

BRISTOL

Mrs. Mary Malone was a weekend visitor to the city, guest of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Patricia Grant. Mrs. Malone is teaching at Green Meadows.

Joe Sinnott, who says he has reached his pension age, 70 years, also says he and a young fellow have just completed cutting and hauling 40 cords of pulp wood along with his other duties as mall driver over a long route.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trainor have spent the winter months in the city owing to Mr. Trainor's poor health and the fact he is unable to work anymore.

Stories of a family of 17 in Upper Canada call attention to a Bristol couple, Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald, who have a family of 19 children. When Mrs. MacDonald did not bear one more child to fill their desire of 20 children they adopted one from the St. Vincent's orphanage in Charlottetown. Both hail and hearty, Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald now reside in the city. Mrs. MacDonald says she never had any electric appliances in her home and all the washing was done by hand on the wash board and no bakers' bread either. A double batch of bread was set every night and a bag of flour (98 pounds) was used up every week. They both say their large family was and still is their blessing as they come together every weekend for a party.

Geraldine O'Brien and Rosemarie O'Hanley, and Gerard O'Brien, were Sunday visitors here from the city.

Mrs. Connor O'Donahue and her three children, will arrive in Bristol early in June to spend the summer with Mrs. O'Donahue's mother, Mrs. Margaret Sinnott.

That large house in the Dundee section where a store was once operated is being torn down, along with another old house to make room for new ones.

The big house where the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McEwen resided many years ago has been cut down and re-modelled into a bungalow. This property was once one of the finest in this vicinity.

HER TAP YIELDED OIL.

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Police arrested Carmela de Bernardis, 37, Saturday and said: "When you turn on the water tap in her home, out comes pure high-test gasoline—gallons of it." They said they were looking for a half-dozen other persons who they believe helped her steal the gasoline from underground pipes that run almost beneath her house from a big oil refinery to the port.

With ADEQUATE WIRING you are not faced with added wiring costs when you buy that new appliance for your home.

ELECTRIC SERVICE LEAGUE OF P. E. I.

MacGILLIVRAY—In loving memory of my dear husband, Major Roy D. MacGillivray, who passed away June 15, 1964.

If I had all the world to give I'd give it, yes, and more To hear your voice and see you smile

And greet you at the door But all I can do, dear Roy Is go and tend your grave And leave behind tokens of love

To the best husband God ever made. I like to think, when life is done,

Wherever Heaven may be, That you'll be standing at the door Up there to welcome me.

Fondly remembered and sadly missed by wife Gip.
