Presbyterian WMS Meeting

The December meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society, Montague, was held at the home of Mrs. A. D. MacLure, Tuesday evening, and was conducted by Mrs. D. A. Campbell. The theme of the meeting was Luke 21: "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a saviour which is Christ the Lord."

The call to worship, hymn 177, was read by Mrs. Campbell, followed by prayer in unison. The scripture lesson, Luke 21:20, was read in unison with the exposition by Mrs. Campbell. A season of prayer closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison. A devotional period closed with the hymn "Silent Night, Holy Night".

Roll call was answered with a verse of Scripture containing the word youth. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. A. D. MacLure. The financial report was read by the treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Nelson, who also reported on the December thank-offering service. A number of visits to the sick and shut-ins were reported.

An interesting chapter on education from the study book "Face To Face With India" was read by Mrs. B. N. Stewart. The meeting closed with the hymn "While Shepherds Watched Their Sheep" and the Mizpah benediction.

from a two weeks' motor trip to United States. While there they visited with relatives and friends in Wayland, Belmont, and Brookline, Mass.

"THE LOOTERS"

Couple Welcomed By Souris Groups

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 23rd, in the K of C rooms, a party was tendered to Dr. and Mrs. M. DeLorey, who recently took up residence in Souris. The party was sponsored by the Souris Catholic Women's League, assisted by the Souris Council Knights of Columbus. Mr. Joseph Campbell acted as Chairman.

The programme opened with the singing of "O Canada" in which over one hundred Knights and League members took part. The President, Mrs. Art Paquet, read an address of welcome from the League. In it, she welcomed the Dr. and his wife as citizens of the town and members of St. Mary's Parish and hoped their stay among Holy Night would be as pleasant as possible.

Rev. E. Steele read an address from the Knights of Columbus, pledging their support when ever and wherever needed.

The highlight of the programme was the presentation of some lovely gifts.

Mrs. John J. MacDonald presented a blanket from Souris Sub-division; Mrs. Bernard Hughes, a bedspread from Souris River Unit C. W. L. Mrs. Peter MacAulay presented a card table from Chepstow and Little Harbour Unit C. W. L.; Mrs. Dan Bushey presented a scatter rug from Souris Line Road South Unit C. W. L.; Mr. Joseph Campbell presented a smoking stand the Knights of Columbus and Mrs. Melvin Miquid presented a blanket from the Staff of Souris Hospital.

The doctor thanked the members for their lovely gestures of welcome and the many beautiful and useful gifts. Mrs. DeLorey said she was thankful for so many wonderful friends. She appreciated the open hearted way in which they were accepted in the different organizations. These acts of kindness would be among their fondest memories.

Among those who tendered words of welcome were Monsignor J. A. Murphy, Dr. A. A. MacDonald, Mr. William Hughes, Mr. J. B. St. John and Mr. Paul Gallant. Mr. Stewart MacIntyre extended greetings from the East Point district.

A sing song, and modern and square dancing were enjoyed by all. As a special treat, Mrs. DeLorey sang two lovely solos, much to the delight of everyone present. And they all agreed that they are both jolly good fellows. Lunch was served by the ladies.
