Wool Likely To Remain Scarce And High-Priced

By Forbes Rhude
Canadian Press Business Editor
TORONTO, June 14 — (CP)—Wool promises to remain scarce and high-priced.

This was indicated today in an interview by R. G. Lund, chairman of the International Wool Secretariat, London, and New Zealand's representative on the Secretariat.

Demand for wool in post-war years has been running 15 to 25 per cent above supply; and now is 17 per cent above, though the margin may narrow to from 13 to 15 per cent next year.

The gap has been made up from the stock of 10,500,000 bales held at the close of the war by the Joint Organization. At war-end this stock caused some concern and it was estimated that it would take 13 years to dispose of it. But now it is virtually gone, down to 500,000 bales.

Mr. Lund believes the heavy consumption is the result of pent-up demand—higher standards of living in many countries, with financial policies of most countries directed at full employment; and the fact that Europe had been living on "ersatz" materials. Back-demand in countries such as Germany and Japan is still unfulfilled.

Scott Spencer Wins Two Dashes

—Scott Spencer from the Sydney stable of Harry Hirsch, top-money winner in the Marlboroughs for the last two campaigns, started off the season here last night by winning two dashes.

Harley Harrison, who came here from Port Elgin, N. B., was driver for both heats, 9-16th of a mile and a mile.

It was the first night racing card in Sydney's history. About 4,000 turned out for the first card under sponsorship of the newly-organized Cape Breton Turf Club.

Rookies found the going rough. Seventy-three-year old Steen Purves, North Sydney, brought Winona Harvester home second in the first dash of the classified trot, won by Maudine Eastmore.

Back in silks was Clayton MacLeod, Westville, who as a school boy owner and trainer drove Walnut Abbe to a track record shortly after the track opened.

Twenty-four horses competed in the opening meet.

ASCOT, Berkshire, England, June 14 — (Reuters) — The Royal Hunt Cup, big race of the day at the Ascot meet, was won today by James Rank's Hyperbole, a 10-to-1 shot.

145,000,000. However, United States production is about half pre-war; there have been drops in South Africa and Canada, and a slight fall this year in Argentina.

Ascot Race Meet Opens

By Peter Newman
ASCOT, Eng., June 13 — (Reuters) — Half a million people packed the race course today in a gala Royal Ascot, the world's most fashionable race meet, attended traditionally by the Royal Family. A cavalcade of 10,000 automobiles blocked roads into the town for miles.

morning suit, wore a white carnation in his buttonhole. The Queen was in mauve, Princess Elizabeth in grey and Princess Margaret in sky-blue and white.

Top victory in the international race card came when Big Dioper, a 2-to-1 shot, romped home a winner by three lengths in the five-furlongs Coventry Stakes for two-year-old colts.

France took the other big race of the day, the 2 1/2-mile Ascot Slakes with Honorable II. France also snatched the valuable gold vase with the 100-to-6 Fast Lad.
