

pounds, and ten thousand in his legacies, giving to the Revenue of Great Britain one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars for this year.

It is said that the fortune of Rothschilds is not less than £29,400,000 sterling.

The Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1850.

REPRESENTING as we do the opinions of the majority of the House of Assembly, we beg to tender our grateful acknowledgements to "an Elector" for the many flattering compliments he has lavished upon them in his 13th letter, published in the last Islander. When it is remembered that "an Elector," who, in spite of his modesty and reserve, could not help telling us in a previous letter, that he is one of those gentlemen whose business it is to promulgate falsehood for the benefit of any one who will hire him to do so—when it is remembered, we repeat, that he was not considered to be a fit and trustworthy person to be placed in the office of Law Clerk to the present House of Assembly, which situation he was desirous of filling, we cannot but think that his praises of the Assembly are dictated by the most generous and disinterested spirit. While the Oligarchy and their hirelings have conspired to falsify and defame the conduct of the majority, it is gratifying to observe that "an Elector" is singularly free from vulgarity in his strictures—that he never indulges in assertions which he knows to be palpable lies—that he never stigmatizes the majority as corrupt and unprincipled—that he never calls them robbers, thieves, plunderers, and perjurers. These and such opprobrious epithets, he leaves to be used by such inherent rascals as Maclean and other writers for the Islander, who, by using them, only exhibit the vile ruffianism of their character, without injuring the majority, against whom they are actuated by the most mean, envious, and contemptible motives. While we have thus to thank "an Elector" for all the fine things he has written about the Assembly, we cannot but regret that he has fallen into the vulgar error, which has no doubt been imposed upon his truthful and credible disposition by the infamous scoundrels to whom we have alluded—that Mr. Coles was desirous of reducing the amount of the Treasurer's security to ten or twelve hundred pounds, and that he voted fifty pounds for a clerk to that office. Mr. Coles, we are sure, never expressed any such desire, and never gave the vote alluded to, although Mr. Maclean voted, in a previous year, that a clerk should be appointed to the Treasury, at a salary of two hundred pounds a year, when he hoped to get the situation for himself. "An Elector," in praising Mr. Coles, might have added, that if he were appointed to the office of Treasurer, to which he does not aspire, he could, in his own person, give security to the amount of ten thousand pounds, the sum at present required; whereas the present Treasurer has neither property nor money that would represent ten thousand farthings. When Mr. Coles is forced to fly from the Island for eleemosynary aid, it will be time for his traducers to say that he wants the Treasury at a reduced security to keep him alive, to pay his debts, and the policy of insurance on his life. It cannot be said, and we breathe the hint confidentially to "an Elector"—that a Snatcher was yet reduced to such a dilemma; or that any one of them had run away, and sold his clothes for his "grog" and daily bread.

CANADA.

We learn from the Toronto Globe that several daring robberies have lately been committed in that city. Private dwellings have been entered at night, and property in gold watches, money and plate, to a considerable amount, was stolen from three of them. Three persons have been arrested on suspicion of being guilty of the robbery, and, after an examination before the bench of Justices, committed for trial. A gold watch and a quantity of silver spoons, identified as some of the stolen property, were discovered in the cellar of a silver melter in Toronto.

The Earl of Elgin has appointed A Meredith, Esq., Deputy Governor, to sign and authenticate money warrants and marriage licences in the Province of Canada, during the temporary absence of the Governor General.

A man named James Webb has been committed to Kingston Jail, charged with wilful murder. The victim's name was William Brennan.

A gold mine has recently been discovered in Lower Canada, which promises to be extremely valuable. The company engaged in it net $20 per day. The gold region embraces an area of 60 or 80 square miles.

Mr. Angus McDonald, J. P., of Merigomish, N. S., was killed a few days since by falling from a Rail Road car at the Albion Mines, the car passing over his body, and crushing it in an awful manner.

Several of our farming friends from different sections of the country concur in saying, that for the last ten years they have not been blest with so profitable a grain harvest, large portions of which are now housed in excellent order.—Halifax Recorder.

We observe by late English papers that the Earl of Dundonald will be succeeded in the naval command on this station, by Vice Admiral Sir Charles Malcolm.

FOURTEEN DAYS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer Empire City arrived at New York on Thursday last, from Chagres, with $756,000 in freight, and about $400,000 in the hands of passengers. The steamers Cherokee and Georgia arrived on the following day, the former bringing over one million of dollars, and a large number of passengers.

The steamer Panama, at Panama, from San Francisco, brings dates to the first of August. She took the cholera on board by receiving passengers on board at Acapulco, and over forty of her passengers died!

The passengers bring very unfavourable reports from the mines, the rivers remaining high, and there was much disappointment in consequence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—The Panama sails this evening, with 350 passengers. There was a large number of applicants for berths, who could not be supplied. The amount of gold first sent by this steamer is large—nearly two millions of dollars, on freight and in the hands of passengers.

The news from the mines is somewhat discouraging. The rivers are yet too high to work advantageously, and ravines have not dried up. Companies of miners are at work turning the rivers, throughout the gold region, and we may expect good reports from them in the course of another month.

The troubles in the southern mines, particularly in the neighbourhood of Sonora, still continue. The accounts of the murders committed are really frightful, and the end is not yet. The Mexicans and Chilians will be driven from the diggings, and armed forces have been organized to carry such a proceeding into effect. At the Mormon Gulch, the foreigners have received formal notice to leave in one week. The fact is settled that the Americans and foreigners cannot work together in harmony, and if either party must succumb, the side to which American sympathy will be given cannot be doubted.

The prospect of a large business this fall is encouraging. Workmen are engaged in garding and planking the streets. In view of the rainy season, artesian wells and reservoirs have been made, and fire companies formed to aid in preventing the spread of conflagration; and, in fact, every thing looks cheering.

BEHIND THE AGE.—The only finished place in this country, says the Albany Dutchman, is Lansburgh. For the last twenty years there has not been a board added, nor a nail driven in the whole place. A man undertook a short time since, to repair his shop, but he was promptly arrested and put to jail. The whole village still believe that DeWitt Clinton is governor of the state.

Dr. Judson, well known throughout the United States, as a Missionary of the Baptist Board of Foreign Missions to Burmah, died at sea when nine days out, on his passage from Maulmain to the Isle of Bourbon, and was buried in the depths of the ocean.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER.

SIR.—I have, through the medium of your paper, to request the public to suspend their judgment respecting the differences existing between the Hon. Ambrose Lane—a Lieutenant on half pay of the 98th Regt., the Lieutenant Colonel of the Militia of this Island, and myself.

I feel myself much aggrieved by the assaults which were perpetrated, and which aggressions have been endeavoured to be excused by the false pretence of an alleged "riot," when in truth there was no such occurrence, of a riot, at all, at the time and place in question.

I deem it unnecessary to comment on what has taken place this day before the Bench of Magistrates, as I feel it due to myself, to the offended laws, and to Her Majesty's service, to demand a due investigation of the affair before the proper tribunal.

I am, Mr. Editor,
Your obedt. servt.,
ABERCROMBIE WILLOCK,
Lieutenant 2nd Regt. Militia.
