

PEI to quit Canada

by Dick Schmuck

Premier Angus MacLean announced today PEI's immediate secession from Canada. In a dramatic in today's legislature, Premier MacLean led all members of Conservative, Liberal, NDP and others into the middle of the house floor to signify the unity of all Island parties and the generally uncomfortable house seats.

MacLean stated over-all that he has good intentions towards both PEI and Canada and feels his newly conceived plan for PEI will improve the Island economy and lessen depending on foreign imports (i.e. D.V.A.) for the creation of government jobs.

In a private interview in which former Liberal Bennett Campbell and lifelong enemy Joey Smallwood (who tried this same deal on Brian Peckford last week) were present (and smiling quietly to themselves). Angus outlined his proposals for the future of PEI: "In our present scheme, we will use PEI as the site for a Canadian merchant marine. Any and all shipping firms can register their vessels here. We hope this will steal quite a bit of business from the Liberians. Too many tankers of Liberian registration have been spilling oil on the shores of the world. From now on I want them to be Island ships all the way."

MacLean also stated that all liquor laws will be abolished and nobody will be allowed to be caught not drinking.

This reporter has also learned that the Tories have made a secret deal with the Evinrude Corp. to place a pair of 50hp outboard motors in the Cable Head area. Mr. MacLean feels the noise of the motors will keep tourists away, thereby confounding attempts to develop the Cable Head site. MacLean hopes that after a few years the Island will become navigable and a new latitude could be obtained (hopefully 42-37°). Angus is reported to have said that this will throw a monkey wrench into any further causeway proposals and will force CN to strap long range tanks on the new super ferry.

Bennett Campbell chipped in his two bits worth by stating, "If other provinces want to leave Canada, we want them to try and upstage our act. I personally feel this challenge will provide an incentive to increase the quality of Canadian workmanship as well as provide a good number of new jobs. By the way, we need someone to hold the next week at Cable Head."

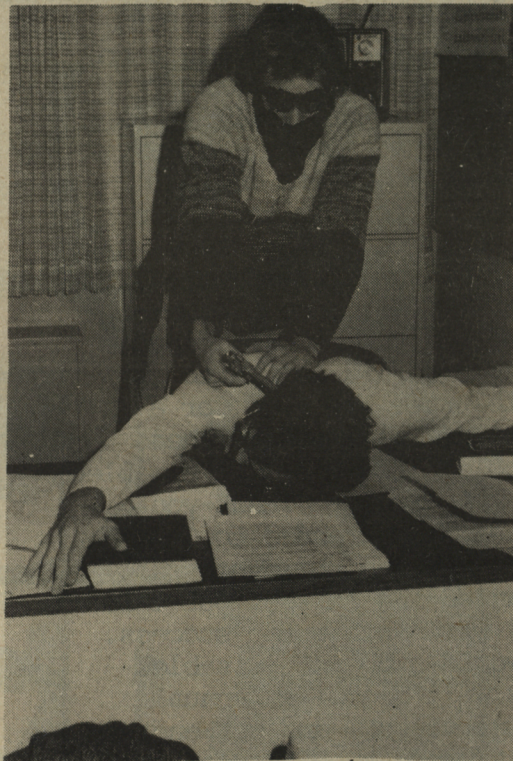

Joey Smallwood was then nudged and he added a few of his gems of wisdom. "With the former 'C Tax' proposals crushed in the last election, I feel John Crosbie will be forced to retire. The last Federal election also brought to light a new Canadian power, the Rhinoceros Party. These fine, upstanding citizens will probably win the next election and, if they follow Angus and Bennett's lead, we will soon have Canada in the four corners of the globe. The head Rhino has already informed me that pick work has begun at all Canadian boundaries and in five to six years we will have a barge of the remaining 9 provinces and two territories heading out across the Pacific. So if any foreign countries need some good land and some good moochers, just cut the appropriate tow line as we pass by in '87."

