THE EXAMINER.

CHARLOTTETOWN, MARCH 31, 1856.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

The despatches from the Colonial Office, and the Memorials and Petitions of the Land Proprietors, in reference to the Rent Roll and Tenant Compensation Bills, were partly discussed in the House of Assembly on Friday evening last. A series of resolutions in reference to these documents were placed on the table by Mr. Whelan, the Hon. Col. Secretary having previously reviewed the remonstrances of the Land Proprietors in a lengthy speech. The debate was adjourned about ten o'clock, and will be resumed in the course of the present week.

A far more important question was that which underwent discussion on the following evening (Saturday). This was a proposition to revise and amend the Election Laws, the principal amendments suggested being a more equal subdivision of the electoral districts, and the formation of an additional district in each County, by which the number of members would be increased from twenty-four to thirty. This question was brought forward by Mr. Whelan moving a resolution to go into Committee of the whole House on the consideration of the amendments suggested. He gave, at considerable length, his reasons for the attention—he showed how unequally divided the districts now are, as well with respect to population as to territory—some districts having from seven to fourteen townships, others having from four to five; and the number of votes in some being sixteen and seventeen hundred, while others had not a quarter of that number. The necessity for an increase in the number of members was apparent from the difficulty experienced in proceeding with the public business, in the absence of any members from either side of the House, while parties were so nearly balanced; and the increased advantages to the public, in an enlargement of their representation, and consequently, an extension of popular liberty—were offered as arguments in support of the measure, and could not be refuted by its opponents. The minority violently opposed it—all manner of surmises were indulged in by them,—they animated on the circumstance of its not being brought forward as a Government measure, although they did not deny that they would have opposed it as stoutly as ever, even if it had been brought forward in such a shape,—in short, they imagined any and every reason but the true one for the introduction of the measure, and in all the violence of their anger, failed to produce one real good argument against it. It was a caution to see how some of those elderly gentlemen, who have recently gone over to the ranks of the enemy, winced under the proposition, and seemed to picture to their terrified imaginations what their prospects would be, if the enactment of a new election law should lead, as they no doubt thought it would, to a speedy dissolution of the House. Of course they voted against it—it appears to be their solemn determination to vote against any measure which fails to elicit the approval of the Tory minority. Their constituents will tell them by and bye, no doubt, whether or not they were sent into the House for that purpose.

The motion to go into Committee was, however, carried about ten o'clock, and Mr. Whelan having submitted a resolution to the following effect:—"That it is expedient to revise and amend the election law, with the view to obtaining a more equal subdivision of the electoral districts, and increasing the number of members by adding two to each County—" the debate was resumed, with considerable animation and some acrimony, and continued until about twenty minutes after eleven, when the resolution was agreed to on the following division:—

For the Resolution—Messrs. Whelan, Wightman, Clark, Dingwell, Munro, Perry, Warburton, Coles, Lord, Muirhead, McGill, Mooney—12.

Against it—Messrs. Palmer, Douse, Longworth, H. Haviland, Montgomery, Cooper, Laird, McIntosh, McDonald—9.

A Committee was then appointed to prepare and bring in a Bill in accordance with the resolution, and it is expected that the Bill will be nearly carried through the House by the close of the present week.

A full report of the debate on this important question, as well as that of the previous evening, on the Land Proprietors' Petitions, are now being written out by our own Reporter, and will be given to our readers with as little delay as possible after the MSS. are placed in the hands of our compositors. As the views of the majority of the House will no doubt be grossly misrepresented in reference to their action in both measures, we request our readers and the supporters of Liberal principles generally throughout the Island, to suspend their judgment until the debates shall be placed fully before them.

FESTIVAL OF ST. PATRICK.—The Benevolent Irish Society and their friends celebrated the anniversary of their Patron Saint by dining together at the Globe Hotel on Wednesday evening last. About fifty gentlemen sat down to dinner, prepared in the very best style by Mrs. Cairns. His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, accompanied by his Private Secretary, was present, and responded in a very appropriate and pleasing manner to the toast given in reference to himself. There were, amongst the other guests, the Hon. Colonial Secretary, several members of the Executive Council, the Hon. the Speaker of the House of Assembly, several members of that branch of the Legislature, the Hon. Mr. Beaton, of the Legislative Council, the Clerk of the Crown, and his Worship the Mayor.

The Champagne and other wines were excellent, and the arrangements altogether reflected much credit on the Stewards, who were indefatigable in their exertions to render the celebration of this national festival the most attractive of any thing of the kind which has been given in this place. The Amateur Band was in attendance, under the able management of Mr. Lobban, and contributed, in a great measure, to enhance the hilarity of the evening.

We append a list of the regular Toasts. They were all duly honoured, and several of them elicited eloquent addresses:—

- 1. The memory of our Patron Saint. Air—"St. Patrick's Day."
2. Her Majesty the Queen—God bless her. "National Anthem."
3. His Royal Highness Prince Albert and the Royal Family. "British Grenadiers."
4. His Excellency Lieutenant Governor Daly—Here's a caed mille faltha to the First Irish Governor who honored the Sons of St. Patrick in this Island by participating in their annual festivity. "Sprig of Shillelah," and "Governor's March."

6. The Army and the Navy—the great sentinels of the State—the splendour of their achievements furnishes the fairest records amongst the annals of the Empire. "Rule Britannia."
7. Mrs. Daly and the fair daughters of Prince Edward Island. "Here's a health to all good lasses."
8. Prince Edward Island—the land we live in, and worthy of our best efforts to promote its prosperity. "Home, sweet Home."
9. The Legislature of Prince Edward Island. "March."
10. The Press—the conservator of popular liberty and independence. "Quick step."

