

Satire is a sort of glass wherein beholders do generally discover everybody's face but their own.

It is the folly of too many to mistake the applause of the radio for the voice of the populace.

Many Weapons Possible

They fashioned stout clubs, used by the Red guards manning their compounds, but they could have slugged them with metal. They could have produced more barbed wire coils, and the output of Molotov cocktails from diesel oil and gasoline supplied as kitchen-stove fuel could have been unlimited.

Sought To Divide

When the King's Shropshire Light Infantry first manned the positions around No. 66 three days before the R.C.R. arrived, English-speaking North Koreans began calling through the wire: "We will obey English orders. English soldiers number one (first class)."

Planting Delayed By Adverse Weather

Adverse weather has delayed the planting of potatoes this season and a large part of the acreage remains to be planted, states the Weekly Potato Bulletin. Rain and wet weather come just as the fields are prepared and ready to plant and then it has to be done all over again.

Voters Elect 53 Candidates At Polls Today

REGINA, June 10 (CP)—Major political groups in tomorrow's Saskatchewan general election all predicted gains today as they prepared to get out the voters. The Liberals forecast the overthrow of the C.C.F. in office for eight years. The C.C.F. looked to moderate advances over its existing majority. The Social Credit Party, with no members now, figured to cut in heavy on both sides.

145 Candidates

Besides the four main party groups, there are in the running three independents, two Labor-Progressives (Communists), one Independent Liberal and one Independent Progressive Conservative for a total of 145 contestants. There are 53 seats in the Legislature.
