

Sport Echoes From Prince County

Congratulations to M. C. A. on their winning of the N. B. - P. E. I. intermediate baseball title. We saw the first game with Memramcook and what at first looked to be a run-away contest for Jimmy MacDonal's boys settled down to an even-temper contest that wasn't decided until the last man was out. We thought "Lefty" McAleer did a particularly fine job that afternoon, showing no signs of going to pieces when the pressure got really oppressive in the final inning.

C. & B. will be angling for their fifth game in the best-of-seven series at Queen Elizabeth Park today. The day promises to be fine but a good deal lower than the 80 degrees which New York is said to be enjoying for their World Series start. The low fifties is the best we can hope for in Summerside according to the weather prophets, but if people are dressed for it, there is no reason why baseball cannot be enjoyed at that temperature. Certainly large crowds sit in grandstands and watch football with the mercury considerably lower.

Jack Kearns is slated to go for the Curranites today, and the law of averages should give Jack a win if he's pitching the kind of ball he has pitched all summer. Jack has lost so many tough ones he should have won that he must be just about at the end of that hard luck trail. Bob Fougere, the "no-hit" boy will probably be on the mound for Lewisville. He let our boys down with no bingles, (one smash to third was very close and probably could have been called either way), in the first game at Lewisville, but the C. & B. batters point to the fact that they got four hits off him in two innings in the first game played in Summerside.

Maybe they have solved Fougere's Sunday pitch, and a good authority on the popular pastime has stated that Fougere has only this one pitch to solve. Once you get the hang of this delivery it should be easy to blast Fougere off the hill, this baseball sage remarks. Well, 2:30 this afternoon will begin to tell the tale of whether Fougere is the ace flinger the New Brunswick papers say he is.

Jim Hogan and Reg McLellan have met with pretty fair success in their initial attempt to organize an intermediate football team in Summerside. Fifteen candidates turned up for positions on the proposed team Monday evening, and hopes are high that the local promoters will be able to put together a team good enough to play in a league with the second St. Dunstan's team, Prince of Wales College, and a team from the local R.C.A.F. Such a four-team league has been mooted, and here's hoping the plan meets with success.

Annual S. School Convention At Cape Traverse

The annual Sunday School Convention of the South East Prince District was held in the United Church at Cape Traverse on Sept. 24.

The afternoon session was opened with a service of worship led by Rev. Lloyd Archer of the Tryon Pastoral Charge. Mr. Archer chose the convention theme "Be Ye Doers of the Word" as his subject. His message carried a challenge to each Christian worker. The word must be first hidden in the heart and then lived, if teaching is to be effective.

President Mrs. Raymond Wood introduced the convention leader, Rev. L. M. Murray of Kensington. Following the business period, Mr. Murray spoke briefly to the meeting and led in the discussion which followed. He stressed the need of regular teachers' meetings.

taking everything into consideration the red clad gals made a good showing. The first game was rather one-sided, 16-6, but the girls were probably tired after the long drive that day, and the score of the second game, 13-11, may have been a better indication of the relative merits of the two teams. With Muriel Mimeo out of the George's Gals' infield, we figure the team has been weakened about 20 percent. Possibly if the tall, graceful Mimeo had been able to play in short field, the Gals would have been Maritime champs today.

He also urged greater effort to interest both parents and teachers in Sunday School.

During the supper hour the delegates were entertained in the homes.

A large congregation was present at the evening meeting. This service was opened by an impressive period of worship led by the Tryon Young People's Union. A group from Bedeque held a round table discussion in which they capably presented the work of the M. R. E. C.

Mr. Murray showed the film strip "Guiding Children in Worship" A profitable discussion followed.

The report of the nominating committee was as follows: Pres. Miss Phyllis Britten, vice-pres. Mrs. Edna Jenkins, Secy-treas. Florence Mabey, asst. Mrs. Elmer Gamble.

The Courtesy Committee submitted the following report: Resolved that the thanks of this convention be extended to Rev. Mr. Murray for his splendid leadership.

To Rev. Mr. Archer and the Cape Traverse congregation for the use of their church and for their kind hospitality.

To the soloists and Tryon Young People's Union and all others who gave special interest to the convention.

To the Executive for their exceptional planning of an inspiring convention.

The meeting was closed with prayer led by Rev. Mr. Killam.

STAR STUDDER COMEDY, OPENS TODAY AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

With an all-star cast to guide it along its merry way, "We're Not Married" is a raucous concoction of mirth and confusion as five pairs of supposedly married couples discover, that after two years of wedded life, they really aren't married at all—victims of an over-anxious, unlicensed Justice of the Peace. Each sequence is a cameo of human frustration, elation and contrasting emotion. Incorporated into one finished gem, they make for a memorable experience in rich motion picture entertainment.

The cast, which Producer Nunnally Johnson and Director Edmund Goulding assembled, is as star-studded a group as even the most avid movie fan could wish for. Each performer outdoes the other in transforming the hilarious story to reality.

Ginger Rogers, the ever-glamorous lovely of longstanding, and

Fred Allen, the sharp-witted ex-patriate from radio and TV, are superb as the "Mr. and Mrs." radio couple who disdain the sight of each other. Amply proportioned Marilyn Monroe and David Wayne provide continuous revelry as Marilyn enters a beauty contest for married women only to discover she's no longer eligible.
