

N.Y. Racing Ass'n Runs Big Doubleheader Today

By JOHN CHANDLER
NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Racing Association is running a $200,000 doubleheader at Aqueduct today with split divisions of the Man O' War Handicap each endowed with $100,000.

This initial running of the stakes honoring America's most famous thoroughbred should be remembered if for no other reason that never before has a racing association doubled the added money.

Billy Hunter Halts Tony Anthony

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Hunter, a fast-rising newcomer in the heavy weight ranks, stopped lanky Tony Anthony in 1:04 of the seventh round Friday night at Madison Square Garden. Referee Arthur Mercante stepped between the two men as Hunter was raining punches on an exhausted Anthony, trapped in his own corner. Anthony weighed 181½, Hunter 193 pounds.

When the names of 23 horses, most of them grass course specialists, were entered Friday, the split was on. It had been expected for several days. Eleven were drawn in the first division, with the Cain Hoy Stable's Bald Eagle topweighted and the probably favorite under 126 pounds. The second choice is Mr. Tilyou Christopher's Amerigo with 121.

Second Division
Twelve went into the second division, where Mrs. Hebert Herff's Tudor Era has high weight of 124 pounds. However, Cain Hoy, owned by Capt. Henry F. Guggenheim, may also have the favorite again with One-Eyed King, carrying 120 pounds. Prince Aly Khan's Sollymount, an Irish-bred three-year-old colt who was flown here from England, adds a degree of uncertainty to the second division. Sollymount has 116 pounds, and will be ridden by Australian jockey George Moore.

Billy MacMillan Is Good Prospect

TORONTO (CP)—Turk, Broda, coach of the Toronto Marlboros of the Ontario Hockey Association, favor of Hunter. Referee Arthur Mercante gave Anthony the third round. Judge Leo Birnbaum gave him the fourth and judge Mike Davidovich the sixth. The AP card voted only the fourth to Anthony and the rest to Hunter.

Harry Markson, director of boxing at Madison Square Garden, said he expected to pair Hunter with Miteff in a rematch Nov. 27. Hunter had stopped Miteff on cuts in Syracuse in September.

BILLY MACMILLAN
tion, said Friday 16-year-old Billy MacMillan of Charlottetown is a "good looking prospect" for the team.

Broda said that MacMillan, who played a few games with Marlboros, has a "good chance" to make the Junior A team but it is not definite yet.

Boxer's Purse Won't Be Held

MONCTON (CP)—The eight-member Moncton boxing and wrestling committee said Thursday night it was not considering holding the purse of young Beau Jack of Boston, defeated earlier by Von Durelle, British Empire light heavyweight champion.

The commission held two closed hearings after the fight, which ended in a ninth-round TKO for Durelle, of Baie Ste. Anne, N. B.

Percy Clarke, commission chairman, said the meetings were held to "get a full report from the referee and physician of the fight." No other details were released.

Jack, 22, had a slight lead on points when Durelle knocked him out. Referee Bob Edgett told reporters the punch that sent Jack down for the third knockout in the ninth round was "only a grazing blow." Durelle had his opponent down six times in the fight, including three in the ninth.

There is no three-knockout rule in Canada.

Canadiens Recall J. C. Tremblay

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Canadiens Friday announced the call of rookie defenceman Jean-Claude Tremblay to replace injured Bob Turner.

The club also announced that veteran goalie Gerry McNeil, one-time regular before the advent of Jacques Plante, has signed a contract.

Turner suffered a bone fracture in his right foot during Thursday night's National Hockey League game with Chicago Black Hawks, won by Canadiens 4-1.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

A big sale of speed is taking place at Blue Bonnets Raceway, Montreal; it started yesterday afternoon at two o'clock and is expected to finish this afternoon. A total of 117 trotters and pacers will be offered. Among them were: Chivalry 2:05 1-5; Brave-way, t. 2:07 and p. 2:10; Sampson Girl 3, 2:03, record taken this year; The Boxer, p. 2:05; and dozens of others with good records.

