After a delightful "gab fest", a merry sing-song with Mrs. Earle Clarke at the piano followed. A delicious lunch provided by the cookery artists of this merry group was served. This happy party closed by singing, "Blest be the Tie that Binds" and cheerful "good-nights" were exchanged. Rev. and Mrs. Douglass, being strangers among them since September, were indeed happy by this friendly gesture towards them.

The Easter Lily

Easter Lily blooming now On his altar old, Lifting to the azure skies Your pollen-eyes of gold. Were you that lovely garden? Did you bow your head? When they laid the Lord of Life There, among the dead. Did you see the Holy Mother Staring by His tomb? Did you see her tears of anguish In the darkening gloom? Did you see the Roman soldiers Watting through the night? Did you see their bright swords gleaming In the pale moonlight? Did you see God's shining Angel Roll the stone away? See the soldiers flee in terror And vivid lightnings play. Did you see the sorrowing women, When seeking Him, they came? Did you see the face of Mary When Jesus called her name? But the Lily answered only, "He is risen as He said, Jesus who was crucified. Is risen from the dead." —Constance I. Hebert. Jimmy Hyde. Sketch — Mrs. Reggie MacKinnon. Solo — Mrs. Douglas MacDonald. Solo — Shirley MacDonald with guitar accompaniment. Duet — Mercedes Donahue and Margaret MacQuarrie. Vaudeville — David Young. God Save The King.
