

Hall Happenings

by Sean MacIntosh

Marian Hall has been active over the past week. With the memorial service for the National Week of Action and the singing of the Marian Aide Song for Joe Ghiz, it was indeed a busy time.

In the Service for the Underfunding of Education, the Marian Hallers all wearing their new hockey shirts and lead by the house Committee, followed the coffin containing the remains of "Ed" from the Pit to the Barn where a eulogy was given by the Rev. Barry Linkletter. Then came the Irish Wake where a number of Marian Hallers were taken to dancing and much revelry.

On Friday Joe Ghiz spoke in the Pit after which the Hallers, again wearing their spiffy new shirts, entertained the Premier and the students present by singing the Marian Aide Song. The superb event was covered by the CBC and the guys were shown on the news that evening.

Andrew (Nude) Selig, writer of the song, said that for anyone interested, the Marian Aide Video would be out soon and that "The Guys Form Marian" were going to sign a record deal any day now. The video, now in production, will star all of the members of the Hall and is being filmed in the Charlottetown area.

Last weeks House Party was a huge success with approximately 250 people in attendance. Due to overwhelming popularity Happy Hour, the bar was sold out by 11:00. The crowd loved the new D.J. (Joe Foster Easton) with his playing of Auld Lang Sine at midnight.

Marian would like to thank Derrick Webber for permitting a Residence Page in the Gem. We would also like to issue a welcome to the Bernadine and Residence Life Columns written by "US" and Bill Whelan, respectively. In the near future, we hope to soon see Marian Hall Comic Strip be done by Andrew (Nude) Selig.

Marian Hall Joke of the Week

Question: How does an engineer kill himself?
Answer: Picks his nose 'till his head caves in!

Residence-life committee

by Bill Whelan

The Residence-Life Committee is working hard this semester to organize activities that you that residents of UPEI want. We would like to see as many people get involved as possible. Presently, the committee is made up of Bill Whelan, Chairman; Cathy Ronahan, Janice Smith, and Darlene Llewellyn, Bernadine Hall Reps; Dave Valley and Dave Perry, Marian Hall Reps; Paula Gauthier and Mark McKellar, Blanchard Hall Reps; and Sharon Mullin, University official Rep.

Upcoming events include a Ski Trip to Brookvale on Friday, January 29, 1988. All residents who are interested, can meet the bus behind Marian Hall at 12:30 pm. The costs include $3.00 for the bus trip and $5.00 for skis, boots, and tow. We will be returning to Marian Hall at about 5:30 pm. Don't forget, the slopes are a great place to meet people.

Keep an eye on the Residence Column in the Gem for other events throughout the semester. If anyone has ideas for activities, please contact Bill Whelan at 566-0674 or any member of the committee. I look forward to meeting you.

The nuns get out
TLH, aka the Human Vacuum Cleaner, was seen in the company of one of the new residents of Marian Hall, and has left evidence of her work behind the turtle neck.

Clepty P. was seen being arrested for stealing hard-earned tips at Myron's by SH's invaluable "police cadet". Our compliments to the Police Academy for another job well done.

Meanwhile, another herd of the party animals did the Maritimes. Beginning with a quick tour of Moncton's afternoon life, the clan headed south to terrorize drinking establishments throughout Nova Scotia. BG settled on a tranquilized, moonlit tour throughout Halifax with her Shadow lurking several feet behind. LS chose to view the statue of the notorious porcelain goddess, between flashes of treacherous heaving.

KF, newest member of the Arby's family, resolved to bring a certain fraction of the Newfie dialect a little closer. "Reach out and touch someone, eh Kim!!!"

Welcome to the new edition of the Gem Family. We hope this makes your reading more enjoyable. Some upcoming events include our first excursion to Brookvale on Friday the 29th in conjunction with residence life. We invite everyone to accompany us on our ski trip as it has proven to be a GREAT TIME!! Just a reminder there are FREE movies shown in our main lounge every Wednesday night, except when there's a house party and our minds and bodies are elsewhere!!!!

Catch ya on the flip side back at the convent.
