

TIGNISH RACES.

Riverside track, Tignish, held a very successful race meeting on Thursday last. Great credit is due the manager, Mr. J. A. Brennan, for the success of the affair. A very good crowd assembled and the best of order prevailed. The different events were hotly contested and each driver was out to win. In the three-minute class only two horses started, but they were so evenly matched that it caused as much excitement as a fast match race usually does. The green race brought four horses in answer to the judges bell, and it took seven heats to finish the race. The most exciting incident of the day happened in the finish heat when the little pacer driven by Prof. Lockford, and wearing goggles made a misstep and turned a complete somersault—sulky, driver and all. Fortunately no damage was done, and "Rocky" started again in the next heat coming in ahead of the procession. The following is the summary:—

THREE MINUTE CLASS.

Royal Prince (Fuzsimons).....	1	1	1
Kid McCoy (Matthews).....	2	2	2
Time.....	2:59 1/4	2:59 1/4	2:59 1/4

Corwall Beth (Howard).....	3	4	4	4	4	4	4	4	4

Royal Prince was purchased by Mr. W. B. Bowens, New Annan, and will likely be heard from later.

CANADA'S COSTLY LESSON.

With divisions in the Conservative ranks a desire for a change, and also a desire to give the Liberals a chance, many thousands of Conservatives were influenced to cast their ballots for the Liberal candidates, and the Laurier Government is the result.

And oh, what a result! For five years that Government has been in power, and for five years the Canadians have been forced to bow their heads in shame and humiliation because of promises unfulfilled and broken, because of blunders that have made us the laughing stock of nations, because of stealings that have robbed the people of millions of dollars, and because of political corruption that has forced the pupils of the land to cry out against it.

The Liberals have been weighed in the balance and been found wanting.

They promised a clean and business like administration of public affairs; they have distinguished themselves for crookedness and incapacity. They held up their hands in holy horror because of the annual expenditures; they have increased the annual expenditures by from ten to fifteen millions.

They promised clean elections, they have shocked and disgusted all right-thinking people by their corrupt practices.

Truly the Canadian people have learned their lesson. In humiliation, and at great sacrifice have they learned it, but they will profit by it.

Their time is coming, and when given the opportunity they will speak with no uncertain sound. The day of reckoning is near at hand. Let us be prepared for it.—Smith's Falls News.

The Pope's Grief.

LONDON, July 7.—The Daily News' Home correspondent says that the Pope's agitation and grief over the loss of some of the missionaries in China, and the uncertainty as to the fate of the others, are affecting his health and are causing his physicians much concern. His Holiness has ordered masses for the repose of the souls of the missionaries who have been killed and prayers for the safety of the others.

NEWS NOTES.

Mr. Joseph Porter, of Lakeville, had several young cattle at pasture at Casey's Corner, on the South Mountain and last Wednesday night three of them were struck by lightning and killed. The cattle were about a rod apart. There were no signs of injury except that the hair was burned on the side of one.—Wolfville Orchardist.

There were present many of the ratepayers, including both ladies and gentlemen. The school was examined by Mr. Herbert Huntley, who received from the pupils correct answers for all his questions. After the examination was over confectionery was distributed among the pupils by Mr. Brehaut. The school was then closed by singing the National anthem, and all went home realizing the ability of their efficient teacher, Miss Clara McDonald, who without a doubt is one of our best and most painstaking instructors of youth.

A Rare Opportunity.

West Queen's has a rare opportunity of showing the rest of Canada that sturdy independence in a public man is appreciated. The general view of the events that have just taken place in connection with Mr. Wise's resignation and Mr. Pineau's fopover, is that a scandalous piece of political chicanery has been carried out. To continue this by the defeat of Mr. Wise would be a set-back to the rising public sentiment declaring itself for purer electoral and administrative methods.

West Queen's will soon be in one of two positions—an inspiration for further "washing of machines"; or a reminder that a great opportunity was presented and not taken advantage of.

The fate of a besmoked administration rests in the balance.

The electors of West Queen's have the floor!—Montreal Star.
