GRAIN

WINNIPEG, (CP)—Prices changes were irregular Friday in a moder-ately active session on the Winni-peg grain exchange. Barley prices were firm in early trade reflecting continued fair ex-ports demand, but eased later. May barley was firm on the export trade and light offerings. Other grains reflected outside declines. There were routine domestic shipping orders in oats. Light in-dustrial buying was reported in flax. There was some selling by U.S. interest in rye. There were no reports of over-night export loadings of Canadian
