Summerside Couple Mark 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Heber H. Hardy of Summerside, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday, November 24th, with a family dinner. The couple were married 50 years ago at the home of Mrs. Hardy's parents by the Rev. George Dawson, minister of the Montrose Methodist Church. The early years of their marriage were spent on their farm near Elmsdale. From 1951 to 1962, Mr. Hardy served as supply minister in the United Church of West Cape, Winslow, and Dundas. Since their retirement, they have been residing at 385 Highland Ave., Summerside. They have two daughters, Olive (Mrs. Earle Atkinson), teacher at Parkside Elementary School; Velda (Mrs. Walter Wells), teacher at Elm Street Elementary School; and one son, Sudron Leader E. Oscar Hardy, RCAF, presently at Ottawa. In addition to their children, five of their eleven grandchildren were present at the family dinner. While they chose to observe their anniversary quietly, they were the recipients of family gifts as well as many others from friends and relatives.

Old Time Veal "Birds" - Tasty En Casserole

Back in the early 1900's, serving "birds" without heads—"oiseaux sans têtes" the French still call them—was a gauge of a hostess' smartness in cookery. Preparing real game-birds was comparatively rare then, and pretend "birds" made of thin slices of veal or beef were considered clever replicas. These were stuffed, rolled, browned and simmered or casserole, served on toast with a fine meat sauce, and embellished with a fashionable garnish; olives in those days were the ultimate in elegance. Today, we present these "pretend birds" for their fine taste and attractive appearance. Measurements level; recipes for 6.

VEAL "BIRDS"
EN CASSEROLE
2 lb. veal steak sliced 1/2" thick
1 egg yolk
1/4 c. mushroom crumb

stuffing (often omitted)
1/4 tsp. flour
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1/4 tsp. ground anise (optional)
1/4 c. melted margarine
1/2 tsp. fine-grated lemon rind
1/2 c. hot water
2 tsp. tomato paste
1 tsp. beef broth powder
1/4 c. sour cream
Cut veal steak into 2" squares. Pound with meat mallet or edge of a heavy sauce until steak squares are about twice as large as you cut them. Mix egg yolk into stuffing and put 4 tbsp. on each piece of veal. Roll up fasten rolls with wooden picks. Dust each "bird" with mixture of flour, salt, pepper and anise. Brown in margarine; then gradually stir in lemon rind, hot water, tomato paste and beef broth powder. Bring to rapid boil; then transfer to casserole. Bake 1 1/2 hr. in mod. oven, 325 to 350 degrees F. or until "birds" are fork-tender. Remove from casserole; take out picks; return "birds" to