Masked "Matzo Ball"

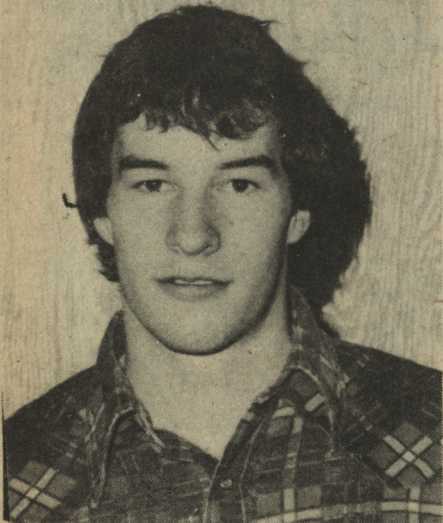

Who is the masked "Matzo ball" who has taken the life of the mystery Prof? No, it is not a Jewish diamond merchant sucking on a "Bagel". This dastardly "mu bastard" is responsible for plastering semi-intellect all over. There are four suspects that the police are investigating.

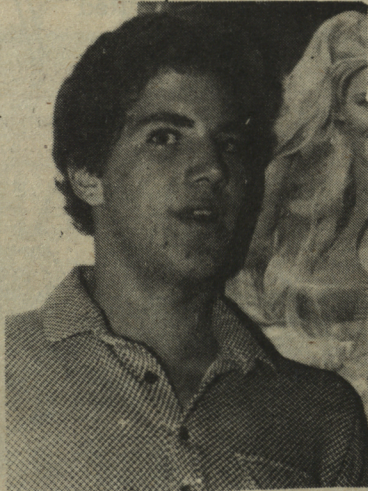

Ivan MacArthur
No. 771-432-111
Sex: Male
Faculty Lov School: Business
Ivan "the terriber" has been seen lately kissing Sue Parloo's sneakers and whispering sweet nothings in her ear. This, plus his love of raping chocolate Easter bunnies, makes Mr. MacArthur a prime suspect. Some believe that the murder could have been his revenge against society for not letting him be SU Prez.

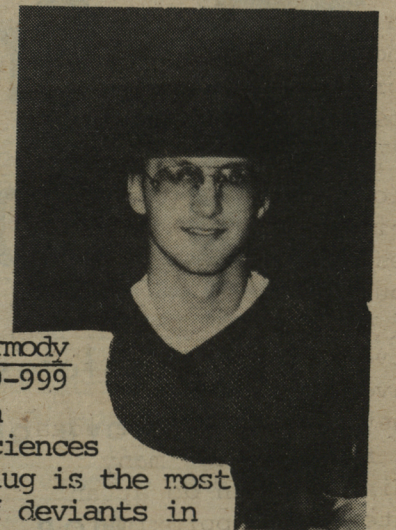

The question is "who-dunni?" There is a $1.98 reward (in Canadian Tire Money) for any one who is able to solve the mystery. Please submit all answers plus some sort of deductive reasoning to the Sun Office.

Alex Smith

Sex: whenever his mom gives the O.K.
Faculty: Science
Alex "the Dilvechio" has been rumored to be the Giovenese family connection at UPEI. A renowned hit man, Lex has bumped off six mice, three guppies, and two cocka poo's, who managed to run out, in front of his mo-ped. This seedy looking character has been seen around Duffy cutting up specimen with a meat cleaver. This perverse behavior makes "the Dancer" a prime suspect.

Tim "Timbo the Dancer" Bellevieau
No. 1/2
Sex: profusely
Faculty: unknown (maybe arts)
Timbo "the sweet" is an underground pretty boy whose appearance in "Cruising" as the man w the arm and the "Crisco" has brought him in high demand among the Confed. Center crowd. But this sexual deviant has also been known to "waste the occasional wine" with his Magnum. He is certainly a candidate for suspicion.

3. Doug Carmody
No. 999-999-999
Sex: Virgin
Faculty: Sciences
Doug the Slug is the most perverse of deviants in town. Doug has been seen with kid Joe offering candy to the little kids on the street corners. Carmody's activity with the KKK and his lust for hand grenades make him a prime suspect.
