Celebrate Thirty-fifth Wedding Anniversary

—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Croken, Emerald, celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. Their family of nine were all home except Sister Mary Cornelia of Kingston, Ontario. The day began with all the family going to Mass and Holy Communion. In the afternoon, all the family and immediate relatives met at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Robert Haggarty for a well-prepared dinner. The table was centered with the anniversary cake and decorated with mums and roses. The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Robert Haggarty and responded to by the groom. In the evening a reception was given in their honor at the home of their son, Maurice, where eighty friends and neighbors gathered to extend good wishes to them on this happy occasion. Their son, Robert read a short address to them and Maurice and Louis presented them with a Kroehler rocking chair. Mr. Croken then thanked the family for the nice day they had planned for them and for the lovely gift, and hoped both of them would be spared for some years yet to help and encourage the younger mem-

O'Leary and Vicinity

Rev. John Sheen of Elmisdale attended the Laymen's Conference at the Bedeque United Church on Monday July 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Alpart Gard, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Beaupre and son of Attleboro, Mass. are spending a two weeks vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harris, Knutsford.

Mrs. Bates and Mrs. R. Bates (nee Miss Iola Oulton) and baby are visiting in Brae and are the guests of Mrs. R. Bates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oulton. Their many friends are giving them a very cordial welcome. They reside in Montreal.

On July 5th, Messrs Therin Ellis and Bernard Shea of O'Leary, Arnold Wood and Earl Ellis, West Cape, motored to Marshfield, P. E. I. where they attended the sixth annual convention of the Co-Operative Union.

The Brae United Church Young People's Union met for their regular meeting on Monday night July 10th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James MacKinnon. There was a fine attendance and the devotions were led by the Vice-President, Mrs. Fred W. MacLeod.

Rev. A. F. and Mrs. Baker of Newport Landing arrived in O'Leary on Monday July 10th and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Matheson. Rev. Mr. Baker was the Minister of the O'Leary United Church Pastoral Charge for seven years from 1930 to 1937.

Miss Hester, Boates, O'Leary, president of the O'Leary United Church Young Peoples Union and Miss Adele MacAusland of Bloomfield, a member of the Bloomfield Y. P. U. left on Tuesday July 11th for Sackville, N. B. where they will attend the Maritime Conference Young People's Union Summer School which meets at Mount Allison University.

Mr. Cliff Ellis of O'Leary and Mr. Arthur Cornish of Bloomfield have returned from a very enjoyable trip to Boston and other centers in the U. S. Mr. Ellis also attended the Mutual Life Insurance Convention at St. Andrew's, N. B. and Mr. Cornish was the guest of his mother in the U. S.

The funeral service for the late Mrs. Philip MacFadyen who died in Mass. was held at the home of Mrs. Ivey MacFadyen in Brae on July 7th and was conducted by Rev. H. M. Burgess of O'Leary who was assisted by Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary and Rev. J. M. Sheen of Elmisdale. Mrs. I. M. Burgess sang a solo. Interment was in the Brae United Church cemetery.

Among those who attended the Laymen's Conference at the Bedeque United Church on Monday, July 10th were the following from O'Leary and district: — Rev. W. G. Dickson, Miss Anna MacLeod of Glace Bay, N. S.; Miss Evelyn Underhay of Bay Fortune, P. E. I. who are conducting a Church Vacation School in O'Leary from July 10th to 14th and Mr. John R. Dignan of Howlan and Mr. Alban W. Craswell of Bloomfield. The special guest speaker was the noted Evangelist, Rev. Charles Templeton.

Mr. Winburn Harris of Knutsford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Harris, met with a very painful and unusual accident on Monday of last week. While helping to load cattle for Ralph Adams of O'Leary, a cow which he was handling, punctured his cheek and loosening several teeth with her horn. He was immediately rushed to Dr. L. G. Dewar's office in O'Leary where it was found necessary to close the wound with seven stitches.

The Church Vacation School is being very well attended in the O'Leary United Church. There are over 75 children enrolled representing the Sunday Schools of O'Leary, Bloomfield and Brae. The School is being conducted by Miss Anna MacLeod of Glace Bay, N. S. and Miss Evelyn Underhay of Bay Fortune, P. E. I. Assisting the leaders are the following teachers: Mrs. Ivey MacFadyen, Mrs. Lorne MacNevin and Mrs. Fred MacLeod of Brae and from O'Leary are the following teachers: Mrs. Daniel MacPherson, Mrs. Edward MacDougall, Mrs. John Matthews, and Mrs. Lewis Bernard, and Rev. W. G. Dickson.

On Tuesday afternoon July 4th the members of the Women's Missionary Society of the Springfield Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Ellis of Knutsford for their monthly meeting with eleven members and one new member was welcomed. The president, Mrs. Nell Boulter presided. The topic was "The Ideal Mission Circle". The Roll Call was answered by a verse of Scripture. The meeting opened by all singing: "My Faith Looks up to Thee" followed by a Circle of Prayer. Readings were given by Mrs. Charles Rix and by Mrs. Ralph Cain. Mrs. C. O. Howlett gave a reading entitled: "A Tested Recipe for a Good Missionary Meeting". Mrs. W. Costain, one of the older members of the society gave a very interesting talk on the organization of the society which was formed fifty-six years ago. She also mentioned the names of former charter members and gave a few details of the society in former years and up until the present day. Discussion followed on the furnishings for the Church and a committee was appointed in charge. Rev. C. O. Howlett closed the meeting with the Benediction.

On Friday evening June 30th a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Ada Wright, Alberton, to commemorate the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Reaford Locke of the Locke Road, near O'Leary. Mrs. Locke was formerly Miss Harriet Leard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leard of Alberton. This popular couple received many beautiful and costly gifts including silver and money. The presentation was made by Miss Helen Wallace, niece of Mrs. Locke, to which Mr. Locke on behalf of himself and his wife thanked their friends in a few well-chosen words. "For they are jolly good fellows" was sung and a delicious lunch of ice-cream and cake was served by the hostess assisted by several of the ladies. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and singing led by Mrs. Melvin Bridges after which all departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Locke many more years of happy wedded life.

The Springfield Baptist Church was filled to capacity on Sunday night, July 9th, when the United and Baptist congregations combined. Rev. Blair Colborne was the guest speaker. A special feature was the dedication of a beautiful oak table in the church in memory of the late Mr. Ralph Ellis of Knutsford, a fine young man who always took a great interest in church activities and community happenings. Rev. C. O. Howlett of O'Leary conducted the dedication service. The topic of the sermon was "Is Life Worth Living?" The choir was heard to advantage in a sacred number "We Shall See the King Someday". The soloist was Mrs. Maurice Croken. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, starting with the wedding reel with the bridesmaid and groomsmen of thirty-five years ago; Mrs. R. J. MacDonald, Charlottetown, and Mr. Joseph Hughes, Emerald. The enjoyable evening came to a close with everyone hoping to be with Mr. and Mrs. Croken on their fiftieth anniversary.
