NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The Halifax Herald closes an article treating of the financial condition of this province with the following remark: There never yet was a grit government in Canada—federal, provincial or civic—that did not increase the expenditure, increase the taxation, and increase the debt. The grit government of P. E. Island is only doing on a smaller scale what the wretched grit combination in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick are doing, and what the Tarte crowd at Ottawa are doing on a most expensive scale.
