An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McLeod, Hunter River, on Wednesday evening, April 15th when the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Wood, came in great numbers to surprise the young couple by giving them a miscellaneous shower. The gifts were opened by Miss Elsie Stead, special mention may be made of a well-filled purse from the Boys' Hockey Club accompanied by a well-worded address read by Miss Florence Noy. Although taken entirely by surprise Mr. Wood on behalf of his wife thanked the donors, and assured them that their appreciation for the lovely gifts given them. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Messrs. Andrew Gallant, and Stanley Ross.

The death of an elderly resident of Alberton took place at an early hour on Monday morning, the person of Mrs. Michael C. Delaney, wife of the late Michael Delaney, former Conservative member of the Provincial House, of which party she supported at the last Provincial election at the age of eighty-six. Her maiden name was Eliza Mira Robinson of Augustine Cove. For many years she was the wife of Mr. and Mrs. Delaney kept a general store at Tryon. After Mr. Delaney's death she resided in Alberton with her son Claude, where her death took place after two weeks illness. Mrs. Delaney was a member of the Baptist church and was very highly esteemed by all who knew her. Being of a very charitable nature, great as she was familiarly called, was conducted all and many poor received help from her as she was always giving and helping others. There are left to mourn two sons, Claude of Alberton and Parker, Tryon; five daughters, Mrs. Lucius Crew, Summerside; Mrs. Bert Dawson, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Daniel McLure, Lower Falls, N. B.; Mrs. M. E. Evans, Esques; Mrs. G. W. Nash, Esques; also Mrs. Hamilton Gamble of Alberton who tenderly cared for her mother during her declining years. Her funeral was held on Thursday and despite the almost impassable condition of the roads was largely attended by a large number of friends and neighbors who came to pay their last respects. Services at the home and grave was conducted by Rev. Mr. Crowe of Bedouque. "Rock of Ages" and "Abide with Me" were hymns of the deceased and a prayer was offered. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock and was held at the home of Mrs. M. E. Evans, Esques. Rev. Mr. Crowe, Arthur Green, O. J. McCormick, Thomas E. Noonan, and Mrs. W. J. Pineson.

AT ROTARY—Yesterday was International day at Rotary. The chairman, President-elect, J. M. Murray, first gave a three-minute talk of "Rotary and Peace" commencing on the Fourth Object of Rotary, namely, to encourage and assist in the advancement of peace, goodwill and international understanding through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service. Rotarian R. H. Rogers next spoke on the activities of the League of Nations, which are not at present in the limelight. In these nations find no conflict of interest but are simply working for the welfare of humanity. He believed that through them, however, eventually narrow nationalism, which is now so rampant throughout the world, will pass away. The speaker first discussed the Permanent Court of International Justice, which was the aftermath of a similar court organized long before the war at The Hague. He cited cases of where disputes between Greenland and Denmark, between Austria and Germany, had been satisfactorily settled by this court. Next he discussed the International Labor Organization formed to promote the interests of labor throughout the world. Another activity was the international health organization, which dealt with public health, medical services, the standardization of sera, etc. The guests were Rotarian E. B. Holden, of Truro, N. S., and two students of St. Dunstan's College, E. L. Lynsky of Dorchester, Mass., and Manuel Paloma, of Malquin, Cuba.

Little Theatre Guild patrons attending the second studio night last evening saw new talent in excellent all the actors and actresses appeared for the first time on the Little Theatre stage. FISHERMEN PREPARE FOR LOBSTER SEASON—Lobster fishermen along Prince Edward Island's North Shore are in readiness for the opening of the "early 1936 season" which starts May 1 and ends June 30. Mr. S. T. Gallant, provincial fisheries inspector, said last night more lobster fishermen than last year were preparing gear because a better season than 1935 is expected. Markets for the crustaceans are better, at present than they were at the same time last month ago. If the catch is not so large that markets will be glutted, fishermen will benefit the inspector thought.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. James Pendergast and their family in the loss they have sustained by the death of their little daughter, which occurred Monday evening at her home. Only 12 years old, the eldest of the family, she was cut down in all the rich promise of her early youth. Of a sweet and gentle disposition, she will be much missed in her home and also by her many little chums and friends at school. There she was much beloved. To the family in their bereavement, very sincere sympathy is extended.

DEBATING SOCIETY—A meeting of the Section A Debating Society met on Wednesday, April 15, in Room 12, P. W. C., with the president, Leslie Stewart, in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. There being no business, the president called on Jim Burnett to open the debate. He was supported by Douglas Black and Mary MacDonald. The speakers on the con side were Frances Reeves, Esther Harper and John Kirby. The subject was "Resolved that modern social conditions make us all old fogies at forty." After the speeches a vote was taken, resulting in a victory for the con. After a few remarks by the speaker, Prof. Blanchard was called upon for a few words. The meeting was then adjourned.