12. The Chief Justice and Bar of Prince Edward Island. "Silver Moon."
13. The Mayor and Corporation of the City of Charlottetown. "Flower of Hope."
14. Our Sister Societies. "Should auld acquaintance be forgot."
15. Our Guests. "Kate Kearney."
16. Our next Merry Meeting. "Good night and joy be with you all."

We have had two Colonial Mails during the past week, but the news they furnished is quite unimportant. The Steamship Persia had arrived at New York with one week's later dates than those furnished by the last English Mail at Halifax; but the papers furnish no intelligence of any consequence. The Peace Conference continued in Session in Paris, but their proceedings were veiled in mystery. An English Mail is expected here this evening by way of Halifax.

We have to acknowledge the receipt of a second letter from Mr. Kenny in answer to that of Mr. Mooney, published in our issue of the 17th instant. We shall attend to it in our next.

The Treasurer of the Ladies' Benevolent Society acknowledges the receipt of two pounds ten shillings from Mr. Donald A. McPhee, being his moiety of a fine imposed on James Ellis, for selling spirituous liquors without license.

COLONIAL NEWS.

DEFEAT OF THE CANADIAN CABINET.—A Telegraph Despatch received at the News Room St. John N. B. 13th, announces a defeat of the Canadian Ministry on a motion made by Mr. Cameron, for an address for a copy of Judge Duval's charge to the Jurors in the Corrigan murder case, and which was resisted by the Government.—The motion was finally carried—Yeas 48, Nays 44. The Ministry have asked and obtained until to-morrow (this day) to decide what course to pursue.

The Judge charged, it is alleged, "that none but those who struck the blow was guilty," and the prisoners were in consequence acquitted.

The Ministry asked Parliament, on the 12th inst., to allow them till Thursday to resign, if they could not get the vote reversed. The Hon. John McDonald, of Kingston, will likely be called upon to form a new Ministry, if the present one is again defeated on Thursday. He will be supported by some of the annexationists of 1849. He is a liberal conservative. Governor Head is sadly perplexed. Everybody distrusts everybody. And there is hardly a man or party in Canada strong enough to form a Government.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND SEAL FISHERY.—The Sealers had all left St. John's harbor on this perilous but hopeful enterprise prior to the departure of the R. M. S. Merlin for this port. A gentleman who came passenger by the steamer states the number of vessels engaged the present season in this branch of industry, to be much fewer than usual. The total from St. John's is probably less by thirty, and for Carbonear in like proportion.

The Newfoundland, of March 3, says—Preparations for our Seal Fishery have been going forward with accustomed activity for some time past; and several vessels have gone to sea within the last two or three days. As far as we can judge, the prospect is a favourable one—appearances at present indicating an early spring. The number of vessels from St. John's, we learn, will be many short of that of last year, though from the island altogether, we believe there will be little difference in the amount of tonnage of these two years. We heartily wish the fleet the amplest success.

ICE IN THE ATLANTIC OCEAN.—The New York papers state that up to the 8th instant there were more than forty thousand tons of shipping due at that port from Europe alone. A list of these published recently shows that a very considerable number are a long time overdue. The cause of detention is doubtless the immense fields of ice which have thus early made their appearance in the Atlantic. These formidable obstacles to navigation have been fallen in with by upwards of one hundred and twenty vessels already arrived at American ports from Europe, and are reported as extending over five degrees of latitude by nine degrees of longitude. Ice has not been fallen in with in the same locality so early in the year but four or five times during the last hundred years, and even on these occasions in nothing like the same quantities as seen during the present season. It is assumed that the ice fields encountered by the Cunard steamship Persia on her first outward trip were not the same as those subsequently met by other steamers and sailing ships. These ice fields always drift in a S. S. Westerly direction, and at the rate of about 8 miles per day. They gradually disappear as they drift South.

Fevers of all descriptions and their cure.—Many remedies have been prescribed for the relief of suffering humanity for the cure of these distressing and often times fatal diseases. Few seem to be worthy of much comment; in a word, few possess any intrinsic value. Holloway's Pills, however, will be found invaluable for these complaints, and will readily check the worst stages of the evil; in truth, by a perseverance with this remedy according to the prescribed directions, they will restore the sufferer to health, after every other means have failed. These Pills are also famous in all diseases of the stomach and bowels.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HAIR TONIC.

BOGLE'S celebrated Hyperion Fluid, for the growth and preservation of the Hair, is well known to be without a rival on this continent. Hundreds of imitations have started into an ephemeral existence since the introduction of this unrivalled Hair restorative, and their doom has been sealed, whilst Bogle's Hyperion Hair Fluid, with a popularity never attained by any other article, goes on conquering and to conquer. There is no malady, which can affect the Hair but can be cured by this incomparable preparation. To ladies it is invaluable; and on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of Hair. It is now patronized by Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain, and commands an extensive sale throughout Europe.

BOGLE'S ELECTRIC HAIR DYE converts red or grey hair into a beautiful black or brown, the moment it is applied, literally dyeing the hair without staining the skin and leaving the Hair soft and glossy without injuring its texture in the least; a decided superiority over all other Hair dyes.

Bogle's Amole Shaving compound renders that usually unpleasant operation (shaving) a decided luxury.
