

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM BOWEN
The Angel of Death, in the early hours of Easter Monday, April 7th, saddened Wheatley River and surrounding communities when it claimed for its own the gentle Christian spirit of the late Mrs. William Bowen in her ninety-first year.
The late Mrs. Bowen was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Toombs, Anglo Rustico, P.E.I. At a very early age she heard her Saviour's call and became a member of the Bungay Church at Wheatley River where she now lies sleeping until the glorious resurrection morning.
During her long life she exemplified her true sterling character as a true and loyal member of the church, as a kind and generous neighbour and loving and hardworking mother and helpmate of her husband and family, whom she patiently nursed through many years of sickness. Cherished memories will be retained as a devoted, kind and helpful friend by all who knew her.
With Christ as her ever present Comforter and Shepherd she bore her last painful sickness since before Christmas with patient Christian fortitude was never heard to murmur or complain.
The funeral service, despite the bad spring road conditions was largely attended and held in Wheatley River Church on Thursday afternoon, April 10. The services at the Church and grave were conducted by her beloved Pastor whom, after the death of her husband, by his kindly friendship and many acts of cheer and thoughtfulness endeared him to her as a loving son graciously cherished by her and family.
Rev. Mr. Nicholson was assisted by Rev. C. R. Moase. The hymns were beautiful and his text from Revelation of the White Robed Throng in the Heavens was inspirational and comforting to the bereaved family. Rev. Nicholson sang as a solo "Beyond the Sunset," accompanied by Mrs. Harold Chandler on the organ.
The pall bearers were Messrs James Wares, Harold Chandler, Phillip Matheson, Reagh Barrett, Theo Sellar and Raymond Ling.
All that remained of her pain wracked body was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery in the church yard beside her loving husband and daughter, Florence, who predeceased her many years ago.
She suffered several strokes and rallied until shortly before Christmas. She took to her bed suffering intense pain of a slow and incurable ailment until on the above date her Saviour whom she loved most dearly called her to her Heavenly Home. There shall be no pain there.
Those left to mourn who will cherish the memories of a beautiful Christian mother and sister, and grandmother are her daughter Muriel (Mrs. Earl Ling), Westmount, Montreal, who was with her mother nearing the end; her sons Morris of S'side, and Locksley of Wheatley River, Blois R. of South Sioux City, Nebraska, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Locksley Bowen; sister, Mrs. Lewis McCallum (Bessie), brothers, Fred Toombs of New Glasgow; Amos Toombs of Northboro, Mass., and Arthur Toombs of Cambridge, Mass.; also grandchildren, Donna Bowen; Robert R. Bowen, Allan Bowen and Mrs. Richard Fauts (Cathie Bowen) of U.S.A.; Myron and Earla Ling of York, P.E.I.; Joyce Ling of Montreal and Bonnel E. Ling of Climax, Saskatchewan; also several great-grandchildren.
The flower bearers of the many beautiful floral tributes were Orville Stead, John Ross, Howard Axworthy and John Ross. The many floral tributes and cards of sympathy testified to the esteem in which the late Mrs. Bowen was held.