There is also a number of well-bred young trotters and pacers, and older mares with good records that will be valuable for the brood mare ranks. The 115th on the list is Anti-Air Craft 2:05 1-5. We presume this horse was sired by Anti-Aircraft, 3, 2:03, record taken on a mile track, that was raced in the Maritimes for several years. In the sires and dams book for 1958, he is shown as the sire of two trotters and six pacers in the list, with three of them having records of between 2:05 2-5 and 2:07 2-5.

We had a visit from F. R. MacLaine, whom we always call "The Iron Man" because he thinks nothing of seating himself in one of his beautiful Plymouths and taking off for Montreal, New York, or other distant scenes, at a moment's notice.

The writer, whose capacity for driving a car has changed to moderate distances, can't understand how Rankine always looks so fresh and rested after these trips. Just a few days ago he returned from Blue Bonnets, Montreal, where Mighty Lee 2:03 4-5, (the track record-breaker) was performing. Just about an hour before his class was called, there was a real downpour of rain which made the track slippery. Mighty Lee was right with the tops racing to the wire at the finish when he suddenly slipped and the driver had to take him back, which prevented him from placing in the money.

Rankine found out afterwards that the other leaders in the race had changed the shoes on their horses by putting on shoes with calks, which prevented slipping. A rainstorm on our tracks wouldn't make the same difference, as our clay does not get as slippery, and a race program here would be called off under the conditions in which they race sometimes at Montreal.

WESTERN START
A despatch from Inglewood, California, states that Jamin, France's great trotting champion, will make his first Western start there today in the first leg of the $75,000 American Trotting Classic at Hollywood Park.

The six-year-old trotter from France was unbeaten in his starts in the United States this season, winning the $50,000 International Trot and the $50,000 American Trotting Championship. In his start in California, Jamin's opposition will come from such top American trotters as Charming Barbara; Senator Frost, that was heading Jamin at Roosevelt in the American Trotting Championship but made a break near the wire; and Darn Safe.

At Rockingham Park, New Hampshire, Monday night, Licking Time, owned by H. M. Sweezy, Bridgewater, N.S., won the "C" Pace, purse $800, in 2:11. The fastest time made during the night was in the "B" Pace, purse $1,100, which was won by Miss Prue Hal, time 2:07.

At Sackville Downs Monday night, Races 1 and 4 were as follows: Hamilton Lady (E. Smith) 2:12, Slow Poke (S. Daniels) 2:11, The Colonel C. (D. Pinkney) 3:3, five other starters, time 2:12 4-5 and 2:14 1-5; Hamilton Lady owned by Mrs. Keith Thomas, Halifax, and Slow Poke owned by F. Daniels, Truro, and C. A. Piper, Halifax.

Races 2 and 6 — Blake Hanover (J. Chappell) 1-1, Baker

(D. Ratchford) 2-2, Little Deb (R. Johnston) 3-5, Windy June (E. Bernard) 6-3, four other starters, time 2:13, 2-5 and 2:13; winner owned by Stanley Mayhew, Kinkora, P. E. I. Races 3 and 7—Mighty Green (D. Ratchford) 1-4, Miss Wilma Dale (E. Bernard) 6-1, Direct Mile (E. Morse) 3-2, Dominator Pick (D. Pinkney) 2-3, four others, time 2:11 1-5 and no time given for the seventh race because of a collision between Peter Federal and Betty French that mixed things up. Fortunately, there were no injuries to either drivers or horses.

Mighty Green is owned by Byron Kennedy, Halifax, and Miss Wilma Dale by W. G. Barbour, Charlottetown.

Race 5 — Mighty Again (J. Balloch) 1, Chaldale Comet (C. Smith) 2, Jean's Pride (G. Mauer) 3, five other starters, time 2:16 2-5; winner owned by John Balloch, Lower Sackville, N.S. Race 8 — Betty S. Belle (E. Haley) 1, Governor Boy (D. Ratchford) 2, Colonel Hansford (Yorker) 3, Joppa Maid (E. Shaw) 4, three other starters, time 2:20 4-5; winner owned by Ed Haley, Antigonish, N.S.

