

Merry Christmas

Best Wishes To All Readers of
The Guardian and The Evening Patriot from the management and staff

We can think of no finer Yuletide sentiment than the old familiar "Merry Christmas". We never grow tired of saying it to our many friends and patrons, and to our subscribers. Nor do we get tired of hearing a cheery message from others. It is the one universal greeting that carries with it the thought of good fellowship, and the appreciation of fine and pleasant associations. This is the sentiment that forms the background of our thinking of you at this glad time of the year. We want you to know that when we say "Merry Christmas", we include our thankfulness for all past favors. The best of everything to one and all in Prince Edward Island
