complain of the roughness of our roads, the dust nuisance, and a few other minor defects of our island accommodation, but if you pin them down to it, most of them will admit that the advantages of spending a vacation here far outweigh the disadvantages. One of the most important considerations in people's vacation plans is just how gentle or severe the impact of vacation spending is going to be on that modest roll of long green. And compared with other summer resorts Prince Edward Island undoubtedly gives more in service and accommodation for what the tourist has to pay.

When a person who is leading an active, busy life is suddenly ordered by his physician to go to bed and remain there indefinitely, the problem of adjusting himself to the new situation must be a difficult one. A sense of frustration must threaten to overwhelm all but the bravest spirits in such a circumstance. If he could pursue some sort of hobby or study which would appeal to him, and yet not exact too much physical or mental effort for whatever ails him, he might look forward to each new day with something akin to enthusiasm.

Czech Wonder Runner Invited To Visit The U.S. HELSINKI, July 28 (AP)—Emil Zatopek, Czechoslovakia's wonder distance runner, was invited today to run in the United States.

Whether or not he comes depends on negotiations that opened today between Dan Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the United States Amateur Athletic Union, and the amateur sports governing body of Czechoslovakia.

Zatovek previously received three invitations to the United States but turned them down, said Ferris. Zatopek is the holder of the 1952 Olympic, having accomplished the incredible feat of winning the 5,000 and 10,000 metres and the marathon, all in Olympic record time.

Plan "Monkey" Competition At S'side Golf Club The games committee of the Summerside Golf and Country Club has lined up some further interesting competitions for the members of the club tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon. A monkey competition will be the order of the day, and there will also be an afternoon tea. All members will doubtless make a special effort to be on hand for this attractive entertainment.

Sport Echoes From Prince County Anyone who had his last penny on either the C. & B. or R.C.A.F. in their game on Sunday would have passed out long before that hectic contest was over. Twice the Curranites had the game sewed up with scores of 9-4 and 12-9, and half an inning to go, but each time something ripped. The Airforce had as many lives as a cat, but the nine counters the construction crew came up with in the eleventh inning would have broken any team's spirit.

Defensively the R.C.A.F. infield gets our nod as the best inner defence in the Island League. They have a fairly large edge on the C. & B. quartet and we doubt if there is an infield in Charlottetown comparable to them. True, they committed five bobbles on Sunday but their dashing, hit-robbing plays in between the miscemore than made up for them. In fact, it is our opinion the Royals plus one or two more dependable pitchers would take the Island League.

It's a foolish pastime, perhaps, saying what would happen, if—No doubt all the other teams also have some pet "ifs" that would make them a shoo-in for the title.

Feeling was running pretty high in that eleven inning game and with victory popping in and out of a team's grasp like a yo-yo, who could blame the boys for getting a bit testy. The pent-up feelings burst forth when Bill Green came hurtling into third base, where Coke Grady was holding the fort. Coke, a keen disciple of baseball's Emily Post, didn't think Green came into the sack with the proper decorum, so the boys tangled. Others came rushing to the scene and a rhubarb of major proportions developed.

Green and Grady are both good, hard-fighting kids, and they've probably forgotten all about the incident by now. They were banished as banished they deserved to be, and that should be the end of that. Johnny Carroll got chased for protesting that Maurice Cannon (Maurie Cannon's) role in the fracas was as peacemaker. The umpire contended that Maurice clipped someone a playful tap on the back of the head. Could be. You know the hockey peacemakers who keep shouting "break it up, boys," and at the same time are giving some player the butt-end of their stick in the ribs.

This Johnny Carroll is a fine, likeable chap, and has made a lot of friends in Summerside, both for his hustle as a coach, and his friendly disposition. We're glad to see that spark that makes good ball players. We're not saying the umpire was wrong. We have to commend Joe Hunter, in fact, for insisting on being the boss so courageously. But Johnny was in there fighting for his kids, and most of the best coaches in the big time get thrown out of the park occasionally.

The gorgeous girls of George Guergis are losing their coach just after winning their first ball game. Laysh Schurman who seemed to be whipping the maroon clad cuties into a real ball club, has left to work in Sydney, N.S. So the girls will be looking for a new coach. Don't shove, fellows. Just line up on the right, and wait your turn.

We wish Laysh luck in his new work in Sydney. He's been a good winter he should find no trouble getting into some hockey line-up. Bobby Gay is also there. Those two boys might team up and make a first-rate defence for some lucky team.

White Sox In Player Deal CHICAGO, July 28 (AP)—Chicago White Sox today acquired outfielder Jim Rivera and catcher Darrell Johnson on waivers from St. Louis Browns and sold outfielder Ray Coleman to the Browns.

The transaction also involved sale to the Browns of catcher J.W. Porter by Memphis, a White Sox farm club, and optioning of catcher Bud Sheely to Memphis by the Sox.

The transaction was strictly a waiver deal, involving the minimum $10,000 price for each major league player involved, the White Sox said. June 15 was the trading deadline.

Aeneas Cubs In 12-8 Win Over Aces Aeneas' Cubs defeated Andy's Aces at the Recreation Centre softball diamond last evening by the score of 12-8. The Cubs out-hit the sea foods nine bingles to seven. Julie Meikle struck out two Cubs and Shirley Arsenault whiffed one Ace. Meikle walked four to Arsenault's three. Marie Peters and Joyce Enman led the Aces hitters, getting two hits apiece, and Marcia Delaney, Louise Gallant and Betty Gay each got a pair of bingles. Linnie Gallant and Shirley Perry of the Aces stickers, getting two hits for extra bases, both getting doubles. Rose Gaudet of the Cubs made two good catches in left field.