BLAKE GOING GOOD
Admirers of Blake Hanover must be pleased with the way he continues to end up in the No. 1 position, race after race. Perhaps a few words about him may be interesting. Prior to coming here in the year 1957, he was raced exclusively at Foxboro, was seven years old, and had taken a record as a five-year-old of 2:09 4-5. In ten starts (pacing) at that track in 1957, he had two firsts and two seconds, and won $485. He also started in trotting classes that year, having taken the above record as a five-year-old. Odds Are Against Argos Making Big Four Playoffs

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Toronto Argonauts, the sad sacks of the Big Four Football Union since 1956, are up to their old antics. They're trying to get into the three-team playoffs by their familiar end-of-season desperation drive.

The odds say the last-place Argonauts won't make it because the 14-game league schedule is running out on them. Furthermore, say the experts, they just aren't good enough. But a lot of screwy things have happened in the league this season and Argonauts can only hope for a miracle to get them into the post-season series.

Each team has a home-and-home series before the regular schedule winds up on Saturday, Oct. 31. Statisticians point out Argonauts can make the playoffs, but they'll need a lot of help from Hamilton Tiger-Cats, who already have clinched first place and a bye into the two-game total-point final.

Here is the point standing as the teams lined up for today's Toronto-Ottawa, Montreal-Hamilton games:
Hamilton 18 points; Ottawa 12; Montreal 10; Toronto 8.

The mathematical possibilities of a Toronto playoff berth are many. But one thing is certain: if Argonauts lose to the Rough Riders in Ottawa today and the Alouettes beat the Tiger-Cats, the Argos are finished for the fourth consecutive year.

The unbeaten University of Western Ontario Mustangs of Montreal are to meet the wireless McGill Redmen in one of the two Senior Intercollegiate games today. The second-place University of Toronto Blues are at home to third-place Queen's Golden Gaels.

Argonauts have lost their last three games and they are up against the Riders who have won their last four, including 9-7 and 17-16 decisions over the Tiger-Cats. At one time this year Rider fans were after coach Frank Clair's well-groomed scalp.

The team dropped its first five games and was well on the way to an also-ran finish. Riders suddenly perked up and proceeded to confound the sideline experts by winning six of their last seven games to vault into second place.

Medical Backs Up Robinson's Claim

NEW YORK (AP)—A commission medical examination has backed up Sugar Ray Robinson's statement that he was too ill to train for a fight at Madison Square Garden Nov. 13.

The New York-recognized middleweight champion had been scheduled to meet Willie Greaves of Detroit and Edmonton in a non-title 10-rounder. He withdrew from the bout on Oct. 15, claiming a virus infection prevented him from training.

The commission said Friday its physicians had examined Robinson last Monday and recommended that he be placed on the "ill and unavailable list."

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

DETROIT RED WINGS are continuing their merry pace in the National Hockey League. They have played six games to date and have grabbed five triumphs and managed a tie in their outings. Each time out the wise ones are expecting the roof to cave in but so far the Birds have only encountered success.

The Red Wings are not setting the world afire with their goal production. They have beaten the opposition only sixteen times and that amounts to 2.67 goals per contest. New York Rangers who have won only once in seven starts have a better than three goals-per-game average but they are lodged in the league basement.

Therefore, the Wings' success to date must be in their defensive tactics. In the half dozen games they have played, their goalie, Terry Sawchuk, has the amazing mark of only five discs slipping by him. This is far ahead of his nearest rival, Johnny Bower who draws his pay from the Toronto Maple Leafs. Johnny has been scored on 13 times in six games.

DETROIT is idle tonight but first place place will be at stake for them Sunday night when they entertain the Montreal Canadiens. After Montreal battles Boston tonight, the Canadiens will have played two more games than the Red Wings. A win over the Bruins would give the Blakemen 11 points, the same number the Detroiters now possess. That would make Sunday's game in the Motor City a first place battle.

