BLACK SADDLE STITCHED

Black saddle stitching and patent piping single out this handbag as a natural complement for spring '64 fashions. In a new vinyl favric called "Urbana", the bag is white with a leather grained pattern and is self lined. Such a bag is a practical choice for everyday use since the vinyl is scuff-proof and is easy to keep spanking clean with a damp sponge. "Carol Kaye" by Handbags Limited, Montreal. ELLEN'S DIARY

The Answer To A Wish Is Sometimes Delayed

"I wouldn't, if I were you, wish for rain, Ellen" James remarked at supper. "No. Better to wish for sunshine and warm winds, to cut away the snow. Otherwise, think of the flooding there could be."

We chuckled. Our wishes, we have often found to be more or less only so many wasted words... How fervently we, in childhood, have wished for a fine day, only to come to beclouded skies! Wished when we chanced to catch our relection in a stilly pool, or in the cool of a shadowy well, our braids were golden - hued instead of so dark; wished for a dress or ribbon, to please a little girl's heart. Yet in time learned that when a wish becomes an actual prayer, it is never lost, though sometimes the answer is a long time in coming, and reaches us in roundabout ways.

"A wish is often as light as thistledown" we grinned to James.

Supper. And the sun then was bidding the kitchen a smiling "Au Revior" as it went to gatner every last beam in, from wandering far and wide on the valley, up rosy trails to the west.

We had homed just in time to spread the table and prepare supper, after attending, with a number from the community, the funeral of one, who, back in the years, had been the mistress of the manse in the village.

She had come to us a stranger. Some years later, when she and her husband — and and what a fine twain, the two were! — were called to minister to another charge, it was with distinct sense of personal loss, we saw both go. It was because she kept so active, despite a handicap, due to a former illness, that we could recognize something of the extent of that valiant spirit that willed it. One above many, hers was. Undaunted. And always understanding and kind. She was so naturally devout that even to chat with her, was to gain an inspiration that lifted out spirits from the "earth, earthy" cares and troubles, and made us realize more than before, that there is indeed a Power, which shapes our days.

"A good woman!" we overheard a man say this afternoon adding with a homely philosophy.

"If she doesn't get to Heavenly places, there's a mighty poor chance for some of the rest of us, to get in over there!"

Heaven's gate would swing wide for her, we think. And she, a humble lady, would enter on quiet steps, eyes happy, reflecting the shining light within ... without hesitation, smiling, having known "the Truth" so well. She would see there those green pastures, she talked of, fine the pure white lilies of the field. And come to some little sanctuary of place where she could sing His praises, and teach — for she was a born teacher, and well taught, herself— those younglings of angels perhaps, proof now of that Story she loved.

Bereaved sadly her husband and loved ones are, yet left with treasured memories, we are sure. Nice memories too, the many friends, made during her Island stay, will also hold dear. And in the old cemetery, in the shadow of the Church in which she last worshipped, there, all that was mortal of the coleen of once will find rest, until "the day dawns" and all truths are made clear.

Until tomorrow — Diary — Good - night.....

HAWAIIAN INSPIRATION

The bright flowers of Hawaii were the inspiration for this beach outfit that is a perfect choice for a vacation in the tropics.

The small shorts are of black elasticized nylon with a sash that matches the rayon bra of brilliantly printed flowers on a ground of black.

A shirt in the same floral pattern affords coverup with below-elbow sleeves and a classic cut

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Meat For All Seasons Is Pot Roast Of Beef

"THE BEST quality of beef is U.S. Prime or U.C. Choice," the Chef explained to a group of homemakers we met on tour.

"You can identify it because the meat contains little streaks of fat so it looks marbled, has a covering of firm, creamy- white fat, and is fine-textured and lean with a bright, bright red color.

"Lower grades of beef have less fat on the surface and less marbling. So in cooking them we use meat tenderizer to compensate and long, slow simmering to produce a rich, regal taste."

SUNDAY DINNER
Grapefruit Halves
Pot Roast of Beef
Whipped Potato
Seasonable Vegetables
Deep Custard Pie
Coffee Tea Milk
Measurements level; recipes for 6

POT ROAST OF BEEF
¼ c. vegetable oil
6 thin-sliced peeled onions
5 lbs. beef, top or bottom round
1 tsp. garlic salt
1 bunch pot herbs (soup greens)
6 peppercorns
1 bayleaf
1 c. canned tomato (mashed)
2 tsp. salt
1½ c. tart cider
½ tsp. aromatic bitters

Heat oil in 4-qt. heavy kettle. Add onions. Saute until golden.

Rub beef all over with garlic salt. Saute. Turn occasionally until meat browns and onion is dark but not burned.

Add remaining ingredients; cover. Bring to rapid boil. Simmer 3½ hrs. on top of range or in oven until fork-tender. Allow about 40 min. to the lb. Turn twice while cooking. Make gravy from remaining liquid.

