Business Today Is Becoming Increasingly Complex Field

By FORBES RHUDE

Canadian Press Business Editor

Business today is much more than a matter of making and selling needles and pins, locomotives and turbines.

The essential problem may still be how to make and sell them, but the operation has ramifications undreamed of in earlier and simpler days and ways.

This is illustrated in the kind of special courses now being offered by various universities to help keep the executive abreast of the various realms in which he must operate.

The University of Toronto, for instance, has announced a new summer program for senior executives, June 17-22, and it comments that it is not a course in management principles but rather a form for discussion of broader issues of concern to the senior executive.

"The School of Business," the university comments, "recognizes a need by senior administrators to withdraw from everyday activities, meet with their counterparts from other companies in an academic atmosphere and exchange ideas about the objectives and prospects of business."

MANY SUBJECTS

Subjects to be discussed include the role of government as an adviser and regulator of business; morality in business; effective application of human effort; significance of the role of organized labor; future of Canadian secondary manufacturing; and the economic outlook.

Waterloo University College, at Waterloo, Ont., is presenting a series of 13 weekly lectures Jan. 15-April 9 that will be addressed by various business leaders and government officials.

"It involves," says the announcement, "the whole range of management responsibilities ning, personnel selection, and finance in international trade."

The course has been developed in co-operation with the department of trade and commerce and Trade Minister Hees in giving the opening lecture. Other lectures will follow on successive Monday evenings. Hugh Aitken, president, Export Credits Insurance Corporation, and H. Duke Scott, general manager, Export Finance Corporation of Canada Ltd., will be speakers Jan. 22 on "New Frontiers in Financing Canadian Export Trade."

A group of Canadian business men now are touring Israel. Members of the party — from Saint John, N.B., Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Windsor, Ont. — represent construction and construction equipment, real estate, textiles, soft drinks and metals. The purpose is both to discuss business and look into investment possibilities.

Quotations from recent announcements and speeches:

Shunichi Azuma, executive director, Japan Trade Centre, Toronto, in announcing an April tour of Japanese industry by Canadian businessmen:

"Trade is not just a cold matter of shipments and statistics —it's the actual working relationship between people of different nations. We feel it is in the best interests of all of us to bring these people together and give them a chance to know each other and their ways of thinking."

Ulric Roberge, president, National Canadian Bank: "The striking contrast between unemployment in North America and full employment, or nearly so, in several European countries, reveals that a new world is beginning to emerge from the post-war period. The evolution of Europe, which began about 10 years ago, is a new chapter in the economic history of the world."

U.S. Steel Peak Is Predicted During March

CLEVELAND (AP) — Steel magazine said Sunday steelmaking this year will hit a peak in March, when producers increase their weekly output to 140 per cent of the 1957-59 average.

Production hasn't been that high since March, 1960, when the industry was working to meet the huge demand resulting from a 116-day strike by steelworkers in 1959.

"Output then was rated at 99 per cent of capacity," the metalworking weekly said. "This year, the peak will be less than 90 per cent because capacity has been substantially increased."

The magazine said steelmakers are booking more tonnage per day than they could produce at capacity and in some cases mills have established quotas for each of their sales districts. Tonnage has been allocated to customers on the basis of past purchases, it added.

PRODUCTS IN DEMAND

Flat rolled products are in demand and steelmakers also report gains for bars, plates, tin plate and oil country goods, the publication said.

Steel output this week is expected to be slightly higher than the 2,300,000 tons the magazine estimates the industry poured last week for the best production since the week ended April 9, 1960.

Steel predicted that suppliers of scrap will fare better in the first six months of 1962 than they have in several years.

"A rise of about 5 per cent in domestic demand will offset a sag in exports," the magazine said. "Second half business will hinge on the outcome of steel labor negotiations.

"Domestic consumption of purchased scrap in 1962 is expected to hit around 36,000,000 tons. Exporters will take about 5,000,000 tons."

Dear father, thou are gone
Beyond this world of care,
To dwell forever with the Lord
There'll be no sorrow there.
Oh father, thy gentle voice is hushed,
Thy warm true heart is still.
And on thy pale and peaceful face
Is resting death's cold chill.
Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast.
We kissed thy lonely brow
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no father now.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by wife and family.

Stocks Stem Unexpectedly Sharp Decline

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market last week stemmed the unexpectedly sharp decline of 1962 and began to recover some of its losses.

Although the market averages differed, the statistics showed that of 1,472 issues traded, 709 advanced and 584 declined.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks showed a decline of 3.11 at 711.73.

The Associated Press average of 60 industrials, utilities and rails nudged ahead .40 at 237.60.

Of the major market divisions, the rails put on the sturdiest performance. The week ended by the announcement of merger plans for the biggest and second biggest railroads of the U.S. — the Pennsylvania Railroad and New York Central.

Both were among the most actively traded issues on the New York Stock Exchange. Pennsy closed the week at 18½, up ⅝, and Central at 20⅝, up 1¼, in big board trading.

SPARKED REBOUND

President Kennedy's State of the Union message flashed the green light for the general market rebound. Price stock the uptrend late Thursday and continued it without interruption throughout Friday.

Volume was 18,634,730 shares compared with 15,796,810 in the four - day trading week previous.

The big financial news of the week was Ford Motor's plan for a 2-for-1 stock split. Traders sold on the news and Ford fell 2¼ on the week.

The most active issues on the New York Stock Exchange:

Brunswick, off 3⅛ at 41⅝ on 577,600 shares; Ford, off 2⅛ at 110¾; General Dynamics, up 2⅞ at 34.

The most active issues on the American Stock Exchange were:

Great Basins Petroleum, up 1½ at 8 on 326,700 shares; McCulloch, off, up ⅝ at 3¾, Canada Southern Petroleum, up 7-16 at 4⅛.

TIGNISH

Clarence Fraser, son of Mrs. Kenneth Fraser, was honored at his home in Tignish on January 3 on the occasion of his 13th birthday. Twenty of his school friends attended the party and music and games were enjoyed. A special feature of the entertainment was a step-dance by David Arsenault, and a jig by Ronald Richard.

Miss Lorraine Kelly, Toronto, Ont., was a recent guest at the home of Mrs. C.F. Morrissey, where she visited Messers Eugene and Don Kinch of Toronto, who were spending the holiday season with their aunt.

Bobby Boyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Boyce, Tignish, celebrated his 13th birthday at a party given in his honor by his cousins Donna and Nancy at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Costain, Charlottetown, where Bobby was spending a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peters, Phillips Corner, left on a motor trip to Saint John, N.B., and Maine, where they will spend some time visiting relatives and friends.
