

Hysterectomy: medical necessity or surgical racket?

Each year, more and more women, still in the prime of life are submitting to surgery that destroys their ability to bear children.

In August Reader's Digest, Lois Mattox Miller tells how, in too many cases, post-operative diagnosis proves this drastic feminine surgery to be unnecessary — tells why such surgical faddism exists — what can be done to stop it.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN ERNEST DEIGHAN

When the victim of an accident is a promising young man, sorrow knows no bounds. Such was the case when the tragic news reached Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Deighan of Summerside that their son Ernest Junior had been drowned in Watson Lake, Y.T., on May 20. Five days later, on his 22nd birthday, news that his body had been recovered was received.

One of a large family, he was reared in an atmosphere of love and unselfishness, and his death, the first break in the family circle, was a great shock to his parents, brothers and sisters.

Practically all of his short life was spent in Summerside until two years ago when he went to Western Canada. Being an athletic type he was much sought for group games where he always played the game in true sportsman manner. He will be best remembered as the star of numerous hockey games as he played on the several teams.

On June 11 his remains arrived and were met at Borden by a large group of mourners who sorrowfully followed him to his home. The large number who came to pay their last respects and the numerous Mass cards and messages of sympathy received bore eloquent tribute to the popularity of the deceased and the sincere sympathy felt for the bereaved family.

There are left to mourn, besides his sorrowing parents, the following brothers and sisters: Charlie, Charlottetown; (Eddie) Mrs. Charles Connolly Summerside; (Sabina) Mrs. Lorne Keefe, Cooksville, Ont.; (Kathleen) Mrs. Joseph Coady, Port of Hope, N. W. T.; (Ethel) Mrs. Austin Pendergast, Kensington; Rita, Sister Deighan, (Sister of Service), Sinnett, Sask.; Mary (Sister Mary of Fatima), Mount St. Mary's, Charlottetown; Stanley, Toronto; (Edith) Mrs. Keith Millett, Toronto; Joan, Isabella, Suzanne, Richard, Gregory, Billy and Francis at home.

His funeral, largely attended, took place on Saturday, June 13, to St. Paul's Church for Requiem Mass at 9 a.m. celebrated by Rev. A. J. McLeod. Gregory Deighan, brother of the deceased, assisted in serving the Mass.

Present in the sanctuary were Rev. G. J. McLellan, pastor; Rev. Richard Johnston, S.J., Rector of St. Stanislaus Seminary, Guelph, Ont.; Rev. Dennis Gallant, Tignish, and Rev. J. H. LeClair, St. Rev. G. J. McLellan conducted the service at the grave in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Eugene Sullivan, Reuben Doyle, Maurice Connolly, Neil Gillis, Edward Dalton, and Enrie Doucette.

May his soul rest in peace.