DEEP CUSTARD PIE
1 recipe American pie pastry or use a mix
1 tsp. fine dry bread crumbs
⅞ c. sugar
1-16 tsp. salt
¼ tsp. nutmeg
3 eggs beaten until frothy
2 c. milk

Line an 8-or 9-in. pie plate that can-go- to-table with pie pastry rolled a scant ¼-in. thick. Build up edges. Dust crumbs over pastry in bottom and lightly press in.

In bowl, combine sugar, salt and nutmeg. Mix in beaten eggs; then gradually add milk, beating constantly.

Pour custard mixture into lined pie plate.

Beat 10 min. at 400 degrees F to set crust so it will not be soggy. Then, reduce heat to 350 degrees F. and bake 25 min. longer, or until pick inserted near center comes out clean. Serve cold.

CAUTION FROM THE CHEF

The custard pie filling should not boil during baking process. If this should happen it will overcook the egg and the filling will separate and "curdle", as an old-fashioned cook would say.

Clothes Indicate Social Attitudes

TORONTO (CP)—A Woman's clothes may tell much about her social or antisocial attitudes, Dr. Joyce Brothers, a New York psychologist, told the Toronto Fashin Group Thursday.

Dr. Brothers, a United States television and radio commentator and newspaper columnist, said the woman who has done her best with her appearance conveys an impression of self-respect. The woman who couldn't care less how she looks is pretending to show that she can get along without the approval of her peers.

She may be using her lack of appeal as a pathetic challenge for others to love her.

Equally self-defeating is the insecure creature who is so completely preoccupied with the search for beauty that she can never be satisfied.

"She could be herself only if she forgot her image for a while," said Dr. Brothers.

Nursing Course Is Begun By York Institute

Mrs. Evelyn Cudmore, guest speaker at the March meeting of Alpha Women's Institute in York, spoke on water safety and suggested the possibility of instigating a two - week summer school where school - age children would receive first - class instruction in swimming and related activities.

Mrs. Sheilagh Simpson, presided at the meeting when 33 members responded to the roll with an Irish joke. The treasurer reported sending $5 to the CAC and the Music Festival fee. A donation was also sent to the United Nations convener for the Institutes' adopted son.

Reports were given on the recent First - Aid night and the Safety Award luncheon. A new safety committee was appointed; these are: Mrs. Sheilagh Simpson, Mrs. Wanda Mallett, Mrs. Gertie Vessey and Mrs. Ella Chappell.

An education questionnaire was discussed and completed under the leadership of Mrs. Ann Crockett. Mrs. Crockett also read an interesting article on introducing pre - schoolers to the pleasures of reading.

The $50 Carol Lane Safety Awards prize which was won by Alpha in second place, is being used to defray expense of a Home Nursing Course for Institute members and other interested persons. Mrs. Walter Mallett, RN, is conducting the cour with an enrollment of 19.

Announce New Healing Substance... Shrinks Piles, Checks Itch

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids... and repair damaged tissue.

A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissues.

One hemorrhoidal case history after another reported "very striking improvement." Pain was promptly and gently relieved... actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

Among these case histories were a variety of hemorrhoidal conditions. Relief even occurred in cases of long standing, and most important of all, results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

This was accomplished with a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue. Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H.

In addition to actually shrinking hemorrhoids, Preparation H lubricates and makes elimination less painful. It helps prevent infection which is a principal cause of hemorrhoids.

Just ask your druggist for Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment (with a special applicator).

Satisfaction guaranteed or your money refunded.

Foster Mother Enjoys Babies

WINNIPEG (CP)—A Winnipeg housewife has helped raise 20 children of various ethnic origins and says she plans on five more.

Mrs. Gordon Burnell has served as a foster mother for the Children's Aid Society for the last eight years.

She is one of 1,100 foster parents in Winnipeg who care for about 1,000 children.

The homeless children remained with the Burnells for periods ranging from two months to six years before more permanent arrangements were made for them.

Mrs. Burnell, whose foster children have included Negroes, Orientals and those with Indian blood, says "the babies are the ones I enjoy most."

All the children have fitted into her family and the neighborhood.

"Everyone is so kind to them; they cannot help feeling loved."

She explains that when her own three children were in school, she and her husband "had plenty of time and space for younger ones, so it seemed the natural thing to do."

PIUSVILLE

The seventh blizzard of the season hit the Island on Wednesday night and lasted for two days with high winds and drifting snow. Roads in all sections were filled in. Some buildings were almost covered over. What makes the situation worse no storm warning was issued. It came up so quickly some people were short of groceries and fuel.

Some residents of this community attended the St. Patricks play held in Alberton on the 16th and 17 of March.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warburton Murray, were Mr. and Mrs. Keir Murray, Miminigash.

Almost all schools on the Island were closed on Thursday and Friday due to the blizzard.

Frank Stephens, Campbellton, was a business visitor to the district recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Gallant and Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Gallant were visiting on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Corcoran, East Royalty, Charlottetown.