Should the Canadiens fall victims to Boston tonight, it still means that the Montreal-Detroit clash tomorrow has first place flavor. If the Stanley Cup champions beat the Wings, then the two teams would be sharing the top rung of the NHL ladder. However, when the smoke of battle clears on the league front Sunday night the Red Wings will have a couple of games in hand on the Montrealers.

WE ARE CONVINCED the Canadiens will come through with a pair of victories this weekend, thus having them leading the pack by Monday morning. We don't expect that Sawchuk's personal lead will be taken from him but don't be a bit surprised if Canadiens give Terry a rough time Sunday night.

Boston Bruins could jump into second place in the standings, all tied up with the Canadiens but the combination needed looks a bit tough to us. The Bruins must defeat Toe Blake and company while New York Rangers are disposing of Toronto Maple Leafs. This is such a big order that we are not even considering it. Perhaps both the Bruins and Rangers will prove us deadwrong but we can't see either of them picking up even a single point tonight.

THAT LEAVES only one other weekend game to be considered and that one is Sunday night at New York when the slow-starting Black Hawks blow in from the Windy City. If the Rangers drop that one tonight to the Leafs, they will still trail Chicago entering tomorrow's battle. However, we are expecting the Rangers to leave the league basement in that encounter with the Black Hawks.

So there you have our weekend choices. They are Leafs over Rangers, Canadiens beating Bruins, Montreal upsetting Detroit and New York downing Chicago.

Let's see how we fare out on these four calls.

JIM PELRINE was handed a mighty huge task at Saint Dunstan's gridiron the other afternoon. He was sent in to play quarterback, a position that Gil Collins had handled for the Red and White, in the exhibition game with Prince of Wales a week earlier.

Trying to fill Gil's shoes is a mighty chore and we are not suggesting that Pelrine did that. However, he made a right smart job of his assignment and his Junior Varsity squad emerged victors over the Welshmen by a comfortable 31-6 margin.

On the sidelines helping Father Frank Ledwell with the coaching duties was Collins and he seemed about the most pleased man at the football game. Undoubtedly everything that Pelrine did wasn't perfect. Collins was watching him like a hawk and most of the time the Regina native looked happy about what was going on. But the greatest smile that Gil wore all afternoon was when Pelrine, apparently hopelessly trapped, completely fooled the PWC gang with a handoff to that speed merchant Basil Gillan for the prettiest major of the afternoon.

There were many who expressed the opinion that the Junior Varsity wouldn't beat the city collegians without Collins, whose who thought about those lines saw such a belief shattered Thursday. Perhaps Father Ledwell and Gil wanted to prove such believers all wrong and the man they selected to do the job was Jim Pelrine.

The young man certainly didn't let them down.

GEORGETOWN EAGLES and Tignish Aces are going to try once again to decide the provincial rural baseball champion. They have a date for Sunday afternoon at Memorial Field with starting time fixed for 2:15.

Each team owns one victory in this best-of-three series and tomorrow's victor grabs the glory. It's a pity either of these fine teams has to lose after the great displays they have given all season. But there's always a vanquished as well as a victor and this baseball series is no exception.

The teams have tried twice before to play this clincher but a combination of snow, rain and cold weather prevented the action from taking place. If the weather doesn't behave tomorrow, chances are the teams will decide to called a halt with everybody all even.

ALL GOOD THINGS come to an end and that includes the horse races at Charlottetown Driving Park.

This afternoon the curtain comes down on what certainly was the greatest year race fans had ever had in this province. We don't think anybody can recall racing at such a late date. Even after the grandstand burned, the boys didn't call a halt. Owners, drivers and race secretary Frank Acorn got together and worked out a plan of their own. They had loads of fun and so did the patrons.

But it ends today with as fine an eight-dash program as anyone could want. Just glance at the entries on this page and see for yourself what a great afternoon is in store for the cash customers.

Let's make this final card a really big one. Drop in at the CDP today for the final show. Starting time is 2 o'clock.
