Columnist Takes A Look At King's Hockey Picture

By ED CLINTON
Souris Bureau of The Guardian

Playoffs are in full swing at the present time. Let's assess the situation to date. In the Intermediate "B" bracket, the Souris Crossbones disposed of the Eagles from Georgetown in four straight games. Actually the series were five games, the third game was awarded by the referee to Souris, but both teams agreed not to play the game and to replay it. This was done, and what we're wondering about is: "Should play-offs be the teams able to do this?" Do they have that authority? The Crossbones now advance to the King's County finals, and their opponents are the Murray Harbour Bruins. This should be a terrific series. It may also be a very rugged series. These two teams are making a name for themselves coming out on top. But, before they managed to come out on top, had feelings were thoroughly aroused and chances are that it won't take very much to re-ignite them. This will be a best of five series with the extra games played in Souris. The winner of this round advances to the Island semi-finals.

The King's County intermediate "C" finals are also underway. The Souris Royals eliminated the Red Point Flyers in four straight games to enter this phase of the playoffs while their opponents in this round will be the Murray Beavers, who also won in four straight games, knocking off Peakes-St. Peters. This will be a series of youth against experience. Morell, while having a good deal of youth in the team with the experience, Souris has a young team, with almost no intermediate playoff experience. In this round also, Souris has the extra game. This series is a best of five with the winner advancing to the "C" semi-finals.

WHEN DID IT HAPPEN?
And speaking of Island semi-finals, can someone with a good memory, please tell us when was the last time that the King's County representative got a bye into the Island finals in either "B" or "C" playoffs. And if you can remember that, can you recall how many times it happened, say, in the last ten years. This year, Queen's gets the bye in one round while Prince gets the bye in the other.

And that is always the way this winter seems to remember it. Souris and Morell Regional

NHL Presidency Suspends Young For Three Games

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League has suspended Detroit defenseman Howie Young from Red Wings' next three games for a temper explosion in Sunday's 6-1 loss to Montreal Canadiens.

Young received a total of 27 minutes in penalties and $100 in automatic fines for his second-period tantrum, which included hitting referee Frank Udvari in the head with his glove. Campbell said in a sharply-worded statement issued in Montreal Wednesday he made his decision after consulting Udvari, NHL referee-in-chief Carl Voss and Young himself.

Today's Minor Hockey Schedule

Only activity scheduled for minor hockey today at Sports Arena is a workout for Midget "A" players.

"Early in the second period, Young received a major penalty for high-checking causing an injury to a Canadian's player."

"When the referee signalled this penalty, Young charged at him, when a few feet away from him, he met a blow with his stick and a punch at the referee."
